Introduction

Welcome to your 21-day Bible study on the Origin of God. This study invites you to embark on a profound exploration of who God is, His eternal nature, and what Scripture reveals about His origin—or rather, the divine truth that God is eternal and uncreated. As we delve into Scripture, we will uncover foundational truths that affirm God's existence beyond time and space, a divine being who has no beginning nor end.

Many people wrestle with the question, "Where did God come from?" or "Who created God?" This study tackles these inquiries with biblical clarity and spiritual insight. The Bible reveals that God is self-existent, alpha and omega, the eternal creator of all things. This journey will coordinate passages from Genesis to Revelation, providing a layered understanding of God's timelessness and unchanging nature.

Throughout the next three weeks, each day will focus on a topic related to God's origin, attributes, and presence. You will read Scripture, reflect on devotional insights, and engage with thought–provoking questions to open your heart and mind. Use this time to deepen your faith, challenge your understanding, and draw near to the living God.

We encourage you to pray daily, ask the Holy Spirit for wisdom, and journal your discoveries and revelations. By day 21, you will have a richer appreciation for the eternal God revealed in His Word.

Let's begin this journey with an open heart and mind, ready to encounter the living God who transcends all human understanding.

Your Verse

Genesis 1:1 - "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."
- Psalm 90:2 "Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God."

Devotional: Embracing God's Eternal Existence

Have you ever considered what 'the beginning' truly means? In Genesis 1:1, the Bible starts with a simple statement declaring God as the Creator of all. But what about God's own beginning? Scripture is clear: God did not have a beginning. He is outside the realms of time and space, existing eternally.

Psalm 90:2 beautifully describes God's nature: "from everlasting to everlasting you are God." This means God's existence transcends time itself — He has no origin point like creation does. Similarly, John 1:1 affirms that Jesus, the Word, was with God in the beginning and is God, highlighting the eternal unity and existence of God the Father and Son.

Reflecting on God's eternality can deepen our awe and worship. He is not a created thing but the source of all life and time. Trusting in a God who always was provides a stable foundation for our faith and hope.

Take time today to meditate on the God who stands above time and creation — the eternal foundation.

Day 2: W The Self-Existence of God

Day 2: ♥ The Self-Existence of God

Supporting Scriptures

- John 8:58 "Before Abraham was born, I am!"
- Revelation 1:8 "'I am the Alpha and the Omega,' says the Lord God, 'who is, and who was, and who is to come.'"

Day 2: **3 The Self-Existence of God

Devotional: God's Unique Self-Existence Revealed

God reveals Himself to Moses with a name unlike any other: 'I AM WHO I AM.' This divine name expresses God's unique self-existence. Unlike creatures who depend on parents or circumstances to exist, God is self-existent—He depends on nothing and no one.

John 8:58 echoes this declaration with Jesus claiming, "Before Abraham was born, I am!" affirming His divinity and eternality. The phrase "I am" connects Jesus with the God who spoke to Moses, revealing the unity and eternality of God the Father and the Son.

Revelation 1:8 continues this theme, describing God as the Alpha and Omega—the beginning and the end—who eternally exists. This truth assures us that the God we worship cannot be limited, needs nothing to sustain Himself, and reigns forever.

Understanding God's self-existence helps us trust fully in His power and unfailing presence. In a world of change and uncertainty, God remains the constant "I AM" who is always present and faithful.

- Isaiah 43:13 "Before me no god was formed, nor will there be one after me."

Devotional: God's Power in Creation and Sustenance

God's creative power demonstrates His eternal nature and supremacy. The Apostle Paul thankfully reminds us in Colossians 1:16–17 that all things were created through and for Christ, and importantly, He holds all things together. The creative act did not just occur in the past; God continually sustains the universe.

Hebrews 1:3 echoes this sustaining power, describing Jesus as the radiance and representation of God's nature, upholding everything by His mighty word. God's ongoing power over creation confirms He is not just the origin, but also the sustainer of life.

In Isaiah 43:13, God emphatically declares that He is unique—there is no other god formed before or after Him. This highlights His eternal existence and unmatched authority.

God's relationship with time is unlike ours. While we live within the constraints of seconds, minutes, and years, God exists outside of this human timeline.

The apostle Peter reminds us in 2 Peter 3:8 that a single day to God equates to a thousand years and vice versa. This perspective reveals that God transcends time, existing in an eternal present where beginnings and endings blend.

Psalm 102 stresses that God's years never end and that He remains unchanging amidst the flux of creation. Isaiah affirms God as everlasting, the Creator who knows no end or limitation.

When life feels rushed or overwhelming, remembering God's timelessness can bring peace and trust. He is always in control and never bound by our constraints or anxieties.
