Introduction

Endurance is an essential part of the Christian journey. While many think of endurance as persevering through hardship, one of the greatest tests of faith can also come during seasons of increase and prosperity. When resources multiply, the temptation to compromise our values, trust in our own strength, or lose sight of God's provision can be powerful challenges.

Enduring temptations of wealth means learning to hold onto faithfulness, humility, and generosity, even as blessings abound. This Bible study will guide you through Scripture that reveals how God's people stayed strong in their trust and obedience, despite the allure of riches and comfort. You will discover practical wisdom for keeping your heart focused on God, refusing to be ensnared by greed, and living with integrity in the midst of abundance.

Each day offers a passage, devotional insights, and questions to help you reflect deeply on your personal journey. Whether you are just beginning to experience new blessings or have long walked in prosperity, this study invites you to develop endurance that honors God above all.

As you commit to these days of study, ask the Holy Spirit to open your heart to wisdom and courage. Remember, faithful endurance does not mean avoiding blessings but trusting God fully through them.

Day 1: 7 Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Day 1: Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Your Verse

James 1:12 - "Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 12:1 "Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."
- 1 Corinthians 10:13 "No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind."

Day 1: 🍞 Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Devotional: Building a Strong Foundation for Endurance

Endurance begins with a firm foundation in faith and love for God. James encourages believers that perseverance through trials brings a lasting reward — the crown of life. Trials test not only those facing hardship but also those tempted in times of prosperity. The lure of wealth can be a quiet, persistent trial, challenging our trust in God's provision.

Endurance is not passive; it is an active choice to remain faithful, choosing God daily over comfort or ease. Like an athlete training for a race, we need spiritual discipline and focus. Temptations of wealth may come as opportunities to boast, hoard, or prioritize possessions, but God calls us to a higher calling.

Remember, no temptation is unique or beyond what God allows, and He promises a way out so we can endure. Today, reflect on your foundation — is your faith strong and rooted in God or shaken by the allure of wealth?

Day 1: 🍞 Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do I currently respond when I experience new financial blessings?
2.	What spiritual disciplines help me stay grounded in faith?
3.	In what ways might prosperity test my trust in God?

Day 1: 🍞 Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when you felt tested by abundance.
2.	List qualities that help you persevere in faith.
3.	Describe what a faithful response to wealth looks like in your life.

Day 1: 7 Foundations of Faithful Endurance

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, thank You for the gift of faith and for the strength to endure trials and temptations alike. Help me to build a foundation firmly rooted in You, especially when blessings increase. Guard my heart from pride or greed, and teach me to trust wholly in Your provision. May I remain faithful and use every resource for Your glory. Amen. 🙏 🕒

Your Verse

1 Timothy 6:9-10 - "Those who want to get rich fall into temptation... For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil."

Supporting Scriptures

- Matthew 6:24 "You cannot serve both God and money."
- Proverbs 11:28 "Those who trust in their riches will fall."

Devotional: Choosing God Over Wealth Every Day

As resources grow, so can the temptation to place wealth above God. Paul's warning to Timothy is clear: the desire to get rich can lead to harmful choices that separate us from God. It's not money itself, but the love of money—the desire, pride, and trust we place in it—that threatens our endurance.

Guarding your heart means consciously choosing to serve God over riches. Jesus reminds us it is impossible to serve both. When possessions become a source of security or identity, we risk stumbling in our spiritual walk.

Today, reflect on how you view your money and wealth. Are these tools for God's kingdom or potential stumbling blocks? How can you cultivate an attitude of contentment and stewardship, even as blessings increase?

Reflect and Apply

1.	What areas of my life show my trust in money rather than God?
2.	How do I handle financial blessings without losing spiritual focus?
3.	In what ways can I actively serve God with my resources?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about your personal struggles with the love of money.
2.	Describe ways you can practice contentment in abundance.
3.	Make a plan to use resources intentionally for God's purposes.

Prayer for Today

Lord God, teach me to love You above all earthly things. Help me to guard my heart from the snares of wealth and to remember that true security comes only from You. Give me wisdom in handling my blessings and courage to remain faithful when temptations abound. May my desire be to serve You wholeheartedly. Amen.

