Growth is central to the Christian life. Yet, one of the most challenging barriers to our spiritual development is the stronghold of greed. Greed entangles the heart, blinds us from true contentment, and distracts us from God's best. This 21-day Bible study plan is designed to help you recognize, confront, and break free from the grip of greed through the power of Scripture and heartfelt prayer.

Over the next three weeks, you will explore God's Word deeply, uncovering biblical truths that unveil greed's dangerous hold and reveal the path to freedom. From learning about contentment and generosity to cultivating gratitude and trust in God's provision, this study encourages a holistic approach to growth—transforming your heart and mind in Christ.

Escaping the grip of greed is not about self-denial alone; it is about embracing God's abundant life. You'll be equipped with practical insights, reflective questions, and prayer prompts that invite God to be the source of your satisfaction, not material wealth or possessions.

Remember, growth takes time and intentionality. Be patient with yourself and open to the Spirit's work in daily life. Through this study, may you experience true freedom in Christ—finding joy in what you have, hope in His sufficiency, and peace that surpasses all understanding. Day 1: Recognizing Greed's Grip

Day 1: 🌱 Recognizing Greed's Grip

Your Verse

Luke 12:15 - "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Timothy 6:10 - "For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil."
- Hebrews 13:5 - "Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have."

Day 1: 🌱 Recognizing Greed's Grip

Devotional: Seeing Greed for What It Is

Greed often disguises itself as a desire for security or comfort. But the Bible warns us sharply: life is not measured by how much we accumulate. Jesus teaches us in Luke 12:15 to be vigilant, because greed can creep into our hearts subtly and take root before we realize it.

This first day is about awareness—acknowledging where greed might have taken hold in your own life. Are there areas where possessions, wealth, or status have become idols? The love of money can lead us away from God's best, resulting in dissatisfaction and harmful desires.

By asking God to reveal hidden areas of greed, we begin the process of liberation. This is not about condemning yourself but inviting God's grace to bring clarity. Contentment is a fruit of the Spirit and can only grow when the seed of greed is uprooted.

Today's step: commit to observing your thoughts and motives throughout the day. Where is your heart leaning? This awareness starts transformation.

Reflect and Apply

1. In what ways have you noticed greed influencing your decisions recently?

2. How is your value or security linked to material things?

3. What emotions arise when you think about being content with less?

Day 1: 🌱 Recognizing Greed's Grip

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time when greed affected your relationship with God or others.

2. List possessions or desires that seem to control your heart.

3. Describe what true contentment looks like for you in God's eyes.

Day 1: 🌱 Recognizing Greed's Grip

Prayer for Today

Lord, open my eyes to the hidden places in my heart where greed may live. Help me to see honestly and receive Your grace to overcome it. Teach me to find satisfaction in You alone, not in earthly things. Break the chains of greed and plant seeds of contentment deep within. I surrender my desires to You today. In Jesus' name, Amen. 🙏❤️🌱

Day 2: Contentment in Christ

Your Verse

Philippians 4:11 – "I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Timothy 6:6 – "Godliness with contentment is great gain."
- Hebrews 13:5 – "Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have."

Day 2: 🌱 Contentment in Christ

Devotional: Cultivating Godly Contentment

Contentment is a spiritual discipline that frees us from greed's grasp. The apostle Paul reminds us that true contentment isn't based on external circumstances but on a deep trust in God's provision.

Learning to be content means recognizing that God is enough in every situation—whether abundance or lack. It's a mindset crafted through daily surrender and focused on eternal values rather than temporary possessions or status.

When our hearts rest in Christ, we stop chasing after things that never truly satisfy. This peace guards our hearts against greed's lies and invites joy to flourish.

Reflect today on your own levels of contentment. Where do you struggle? Bring those areas to God and ask Him to fill your heart with His sufficiency.

Reflect and Apply

1. What does contentment look like in your daily life?

2. How can trusting God more increase your contentment?

3. Are there past moments when contentment brought you peace?

Journaling Prompts

1. Reflect on a difficult circumstance where God helped you be content.

2. Write a prayer inviting God to cultivate contentment in your heart.

3. List three things you currently feel content with today.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ecclesiastes 5:10 - "Whoever loves money never has enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income."
- Matthew 6:24 - "You cannot serve both God and money."

