Introduction

Welcome to this 21-day Bible study on God's Wrath and Mercy in the End Times. The book of Revelation is a powerful revelation of what is to come. It unveils both the terrifying judgments of God's wrath against sin and the comforting truth of His unfailing mercy and patience toward humanity.

Understanding these dual themes is essential. On one hand, God's wrath expresses His justice and holiness, refusing to leave sin unpunished, but on the other, His mercy reveals His deep desire for repentance and restoration. These truths are not contradictory but perfectly balanced within God's heart.

Over these next three weeks, we will journey through the end times as portrayed in Revelation, appreciating the weight of God's judgments while also embracing the hope of His enduring patience. You will encounter Scriptural insights into the seals, trumpets, and bowls of judgment, along with prophecies that point toward His ultimate plan of redemption and restoration.

Our prayer is that through this study, you will grow in awe of God's holiness, gratitude for His mercy, and confidence in His sovereign love. The end times are a demonstration not only of divine justice but also of God's relentless pursuit of mercy for all who turn to Him.

Let's begin this journey with open hearts, ready to see the heart of God revealed through the profound realities of His wrath and mercy. May this study deepen your faith and encourage your spiritual walk as we prepare for what is to come.

Day 1: God's Justice and Mercy Revealed

Day 1:  God's Justice and Mercy Revealed

Your Verse

Revelation 3:19 – "Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 85:10 – "Love and faithfulness meet together; righteousness and peace kiss each other."
- Romans 2:4 – "Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, forbearance and patience, not realizing that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repentance?"

Day 1:  God's Justice and Mercy Revealed

Devotional: God's Wrath is an Act of Loving Justice

God's nature involves both justice and mercy. Revelation 3:19 reminds us that God's judgment is an expression of His love. When He disciplines, it is because He cares deeply for His children. His wrath is not arbitrary punishment, but a loving call to repentance.

Psalms 85:10 poetically captures how love and righteousness coexist perfectly. God's holiness demands justice, but His love extends mercy and offers peace.

Romans 2:4 highlights that God's kindness and patience are designed to lead us to change our hearts and return to Him. Even in the end times, His judgments are tempered by His desire for us to repent and be restored.

As you begin this study, consider how God's wrath and mercy coexist and what that means for your understanding of His heart.

Reflect and Apply

1. How do you personally reconcile God's wrath with His mercy?

2. In what ways has God's discipline revealed His love to you?

3. What areas of your life need repentance in light of God's kindness and patience?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time when you experienced God's loving discipline.

- Nahum 1:2 – "The Lord is a jealous and avenging God; the Lord takes vengeance and is filled with wrath."

Devotional: Sovereign God Commands the Seal Judgments

The opening of the seals in Revelation introduces God's just judgments upon the earth. These events remind us that nothing escapes His sovereign control — even calamity is used to accomplish His purposes.

Isaiah 45:7 assures us that God creates both light and darkness, prosperity and disaster, emphasizing His complete authority over all circumstances.

Nahum 1:2 depicts God's wrath as righteous and resolute against evil, reminding us that His justice must be executed to uphold holiness.

Even as God's judgments unfold, His patience remains a profound part of His character. 2 Peter 3:9 reveals that God delays final judgment because of His longing for everyone to repent and be saved.

Romans 9 speaks to the patience God extends, holding off wrath to give time for repentance. His judgments are not hasty but measured and merciful in purpose.

Ezekiel 33:11 reminds us that God desires life for all and takes no pleasure in anyone's destruction.