Day 3: Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Day 3: ① Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Your Verse

Ephesians 6:10–11 – "Put on the full armor of God, so that you can stand against the devil's schemes."

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 12:9 "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."
- Psalm 119:11 "I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you."

Day 3: ① Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Devotional: Equipping Yourself to Resist Temptation

Enduring temptation requires preparation and protection. Paul's metaphor of the full armor of God reminds us to equip ourselves spiritually so we can stand firm against all schemes, including those related to wealth. This armor includes truth, righteousness, faith, salvation, the Word, and prayer.

When blessings increase, Satan's attacks may intensify, tempting us to pride, selfishness, or complacency. However, God's grace is sufficient to empower us.

Memorizing and meditating on Scripture like Psalm 119:11 helps protect our hearts from sin. Prayer and reliance on God's power enable us to withstand temptation. Today, take intentional steps to put on this armor by deepening your relationship with God.

Day 3: ${f O}$ Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Reflect and Apply

1.	Which pieces of God's armor do I need to focus on more?
2.	How can Scripture help me overcome temptations of wealth?
3.	Am I relying more on God's strength or my own when facing trials?

Day 3: ${f O}$ Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write a prayer asking God to equip you with His armor.
2.	List Scriptures that help you resist temptation and memorize one.
3.	Reflect on moments when God's grace was enough in weakness.

Day 3: ① Strengthening Your Spiritual Armor

Prayer for Today

Father, help me to put on Your full armor each day, standing firm against the temptations that come with prosperity. Strengthen me with Your truth and righteousness. May Your Word dwell richly in my heart and Your grace sustain me when I am weak. I trust in You alone. Amen. •

Your Verse

2 Corinthians 9:7 - "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 12:15 "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed."
- Proverbs 3:9 "Honor the Lord with your wealth."

Devotional: Gratitude and Generosity Guard Against Greed

Gratitude and generosity are powerful tools that help believers endure temptations of wealth. When we recognize every blessing as coming from God, our hearts naturally turn to thankfulness and giving.

Cheerful giving is an act of worship and a declaration that God is our true source and provider. It also protects us from greed, which can harden the heart and lead to spiritual decline.

By intentionally honoring God with our resources, we acknowledge His lordship and express our trust in Him rather than in money. As wealth grows, guard your heart by cultivating gratitude and looking for opportunities to bless others.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do gratitude and generosity change my view of wealth?
2.	What prevents me from giving freely and cheerfully?
3.	How can my giving reflect my trust in God's provision?

Journaling Prompts

1.	List blessings you have received recently and thank God for them.
2.	Journal about your attitude toward giving and generosity.
3.	Make a plan for how you will steward your resources to bless others.

Prayer for Today

Gracious God, cultivate in me a heart of gratitude and generosity. Help me to recognize Your blessings daily and to give cheerfully, honoring You with all I have. Keep me vigilant against greed and teach me to trust You as my true provider. Use me as a vessel of Your love. Amen. • L

Your Verse

Galatians 6:9 – "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

Supporting Scriptures

- Romans 12:12 "Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."
- Philippians 4:11 "I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances."

Devotional: Persevering Faithfully Until the Harvest

Enduring the temptations of wealth is a lifelong journey. Galatians reminds us to not grow weary but to continue doing good, trusting God to bring the harvest in His perfect timing. Faithfulness in seasons of plenty is just as important as in times of need.

Contentment, joy, patience, and prayer are keys to living this endurance. Paul's example shows us that contentment isn't dependent on circumstances but on abiding in Christ.

As you complete this study, commit to living faithfully each day by relying on God's strength. Embrace your role as a steward of blessings, and keep your eyes fixed on eternal reward rather than temporary gain.

Reflect and Apply

What spiritual habits help me remain faithful over time?
How do I maintain contentment amid growing resources?
What does hope for eternal reward mean in my day-to-day life?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Reflect on how you have grown in endurance through this study.
2.	Write about your commitment to faithful stewardship going forward.
2
3.	Describe the 'harvest' you hope to see from your faithful endurance.

Prayer for Today

Dear Lord, thank You for teaching me to endure with faithfulness in every season. Help me to not grow weary but to keep doing good, trusting Your timing and provision. Fill me with joy, patience, and contentment as I rely on You daily. May my life glorify You through faithful stewardship. Amen.
