Your Verse

Jeremiah 1:5 – 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.'

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 2:10 'For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works.'
- 2 Timothy 1:7 'For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline.'

Devotional: Embrace Your God-Ordained Calling

Understanding your divine calling is the cornerstone of effective ministry. Jeremiah's story reminds us that God intimately knows us, even before our birth—He has a unique purpose for each of us. This calling is not an accident but a deliberate appointment.

For women in ministry, this truth is incredibly empowering. It means your voice, leadership, and gifts are not only accepted but ordained by God. Even in moments of doubt or opposition, remember God has equipped you with power, love, and self-discipline to fulfill the task.

Recognize that your ministry gifts, whether in preaching, counseling, teaching, or mission, are crafted by God's design. Let today be a day to rest in His sure knowledge of you and embrace your role with confidence.

Reflect and Apply

How does knowing God knew you before birth affect your view of your ministry?
What fears or insecurities might you need to surrender to God's spirit of power?
In what ways can you remind yourself daily that you are God's handiwork?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a moment when you felt God's call on your life.
3.	List your God-given gifts and how you use them in ministry.
	Reflect on any barriers you face and how God's power helps you overcome them.

Prayer for Today

Dear Lord, thank You for knowing me intimately and calling me by name. Help me to fully embrace the purpose You set before me, equipping me with power, love, and self-discipline. Remind me daily that I am Your handiwork, created to do good works for Your glory. Strengthen my heart to serve boldly and with grace in every ministry role I undertake. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Supporting Scriptures

- James 1:5 'If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault.'
- Colossians 1:9 'We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives.'

Devotional: Seek God's Wisdom to Lead Well

Leadership in ministry requires wisdom beyond knowledge. The virtuous woman celebrated in Proverbs 31 is renowned for her wise speech and trustworthy counsel. As a woman minister, your leadership calls for the same spirit—words seasoned with grace and truth that uplift and guide.

Asking God for wisdom daily is critical. Wisdom empowers us to navigate complex situations, make decisions that honor God's will, and mentor others effectively. It is not merely intellectual but practical and spiritual insight poured out by the Holy Spirit.

Lean into God's promise to give wisdom generously without reproach. Whether preaching, counseling, or serving in mission, rely on His guidance to speak life and faith into every encounter.

Reflect and Apply

Supporting Scriptures

- Philippians 4:13 'I can do all this through him who gives me strength.'
- 2 Corinthians 12:9 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.'

Devotional: Rely on God's Strength Daily

The path of ministry is filled with joys and trials. Whether you are preaching to a congregation, counseling the hurting, or serving on the mission field, you will face moments of fatigue, opposition, or discouragement.

Isaiah's promise assures us that God renews our strength. When you place your hope in Him, you will soar like eagles, running without weariness. This divine strength surpasses human endurance and enables you to keep pressing forward, even when the road feels long.

Remember Paul's testimony that God's grace is enough, especially in weakness. Lean into His power daily and watch how He transforms obstacles into testimonies of His faithfulness.

- Ephesians 6:19 'Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel.'

Devotional: Speak Truth with Courage and Grace

Priscilla is a shining example of a woman bold in teaching and ministry. The Scripture reminds us she did not shy away from explaining God's ways clearly, even to leaders. Similarly, women in ministry today must embrace courage to speak truth into their contexts.

God's Spirit replaces timidity with power and love. You might face criticism or cultural pushback, but remember your boldness is empowered by a divine source. Speaking truth with love and discipline builds others up and spreads the gospel effectively.

Pray for God's wisdom and courage daily so you can stand firm, inspire change, and lead with unwavering conviction.

Supporting Scriptures

- Mark 10:45 'For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve.'
- Romans 12:10 'Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves.'

Devotional: Lead Through Humble Service

True leadership in ministry is marked by humble service. Paul's words to the Philippians remind us that Godly leaders don't seek personal glory but prioritize the needs and growth of others.

Women in ministry can lead powerfully without pride by continuously cultivating humility. Jesus, our perfect example, modeled this servant-hearted approach by coming not to be served, but to serve.

Humility builds trust, breaks down barriers, and creates an atmosphere where others feel valued and supported. When you lead with a servant's heart, your ministry reflects the love of Christ profoundly.

Reflect and Apply

1.	In what ways are you currently practicing humility in your leadership?

Women in ministry often face opposition—from culture, traditions, or personal doubts. Esther's story encourages us to remember God's divine placement and timing in our lives.

Your position as a woman leader is not accidental. God has appointed you for this precise season to make an impact even when it feels risky or hard.

Your investment in others multiplies God's kingdom. It plants seeds of truth and encouragement that bear fruit for generations. Whether formal or informal, your guidance shapes lives profoundly.

Devotional: Stay Connected to Bear Much Fruit

Fruitfulness is the natural result of abiding in Christ. Without connection to the vine, our efforts in ministry will lack lasting impact.

As branches, your daily communion with Jesus fuels spiritual growth and ministry effectiveness. The fruit of the Spirit evidences authentic character and attracts others to God's kingdom.

Ministry often involves long seasons of heart work with delayed results. The temptation to grow weary is real for women leaders who give tirelessly.

God encourages perseverance, promising a harvest at the right time. Your faithfulness matters—even when immediate outcomes are unseen.

By embracing grace, you release yourself from the burden of striving alone. God's power is perfected in your limitations, shaping strength from vulnerability.
