Day 1: ( Leading with Integrity

Day 1: ① Leading with Integrity

Your Verse

Proverbs 11:3 - "The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 25:21 "May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope, Lord, is in you."
- 2 Corinthians 8:21 "For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of man."

Day 1: ① Leading with Integrity

Devotional: Building Trust Through Integrity

Integrity is the cornerstone of Kingdom leadership. In real estate, where deals and people's lives intertwine, your moral compass guides every decision. Proverbs 11:3 reminds us that integrity directs the upright, helping us avoid the destruction caused by duplicity. As leaders, our character forms the foundation of trust.

Ethics may sometimes challenge us to choose the harder right over the easier wrong. Yet, God calls us to be people of honesty and transparency, especially when no one is watching. Your clients and colleagues closely observe your actions and decisions, learning what it means to lead with conviction and faith.

Ask yourself: Are my business practices reflecting God's truth? When faced with pressure, do I choose integrity? By committing to uprightness, you honor God and create a reputation for reliability that attracts Kingdom opportunities.

Day 1: () Leading with Integrity

Reflect and Apply

In what ways does your current work reflect or challenge biblical integrity?

In Jesus' name, Amen. 🙏 🖨 😭

Your Verse

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 6:38 "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over..."
- Proverbs 3:9 "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the firstfruits of all your crops."

Devotional: Leading with a Generous Heart

Generosity marks the heart of Kingdom leadership. In a competitive industry like real estate, it's tempting to guard resources closely. Yet God calls us to lead with open hands and hearts that give freely.

2 Corinthians 9:7 reminds us to give cheerfully, not out of obligation. Your generosity can encourage clients, bless colleagues, and sow seeds that grow beyond business transactions. It's an embodiment of God's grace and abundance.

Consider how your leadership can overflow with generosity—not just financially, but with time, encouragement, and wisdom. This approach transforms relationships from mere transactions into meaningful connections aligned with Kingdom values.

When you lead with generosity, you embody Jesus' teaching in Luke 6:38, opening the way for blessings that ripple in every direction.

Reflect and Apply

	How does generosity currently influence your leadership and client relationships?
	In what practical ways can you extend generosity beyond your financial resources?
3.	What attitudes toward giving need to change to lead more like Christ?

Journaling Prompts

Supporting Scriptures

- Matthew 6:33 "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

Day 3: N Faith as Your Foundation

Devotional: Trusting God Amidst Uncertainty

Faith anchors Kingdom leadership through uncertainty and change. The real estate market can be unpredictable—deals fall through, clients change plans, and challenges arise unexpectedly. Hebrews 11:1 reminds us that faith gives us confidence in God's promises even when outcomes are unseen.

As leaders, cultivating faith means actively trusting God's plans over our own understanding. Psalm 37:5 encourages us to commit our ways to the Lord, trusting in His faithfulness.

When you prioritize God's Kingdom above financial gain (Matthew 6:33), you position yourself to lead with wisdom and humility. Faith nurtures patience and perseverance, qualities essential for sustainable leadership.

Let your faith guide your decisions and interactions, knowing that God works behind the scenes to open doors and orchestrate blessings beyond what you can see.

- John 13:14 "Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet."

Day 4: 🌣 Servant Leadership

Devotional: Leading by Serving Others

True leadership reflects Christ's example of service. In real estate, servant leadership means prioritizing the needs of clients, colleagues, and your community above personal gain.

Mark 10:45 reveals Jesus' heart as a leader who came to serve and give His life for others. This radical humility challenges us to lead with a servant's heart, seeking to uplift and empower those we serve.

Philippians 2:3 instructs us to value others with humility, urging leaders to avoid selfishness. Acts of kindness, active listening, and going the extra mile build relationships grounded in respect and love.

Practically, you can embody servant leadership by being available, transparent, and generous with your expertise. Leadership is not about status but about influencing lives positively for God's glory.

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 3:13 "Blessed are those who find wisdom, those who gain understanding."
- Ecclesiastes 7:12 "Wisdom preserves those who have it."

Devotional: Seeking Divine Wisdom Daily

Wisdom is essential for Kingdom-minded leadership. Navigating complex deals, client needs, and market shifts requires more than knowledge; it demands God-given insight.

James 1:5 encourages us to ask God for wisdom generously. This promise assures us that the Creator delights in equipping leaders with discernment.

Proverbs praises the blessings that come from gaining understanding. Wisdom guides your strategies and interactions, helping you avoid pitfalls and steward resources effectively.

Make it a daily habit to seek God's wisdom through prayer, Scripture, and counsel from godly mentors. As Ecclesiastes 7:12 reminds us, wisdom preserves and protects. It strengthens your leadership foundation to serve clients and grow your business in ways that honor God.

- Colossians 3:23 "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord."

Devotional: Shining Light Through Leadership

Kingdom leaders influence communities by shining God's light. Matthew 5:14 calls us to be visible examples of truth and love—an inspiring vision for your role in the real estate world.

Your leadership affects not only clients' lives but also the broader communities where you work. Jeremiah 29:7 urges us to seek the welfare of our cities, reflecting Kingdom priorities in urban development and relationships.

Colossians reminds us that our work is ultimately for the Lord. By aligning your vision with God's purposes, you impact industry standards and contribute to societal good.

Be intentional about the legacy your leadership leaves—a testimony of faith expressed through ethical practices and caring service.
