Introduction

Welcome to this 21-day journey through the Bible focusing on the story of Achan's sin and the Battle of Ai. This study seeks to unveil the profound spiritual truths behind hidden sin, its impact on our lives and community, and the miraculous power of confession and restoration. Often, sin that remains unconfessed can bring unseen consequences not only on us but also on those around us. The account of Achan in the book of Joshua provides a stark biblical example of this reality.

Who was Achan? Achan was an Israelite warrior who took forbidden spoil from the destroyed city of Jericho, directly disobeying God's command. His secret sin brought trouble, defeat at Ai, and ultimately God's judgment. However, through confession and removal of sin, God restored His people's favor and enabled them to overcome their enemy.

Throughout these 21 days, you'll engage deeply with God's Word, reflecting on how hidden sin affects our relationship with God and others. You'll also discover the beauty of God's justice balanced by divine mercy. By studying Achan's story alongside supporting scriptures, you'll learn why transparency and repentance are critical for spiritual health and victory.

Each day, you will encounter scripture, devotional insights, reflection questions, journaling prompts, and a prayer to help you apply these lessons practically. This study invites you to examine your own heart, find freedom in confession, and walk confidently in God's restoration and blessing. Enjoy the journey as God teaches you about His holiness, grace, and the power of restored fellowship! \bigwedge

Day 1: The Weight of Hidden Sin

Your Verse

Joshua 7:1 - "But the Israelites were unfaithful in regard to the devoted things; Achan... took some of them, and the Lord's anger burned against Israel."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 28:13 "Whoever conceals their sins does not prosper, but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy."
- Psalm 32:3-5 "When I kept silent, my bones wasted away... Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity."

Day 1: The Weight of Hidden Sin

Devotional: The Hidden Sin That Causes Defeat

Achan's sin was hidden, yet it brought defeat and God's anger upon all Israel.

This story reminds us that hidden sins—even those we think only affect us—can have devastating spiritual consequences. Israel's loss at Ai was not due to lack of strength or strategy but God's direct judgment because of disobedience.

How often do we think that what's hidden doesn't matter? The Bible teaches otherwise. Sin separates us from God and blocks His blessing. But the first step toward restoration is acknowledgment—refusing to hide or justify what is wrong.

Reflect on your life: Are there any areas where sin has been concealed? What might God want to reveal for healing and victory?

Day 1: 🔲 The Weight of Hidden Sin

Reflect and Apply

	What hidden sins have the potential to affect not only me but also those around me?
2.	How does concealing sin impact my relationship with God and others?
3.	What fears or excuses keep me from confessing and renouncing sin?

2.	List personal sins you struggle to confess and consider why they remain hidden.
3.	Reflect on God's mercy and what it would mean to receive it fully in your situation.

Day 1: The Weight of Hidden Sin

Lord, help me recognize the hidden sins in my heart. Give me courage to bring them into the light, that I may receive Your forgiveness and healing. Restore my relationship with You and with others. May Your mercy cover me as I confess with honesty. Amen. \bigwedge \bigcirc

Your Verse

Joshua 7:11 - "Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenant... I will not be with you anymore unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 59:2 "Your sins have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you."
- Hebrews 12:14 "Without holiness no one will see the Lord."

Devotional: Understanding God's Righteous Judgment

God's justice is perfect and His holiness demands purity among His people. Achan's sin was serious because it violated a sacred covenant. God's decision to remove His presence with Israel conveyed the seriousness of sin and its isolation effects.

God is loving but also just. Sin obstructs our fellowship with Him and can bring consequences on individuals and communities. The call to holiness is not about legalism but relationship—God seeks a people set apart and aligned with His ways.

Recognizing God's holiness leads us to value repentance and obedience as acts of worship. It also reminds us that sin should not be taken lightly, but met with reverence and urgency.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What aspects of God's holiness challenge my understanding of sin?
2.	How can I cultivate a life that honors His justice and righteousness?
3.	In what ways might sin be disrupting my fellowship with God or others?

Journaling Prompts

	Describe God's holiness in your own words and how it affects your view of sin.

- Numbers 32:23 "But if you fail to do this, you will be sinning against the Lord; and you may be sure that your sin will find you out."

Day 3: 🎇 The Battle Lost and the Cost of Sin

Devotional: When Sin Leads to Defeat

The defeat at Ai was a direct consequence of Achan's sin. The loss of 36 men was tragic and painful, yet God's Word shows us sin's domino effect—one person's hidden sin impacted an entire nation.

Sin is not isolated; it often brings collateral damage. The victory that Israel expected turned into a loss because of rebellion. This teaches us that sin's cost may sometimes be higher than we imagine.

Applying this today, consider how unrepented sin can disrupt our families, workplaces, and communities. We are called to accountability and confession for healing and restoration.

Day 3: Σ The Battle Lost and the Cost of Sin

Reflect and Apply

1.	Have you witnessed or experienced the ripple effects of hidden sin?

- 1 John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins."

Day 4: 🛱 Uncovering Sin Through Obedience

Devotional: The Power of Confession and Transparency

When confronted, Achan confessed his sin openly. This moment is pivotal—it highlights the power of speaking truth and taking responsibility. Joshua's leadership in seeking the truth was part of restoring God's favour.

Confession is not shame but freedom. By bringing sin out of hiding, we invite God's mercy and healing. It transforms defeat into restoration.

In your own walk, practicing transparency with God and trusted community can break the chains of hidden sin and open the door to God's grace.

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 John 2:16 "For everything in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—comes not from the Father but from the world."
- Ecclesiastes 5:10 "Whoever loves money never has enough; whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income."

Day 5: Q Lessons from Achan's Downfall

Devotional: Guarding Against Covetousness

Achan's sin began with coveting. His desire for material possessions blinded him to God's command and the wellbeing of the community. This reveals how lust can lead to far-reaching consequences.

Covetousness may seem personal, but it harms relationships and honor before God. We must be vigilant in guarding our hearts against greed, comparing ourselves, or longing for what is not ours.

Daily reflection on contentment and gratitude strengthens resistance to temptation and nurtures obedience.

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 7:1 "Let us purify ourselves from everything that contaminates body and spirit..."
- Psalm 51:7 "Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow."

Devotional: The Necessity of Removing Sin

Removing Achan and the stolen items was harsh but necessary. It symbolized Israel's purging from sin and renewed their covenant relationship with God. Sin left unchecked disrupts peace and fellowship.

God desires that we actively remove sin's influence, whether in our hearts, relationships, or environments. This cleansing opens doors for fresh blessings and spiritual breakthroughs.

This calls us to honestly evaluate what needs to be uprooted in our lives so we can walk forward unencumbered.

Reflect and Apply

	What specific sins or habits do I need to remove to experience restoration?
2.	How does purging sin enable spiritual growth and renewal?
3.	What fears or struggles do I face when seeking to let go of sin?

Day 7: 🛠 Restoration and God's Favor Return

Devotional: God's Grace After Repentance

After removing sin, God promised to be with Israel again. This promise encouraged their courage and re-ignited their mission to defeat Ai. God's favor and presence are restored through repentance and obedience.

Restoration is always possible. No matter the depth of failure, God's grace awaits our humble return. His presence strengthens and renews us for the battles ahead.

Trusting God's mercy frees us from shame and empowers us to fulfill His purposes confidently.
