These stories celebrate courage, kindness, wisdom, and faithfulness — qualities exemplified by women throughout Scripture that your grandkids can learn from and emulate.

Women in the Bible are remarkable examples of God's power working through ordinary people: from unlikely heroines like Ruth, who showed loyalty and love, to Deborah, a courageous leader and judge. Through these lessons, children can understand that God uses everyone to fulfill His purpose, regardless of age or background.

This engaging study includes memorable stories and interactive reflections designed just for grandkids. Each day's devotional invites them to discover God's love and see how His Word applies to their lives. You'll find simple, meaningful journaling prompts and thoughtful questions to spark lively conversations and encourage deeper thinking. Whether gathered around the table or cozy on the couch, these moments together will help your grandkids build a strong foundation of faith and learn that God's love is true and personal for each of them.

Let's embark on a joyful adventure through Scripture, celebrating the gift of women in the Bible and inspiring your grandkids to grow in God's amazing

For grandkids, this shows that God listens whenever we talk to Him. Like Hannah, you can pray about anything — your fears, your wishes, or thanks for something good. Prayer is a special way to connect with God every day.