Day 3: 💧 The Danger of Loving Money

Devotional: Idolatry of Money and Its Risks

Money itself is neutral, but loving it can entangle our souls. The Bible warns us that the love of money is dangerous and leads to all kinds of evil, including greed and idolatry.

When money becomes a primary focus or source of security, it can dictate choices and priorities, pulling us away from God's kingdom. Ecclesiastes captures this emptiness perfectly—chasing wealth never truly satisfies the soul.

Jesus gives us a stark choice in Matthew 6:24: we cannot serve both God and money. This challenges us to examine our hearts honestly. Is money a tool, or has it become a master in your life?

Ask God to reveal if love of money is crowding out your love for Him. Repent and redirect your heart toward eternal treasure.

Day 3: 💧 The Danger of Loving Money

Reflect and Apply

1. How does money influence your decisions and peace of mind?

2. Have you ever felt money competed with your devotion to God?

- Luke 16:13 - "No servant can serve two masters."

Day 4: ✨ Seeking Heavenly Treasures

Devotional: Investing in Eternal Riches

Our hearts follow where our treasures lie. Jesus teaches us to focus on eternal treasures—spiritual riches that cannot decay, be stolen, or lost.

This call to heavenly investment challenges the natural tendency to accumulate earthly possessions. It shifts our mindset from temporary gain to lasting value.

What does it mean to seek treasures in heaven? It means prioritizing love, generosity, obedience, and faithfulness that reflect God's kingdom. Our daily choices show what we truly treasure.

Today, evaluate your treasures and redirect your heart toward eternal rewards. Trust that God values your faithfulness more than your wealth.

Day 4: ✨ Seeking Heavenly Treasures

Reflect and Apply

Proverbs 3:9-10 - "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing."

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 16:10 - "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much."
- Ecclesiastes 7:12 - "Wisdom preserves those who have it."

Day 5: 💡 Wisdom to Use Wealth Wisely

Devotional: Honoring God Through Stewardship

God calls us to steward financial blessings responsibly and generously.

Proverbs invites us to honor God with our wealth—giving Him the first and best portions, which opens the door to true blessing.

Wisdom guides us in using money as a resource for God's purposes rather than personal gain. Jesus reminds us that faithfulness in little prepares us for greater trust and responsibility.

Consider your own stewardship and how it reflects your heart toward God. Are you generous, wise, and prayerful in managing your resources? Or is greed limiting your impact?

Pray for God's wisdom to handle wealth in ways that honor Him and benefit others.

Reflect and Apply

1. How do you currently honor God with your finances?

Day 6: ❤ Generosity as Growth

Devotional: Sowing Generosity, Reaping Blessings

Growth in Christ leads us into greater generosity. The principle of sowing and reaping teaches that generous giving results in abundant blessings—not just material, but spiritual and relational as well.

Being generous breaks the chains of greed and opens our hearts to God's abundance. It is an expression of trust and love that reflects God's own character.

God delights when we give joyfully, not out of obligation or fear. Growth takes root as we step out in faith, seeing our resources as means to bless and serve others.

Reflect on your giving habits. How does generosity shape your spiritual journey?

- James 4:4 – "Friendship with the world is enmity with God."

Devotional: Setting Hearts on God, Not Goods

Materialism competes for our hearts with God's kingdom. Jesus teaches that our hearts follow our treasures, so what we value most shapes our entire lives.

Modern culture often glorifies possessions and consumption, making it easy to slip into loving the world rather than loving God. Yet Scripture clearly warns us of the danger in friendship with the world—it breeds separation from God.

Today is an invitation to evaluate influences and desires that can foster materialism. What messages are shaping your heart and priorities? Ask God to renew your mind and purify your affections.

Let's commit to setting our hearts wholly on God's eternal glory, resisting worldly temptation.

Trust is the soil where spiritual growth related to greed flourishes. When we truly trust God's provision and faithfulness, our desire for material security diminishes.

The Psalmist gives testimony to God's unwavering care for His people over a lifetime. Jesus echoes this, urging us not to worry but to prioritize God's kingdom.

Trust grows when we recall God's past faithfulness and choose to rely on Him daily. This deepens contentment and weakens greed's grip.
