Introduction

Welcome to a transformative journey exploring the promise of the New Heaven and New Earth! Our world is filled with brokenness, pain, and uncertainty, but the Bible offers a radiant hope that shines beyond the veil of our present struggles. Through this 21-day Bible study, you will dive deep into the Scriptures to uncover the glorious restoration God has planned for His creation—a renewed, perfect existence where God dwells intimately with His people forever.

The imagery of a New Heaven and New Earth invites us to imagine a future reality surpassing anything our minds can conceive. It is an eternal home where suffering, death, and sorrow are no more (Revelation 21:4). Scripture reveals that this promise is rooted in God's unchanging character—a God of love, justice, and perfect peace. By meditating on passages that describe this restoration, you will gain hope, encouragement, and clarity about your future with God.

Each day, we will engage with vital biblical passages that draw a vivid picture of what eternity looks like—streets of pure gold, the river of life, and the absence of night or tears. But these passages are not just beautiful words; they proclaim the fulfillment of God's redemptive plan through Jesus Christ, the Lamb who makes all things new. As you study, be open to how the promise of the New Heaven and New Earth can renew your faith, redirect your priorities, and inspire you to live with eternal perspective.

Let us embark on this adventure of hope together, discovering the breathtaking future God has prepared and what it means to live as citizens of that glorious new creation, even now. May this time fuel your soul with joy and ignite a deeper love for God who restores all things!

Your Verse

Revelation 21:1 NIV – "Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 65:17 NIV "See, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind."
- 2 Peter 3:13 NIV "But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells."

Devotional: God's Faithful Promise of Renewed Creation

God's promise of a new creation is the foundation of Christian hope. In Revelation 21:1 John witnesses a breathtaking vision where the old heaven and earth have passed away, making way for a completely renewed existence. This new reality is not just a renewal but an entirely fresh creation — a world free from the decay and brokenness that mark our current experience.

The absence of the sea is uniquely symbolic. In biblical times, the sea represented chaos, danger, and separation. Its removal in the new creation signals God's perfect order and peace fully established. Furthermore, Isaiah's prophecy confirms this promise centuries before John, affirming God's sovereign power to create something entirely new where former pain and failure are forgotten.

2 Peter reminds believers to live in anticipation of this future, where righteousness reigns supreme. This promise encourages us to fix our eyes on God's eternal plan rather than temporary trials. The new heaven and new earth reflect God's ultimate purpose: to dwell with humanity in perfect harmony, wiping away all sorrow and restoring what was lost.

As you begin this study, meditate on what it means to trust in a hope so sure it transforms your present life, enabling you to endure and live with joy even amid challenges.

Reflect and Apply

How does the idea of the 'first heaven and earth passing away' affect your view of your current struggles?
What might the removal of the sea symbolize in your own life or spiritual journey?
In what ways does the promise of righteousness dwelling in the new creation inspire you to live differently today?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about what you find most hopeful about the promise of a new heaven and new earth.
2.	Reflect on areas in your life where you need God's restoring power.
3.	Describe your feelings when you think about the old things passing away and a fresh start with God.

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for Your incredible promise of a new heaven and a new earth. Help me to hold fast to this hope, especially when I face difficulties or doubt. Teach me to live today with an eternal perspective, trusting that You are making all things new. May my heart find peace in Your sovereignty and love, and may I eagerly anticipate the day when I will dwell with You in perfect harmony forever. Renew my faith, renew my soul, and renew all that I am. Amen. \bigwedge

Your Verse

Revelation 21:3 NIV - "And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God."

Supporting Scriptures

- Exodus 25:8 NIV "Then have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them."
- John 1:14 NIV "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory..."

Devotional: God's Eternal Presence with His People

The central joy of the new heaven and new earth is God's intimate presence with His people. From the very beginning, God's desire has been to dwell among humanity (Exodus 25:8). In Revelation 21:3, this longing is realized fully and perfectly, with no barriers or separation.

God dwelling 'with them' speaks of eternal fellowship and communion. Unlike temporary or imperfect encounters in the past, this is a permanent home where God's presence saturates everything. John 1:14 reminds us that God took on flesh and lived among us in Jesus, and now in the new creation, that nearness is restored forever.

This promise is profoundly comforting. It means loneliness, alienation, and spiritual distance are ultimately overcome. God's people will enjoy unbroken relationship and peace with Him. The new heaven and new earth are not just a place but a relationship—a glorious fullness of life with the Creator.

Consider how this vision can transform your understanding of worship, relationship, and hope for the future.

Reflect and Apply

What does it mean to you personally that God will dwell with His people forever?
How does God's past presence with humanity shape your view of His future promises?
In what ways can you experience glimpses of this eternal fellowship now?

Journaling Prompts

	Write about a time you felt especially close to God and what you learned from that experience.
2.	Describe what it might be like to live in God's presence without interruption.
3.	Reflect on how knowing God desires to be with you changes your daily life.

