Introduction

Welcome to "Jesus Revealed", a transformative 30-day journey through the entire Bible. This study invites you to discover the profound truth that Jesus Christ is not only the focal point of the New Testament but is gloriously present—prophetically, symbolically, and directly—in every one of the 66 books of Scripture.

Throughout history, the Bible has been known as God's living Word, a story of redemption woven with divine purpose. At the heart of this divine narrative is Jesus, the promised Messiah, the Lamb of God, the living Word made flesh. From the first pages of Genesis, where He appears as the promised seed (Genesis 3:15), to Revelation's triumphant vision of His eternal kingdom (Revelation 21), Christ's presence is unmistakable.

Each book of the Bible, whether Law, History, Wisdom, Prophecy, Gospels, or Epistles, offers a unique perspective on who Jesus is and what He has accomplished. Some books reveal Him through direct prophecy, others through types and symbols—like the suffering servant in Isaiah or the perfect high priest in Hebrews. In the Gospels, we see Jesus' earthly ministry, death, and resurrection, while the Epistles explain the significance of His work for the believer's life.

As you embark on this study, expect to grow in your understanding and love for Jesus, seeing anew how deeply He permeates all Scripture. Let this revelation inspire your faith, deepen your worship, and strengthen your walk with Him. Each day, meditate on a passage that highlights Jesus' presence in that book, reflect on His character, and experience the joy of knowing Him better through His Word.

May this journey be a blessing and a source of spiritual insight, drawing you closer to the heart of God as revealed in His Son.

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Your Verse

Genesis 3:15 – “And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.”

Supporting Scriptures

- John 1:1 – “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.”
- Hebrews 11:4 – “By faith Abel brought God a better offering than Cain did.”

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Devotional: Jesus: The Seed Who Defeats Evil

Genesis begins the Bible with the creation of the world and the introduction of sin through Adam and Eve's disobedience. But even in this dark moment, God reveals hope. Genesis 3:15 is known as the protoevangelium, the first gospel promise, where God foretells the coming of a Savior who will defeat evil. This promise points directly to Jesus as the seed of the woman who will crush the serpent's head, symbolizing His ultimate victory over Satan and sin.

Jesus is the fulfillment of this ancient prophecy. His life, death, and resurrection accomplished what was first hinted at in Genesis: the restoration of the broken relationship between God and humanity. Even the earliest chapters of Scripture anticipate Christ's redeeming work.

Reflecting on this, we see that Jesus is not an afterthought or simply confined to the New Testament. From the beginning, God's plan centered on Christ—the one who would bring salvation to the fallen world.

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Reflect and Apply

1. How does seeing Jesus as the promised seed in Genesis affect your understanding of the Bible's story?

2. In what ways does the promise of Genesis 3:15 bring hope to your life today?

3. How does recognizing Jesus's victory over sin deepen your faith?

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about what the first promise of a Savior means to you personally.

2. Reflect on moments when you've sensed Jesus crushing the 'head of the serpent' in your own life.

3. List ways Jesus fulfills God's promises starting from the beginning of Scripture.

Day 1: ✨ Jesus in Genesis: The Seed of Promise

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, thank You for Your faithfulness in keeping Your promises from the very beginning. Help me to see Jesus clearly as the promised Savior, the seed who defeats evil and brings hope. Strengthen my faith to trust in His victory over sin and renew my understanding of Your redemptive plan. May Your Word illuminate my heart daily, drawing me closer to Christ. Amen. ✚

Day 2: 🔥 Jesus in Exodus: The Redeemer Who Liberates

Day 2: 🔥 Jesus in Exodus: The Redeemer Who Liberates

Your Verse

Exodus 12:13 – “The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are, and when I see the blood, I will pass over you.”

Supporting Scriptures

- John 1:29 – “Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!”
- 1 Corinthians 5:7 – “For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed.”

Day 2: 🔥 Jesus in Exodus: The Redeemer Who Liberates

Devotional: Jesus, Our Passover Lamb and Redeemer

Exodus tells the story of God delivering His people from slavery in Egypt, a powerful picture of salvation. The Passover lamb's blood on the doorposts signified protection from death, pointing forward to Jesus, the ultimate Lamb whose blood cleanses us from sin and saves us from eternal death.

When John the Baptist declares Jesus as the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29), he connects directly the Exodus imagery to Christ's sacrificial mission. The Exodus events were a shadow of the greater deliverance Jesus provides — freedom from sin and spiritual bondage.

Recognizing Jesus in Exodus helps us appreciate the depth of God's salvation plan. The story isn't just history — it's prophecy fulfilled in Christ's redeeming work on the cross.

Reflect and Apply

1. How does the Passover point to Jesus's ultimate sacrifice?

2. What does Jesus's role as the Lamb of God mean for your daily walk with Him?

3. In what ways are you still bound by 'Egypt' from which Jesus wants to deliver you?

Day 2: 🔥 Jesus in Exodus: The Redeemer Who Liberates

Journaling Prompts

1. Describe how Jesus has brought you freedom from bondage.

2. Reflect on the significance of the blood of the Lamb in your life.

3. Write a prayer of gratitude for Jesus's sacrifice and redemption.

Day 2: 🔥 Jesus in Exodus: The Redeemer Who Liberates

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, You are the Lamb who shed Your blood to redeem me from sin and death. Thank You for Your perfect sacrifice and the freedom You offer. Help me to trust You more deeply as my Redeemer and walk daily in the liberty You have gained. May Your Spirit guide me in living a life that honors Your sacrifice. Amen. 🕊️ ✝️ ❤️ 🔥

Day 3: 🕊️ Jesus in Leviticus: Our Holy High Priest

Your Verse

Leviticus 16:15 – “He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and bring its blood inside the curtain.”

