This story, found in Genesis 22, is a powerful foreshadowing of Christ's sacrifice and God's provision for humanity. When God called Abraham to offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice, Abraham responded in unwavering faith. Yet, just before the sacrifice, God provides a ram caught in a thicket as a substitute.

This narrative is more than a historical account. It is a vibrant picture that connects to the ultimate sacrifice Christ made for us on the cross. As we journey through these 21 days, we will unpack the deep spiritual truths about faith tested, the promise of redemption, and God's perfect provision.

Through this study, you'll gain insights into:

Day 1: A The Call to Faith

Day 1: A The Call to Faith

Your Verse

Genesis 22:1 - Then God said, "Take your son, your only son, whom you love —Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 11:17 By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice.
- Romans 12:1 Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice.

Day 1: A The Call to Faith

Devotional: Responding to God's Surprising Call

God's call to Abraham was both astonishing and challenging. To be asked to sacrifice the child he loved most must have shaken Abraham's heart deeply. Yet, Abraham's immediate obedience models a profound trust in God's promises—even when the path is unclear. This passage invites us to consider what God is calling us to surrender in faith.

Faith is not simply belief but active trust in God's provision when we face trials. Abraham did not see the full picture but trusted God's character and promises. Our walk with God often requires stepping into the unknown, counting on Him to provide and fulfill His word.

As you begin this study, ask yourself: What is God calling me to trust Him with today? How can Abraham's example inspire your faith journey?

Supporting Scriptures

- John 3:16 For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son.
- Romans 8:32 He who did not spare His own Son, but gave Him up for us all.

Devotional: Sacrificing What We Cherish Most

Isaac was not just Abraham's beloved son; he was the promised child through whom God planned to bless the nations. The call to sacrifice Isaac highlights the tension between God's promises and Abraham's faith. It shows that faith sometimes requires surrendering the very blessings God has given.

This foreshadows the greatest sacrifice—God's own Son, Jesus Christ, given for the salvation of humanity. Just as Abraham was ready to give up Isaac, God gave His Son to redeem us. This story reveals how divine love involves sacrifice and the fulfillment of God's promises in unexpected ways.

Reflect on God's incredible gift of His Son and the depth of love it signifies. How does this understanding affect your trust in God's promises?

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does Isaac's role tell you about God's promises and timing?
2.	How do you relate to God's willingness to give His Son for you?
	What blessings might God be asking you to surrender for His greater plan?

Abraham's immediate obedience is striking. He did not delay nor question God's command aloud. His willingness to rise early and begin the journey without hesitation exemplifies faith in action.

The journey to Moriah was more than physical; it was a spiritual walk of trust. This reminds us that faith involves a daily commitment to follow God, even into difficult places.

When God calls us to a difficult path, it requires steady steps of trust, surrendering our understanding to His divine wisdom. Abraham's example encourages us to rely fully on God as we step forward into unknown terrain.

- Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you to offer your bodies as living sacrifices.

Devotional: Total Surrender on the Altar

The moment on the mountain is weighty and profound. Abraham's preparation to sacrifice Isaac reveals total surrender and trust, even at the cost of losing what was most precious.

This moment also points forward to Christ's sacrifice on the cross—binding, laying down life, and offering Himself for our salvation. Abraham likely did not fully understand all God's plans, yet he acted in obedience, foreshadowing God's greater plan of redemption through Jesus.

Consider what it means to offer yourself entirely to God—your dreams, your future, your loved ones. Faith sometimes calls for surrender greater than comfort allows.
