Your Verse

John 13:34 – "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

Supporting Scriptures

- Romans 12:10 "Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves."
- 1 John 4:7 "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God."

Devotional: Love as the Heartbeat of Jesus Culture

Jesus culture begins with love. When Jesus commands us to love one another as He has loved us, He sets the foundation for a life that glorifies God. Love is not just an emotion but an intentional, active choice to prioritize others' welfare above self. In embracing Jesus culture, our relationships become a living testimony of God's grace and mercy.

Paul reminds us in Romans to honor one another above ourselves, highlighting humility as a companion to love. Meanwhile, John reveals that love itself originates in God, making it central to reflecting His glory. Cultivating this love changes how we interact with others, creating community marked by kindness, patience, and forgiveness.

Today, reflect on how love shapes your actions and attitudes. Are there ways you can better express Christlike love to those around you? Living Jesus culture means allowing God's love to flow authentically through us each day.

Reflect and Apply

1.	In what ways have you experienced God's love personally?
	How can you show God's love more intentionally in your daily relationships?
	What barriers might be hindering your ability to love as Jesus commands?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when someone's love reflected Jesus to you.
2.	List practical ways you can demonstrate love to others this week.
3.	Reflect on what loving others means in challenging situations.

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, thank You for demonstrating perfect love that transforms lives. Help me embrace Your culture of love today, choosing others above myself. Teach me to be patient, kind, and humble in all my relationships. May my love reflect Your glory so others may see You through me. Strengthen my heart to love without hesitation or condition. In Your gracious name, Amen.

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 10:31 – "So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God."

Supporting Scriptures

- Colossians 3:17 "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."
- Matthew 5:16 "Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."

Devotional: Living Every Moment for God's Glory

Glorifying God is not reserved for special moments; it's a mindset for every moment. Paul's instruction to do all for God's glory challenges us to examine how our daily choices reflect God's character. When we eat, drink, work, and rest with the intention of honoring God, our whole life becomes an act of worship.

Jesus encouraged His followers to let their light shine so others could glorify God. This means our visible actions and attitudes testify to God's presence in us. In a Jesus culture, everything we do is purposeful, motivated by thankfulness and devotion to God's mission.

Ask yourself today: Are my daily activities offerings that bring glory to God? Living intentionally is a powerful way to embody Jesus culture, influencing others by the example we set in ordinary life.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How can you transform routine actions into acts of worship?
	What changes could you make to align everyday decisions with glorifying God?
3.	In what ways does your life currently reflect the light of Jesus to others?

Day 3: R Serving with Humility

Jesus' culture was a culture of service. Unlike the world's pursuit of status and honor, Jesus exemplified humility by serving others sacrificially. His ultimate act was giving His life for humanity's salvation, setting the greatest example of servant-hearted living.

Paul reminds us to consider others better than ourselves, calling us to humble service infused with love. Serving humbly reflects Jesus' heart and draws others toward God's kingdom. Importantly, service in Jesus culture is not done for self-glory but to uplift and bless.

Devotional: Allowing the Holy Spirit to Guide Us

The Jesus culture is empowered by the Holy Spirit. Being filled with the Spirit transforms the way we think, act, and relate to God and others. Instead of following worldly desires, we live by the Spirit's leading, producing fruit that reveals God's character in us.

Paul calls us not to indulge in things that harm but to be continually filled with the Spirit, which fuels our ability to glorify God. The fruit of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, and more—are markers of a life alive in Jesus culture.

Today, invite the Holy Spirit to fill your heart anew. Surrender to His guidance, allowing Him to shape your thoughts and actions. A Spirit-filled life is a powerful testimony to God's glory.
