Introduction

Welcome to this 7-day journey designed especially for teens who desire to live boldly in their faith! (?)

Adolescence is a remarkable season filled with growth, discovery, and challenges. As a teen, you face countless moments where your beliefs might be questioned or tested—by peers, culture, or even your own doubts. Yet, God calls you to a powerful life of boldness and courage, embracing who He created you to be without fear.

Being bold about your faith means standing firm even when it's hard, speaking up when it feels risky, and trusting God's plan more than the opinions of others. Jesus Himself set the ultimate example of fearless faith, and through His Spirit, you have the strength to do the same. During these seven days, you'll explore key Scriptures, inspirational devotionals, reflective questions, and prompts for journaling. Each element is crafted to help you gain confidence, deepen your relationship with God, and empower you to live your faith authentically in every part of your life.

Remember, boldness doesn't mean you won't face challenges or fears—it means you lean on God's power when those moments come. With God by your side, you are never alone and always capable of amazing things. Let's take this journey together, embracing the courage that God has placed inside you. Ready to get started? Let's dive in!