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 4:14 – “We have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God.”
- Hebrews 9:12 – “He entered once for all into the holy places by his own blood, thus securing eternal redemption.”

Day 3: 🕊️ Jesus in Leviticus: Our Holy High Priest

Devotional: Jesus, Our Perfect High Priest

Leviticus reveals God's holiness and the requirements for atonement. The sacrificial system, especially the Day of Atonement rituals, pointed toward a perfect High Priest who could make a once-for-all sacrifice for sin. Jesus perfectly fulfills this role.

Unlike the Levitical priests who offered sacrifices repeatedly, Jesus entered the true Holy Place in heaven to offer Himself as the perfect sacrifice, securing eternal redemption for all who trust in Him (Hebrews 9:12).

This truth emphasizes both Jesus' holiness and His compassion. He understands our weaknesses and intercedes on our behalf. As our High Priest, He provides a way to be made right with God, not by our efforts, but through His grace.

Reflect and Apply

1. What does it mean to you that Jesus is your High Priest interceding for you?

2. How does Jesus' once-for-all sacrifice give you confidence before God?

3. In what ways can you approach God's holiness through Christ's mediation?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time you experienced God's grace through Jesus' priestly work.

2. Reflect on what it means that Jesus understands your weaknesses.

3. List ways you can draw near to God with confidence because of Christ.

Gracious High Priest, thank You for entering the heavenly sanctuary to intercede for me. Your perfect sacrifice makes me righteous before God. Help me to live confidently in Your grace and to rest in Your compassion. Teach me to draw near to God boldly, knowing You've made the way. Amen. 🙏🕯️✚️💖

Day 4: 📖 Jesus in Numbers: The Cloud and Fire Guide

Your Verse

Numbers 9:15 - "On the day the cloud lifted from above the tent, the Israelites set out; wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites camped."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 8:12 - "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness..."
- Hebrews 13:8 - "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

Devotional: Jesus: Our Faithful Light and Guide

The book of Numbers recounts the wilderness journey where God led His people by a pillar of cloud by day and fire by night. This visible guidance symbolized God's presence and faithfulness. In the New Testament, Jesus refers to Himself as the light of the world (John 8:12), leading us out of spiritual darkness and guiding every step.

Just as Israel depended on God's cloud and fire for direction, believers today rely fully on Jesus to lead and illuminate their path. His consistency and unchanging nature (Hebrews 13:8) assure us that He remains our faithful guide amidst life's uncertainties.

In following Jesus, we discover that God's presence is not only with us but actively leading us in love, purpose, and protection.

Reflect and Apply

- John 6:14 - "They said, 'Surely this is the Prophet who is to come into the world.'"

Day 5: 🧑🏿 Jesus in Deuteronomy: The Prophet Like Moses

Devotional: Jesus: The Prophet Like Moses

Moses, Israel's great leader, foretells God will raise up a prophet like him to guide the people. This prophecy finds its ultimate fulfillment in Jesus, who not only spoke God's truth with authority but brought salvation through His life, death, and resurrection.

In Acts 3:22, Peter identifies Jesus as this promised prophet, affirming that God's final revelation comes through Him. The people who witnessed Jesus' miracles and teaching recognized Him as the long-awaited Prophet.

Jesus perfectly mediates between God and humanity, just like Moses did for Israel, but surpassing him by providing eternal redemption. He invites us to listen to His words and follow His commands as the ultimate guide to life.

- Hebrews 13:8 - "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever."

Day 6:  Jesus in Joshua: The Commander of Our Battles

Devotional: Jesus, Our Victorious Commander

Joshua leads Israel into the promised land, symbolizing God's victory and faithfulness. His name, meaning 'The LORD is salvation,' is the Hebrew equivalent of Jesus. This connection reveals Jesus as the true Commander who fights our battles.

Joshua 1:9 encourages us to be strong and courageous because God's presence goes with us, a promise fulfilled in Jesus (Hebrews 13:8). In Revelation, Jesus returns as the triumphant King leading the ultimate battle for justice.

Day 7:  Jesus in Judges: Our Deliverer in Times of Need

Devotional: Jesus: The True Deliverer

The book of Judges shows a cycle of Israel's disobedience and God raising deliverers to save them. These judges prefigure Jesus, the ultimate Deliverer who rescues us from sin and bondage.

Psalm 18 describes God as our rock and fortress, metaphors fully realized in Jesus as the Savior who shields and strengthens us. Romans prophesies the coming of the Deliverer from Zion, fulfilled in Christ's incarnation and future return.

Devotional: Jesus, Our Loving Redeemer

The story of Ruth highlights a close relative who redeems a family in need, called the Kinsman Redeemer. Boaz's rescue of Ruth is a beautiful picture of Jesus, who redeems humanity from sin and restores us into God's family.

Isaiah prophesies the coming Redeemer who would save His people, fulfilled in Jesus Christ, as Paul explains in Galatians.