Prayer for Today

Dear God, thank You that You are a God who desires relationship with us.

Help me to live in awareness of Your presence daily and to find joy in the truth that one day I will dwell with You forever. Thank You for drawing near to me through Jesus and for the hope of perfect fellowship in the new creation. May this hope fill my heart and guide my life. Amen. (?) **

Day 3: XX No More Death or Sorrow

Day 3: X No More Death or Sorrow

Your Verse

Revelation 21:4 NIV – "'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 25:8 NIV "He will swallow up death forever. The Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces..."
- Romans 8:18 NIV "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us."

Day 3: 🎇 No More Death or Sorrow

Devotional: The End of Pain and Death

One of the most comforting promises about the new heaven and new earth is the end of pain, sorrow, and death. Revelation 21:4 reveals that God will wipe away every tear and that death—our greatest enemy—will be no more. This is the ultimate healing for broken hearts and weary souls.

Isaiah's prophecy affirms that God's victory over death is eternal. The image of God wiping away tears shows the tender care He has for each of us personally. It is a promise that every hurt and loss will be replaced with joy and restoration.

Paul's words in Romans remind us that though we suffer now, our present difficulties are temporary and fading in comparison to the eternal glory awaiting believers. The new creation is a place where pain has no foothold and where hope triumphs completely over despair.

Let this truth encourage you today to surrender grief, anxiety, and fear, placing your trust in God's future restoration.

Day 3: 💥 No More Death or Sorrow

Reflect and Apply

	. How does the promise of no more death or tears affect your fear of loss or suffering?
	What sorrow or pain do you need to entrust to God's healing power today?
3.	In what ways can you live in hope despite current hardships?

Day 3: 💥 No More Death or Sorrow

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a painful experience and how you hope God will restore it someday.
2.	Reflect on what it means to you that God will personally wipe away every tear.
3.	Describe how you can encourage others with this promise of hope.

Day 3: X No More Death or Sorrow

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for promising a future without death, sorrow, or pain. Please comfort my heart and strengthen my faith when I face difficulties. Help me to remember that You are near, caring deeply for every hurt. I look forward to the day when You will make all things new, and I will dwell with You in joy forever. Grant me peace today as I hope in Your eternal promises. Amen.

Day 4: W The River of Life

Your Verse

Revelation 22:1 NIV - "Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb."

Supporting Scriptures

- Ezekiel 47:9 NIV "Wherever the river goes...everything will live. And there will be very many fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh."
- John 7:38 NIV "Whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them."

Devotional: The Eternal River from God's Throne

The river of life is a striking symbol of God's eternal provision and restoration. Flowing from the throne of God and the Lamb, this crystal-clear river represents the life-giving presence of God sustaining everything in the new creation.

Ezekiel's vision about water bringing life to barren places echoes here. The river transforms and renews, illustrating that God's presence brings flourishing wherever it reaches. John's Gospel connects this river to the living water Jesus offers—eternal life flowing from Him into believers.

This imagery encourages believers that God's provision is abundant, pure, and continuous. In the new heaven and new earth, life flows unceasingly from God, filling everything with vitality and peace.

Reflect today on your need for spiritual refreshment and the sustaining power only God can provide.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does the river of life symbolize for your spiritual walk today?
2.	How has God refreshed or sustained you in difficult seasons?
3.	In what ways can you seek more of God's living water daily?

Journaling Prompts

	Describe what it means for you to have a river of living water flowing from within.
2.	Reflect on moments when you felt spiritually refreshed by God.
	Write a prayer asking God to increase His life-giving presence in your heart.

Prayer for Today

Gracious God, thank You for the river of life flowing from Your throne. Draw me closer to You and refresh my soul with Your living water. Help me to drink deeply from Your provision and to be nourished by Your Spirit every day. May Your life-giving presence flow through me to bless others and bring renewal. Amen. \lozenge $\not \bowtie$ $\not \bowtie$ $\not \bowtie$

Your Verse

Revelation 21:23 NIV - "The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp."

Supporting Scriptures

- Exodus 40:34–35 NIV "The cloud covered the tent of meeting...the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle."
- John 8:12 NIV "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

Devotional: God's Glory: The Eternal Light

In the new heaven and new earth, the glory of God replaces all natural sources of light. Revelation 21:23 reveals that the city of God shines not by sun or moon, but by the radiant presence of God Himself and the Lamb. This is the fulfillment of God's desire to dwell fully among His people in unspeakable splendor.

Reflect on the Old Testament tabernacle, where God's glory would fill the sacred space in a visible cloud. Now, in the new creation, God's glory not only fills but illuminates perfectly and eternally. Jesus' declaration in John 8:12 reminds us that following Him leads us out of spiritual darkness into the light of life.

This image reflects the perfect purity, holiness, and beauty of God's kingdom—no shadows, no darkness, only light. It signifies safety, warmth, and the presence of God sustaining His people.

Today, consider how you can live as a reflection of this divine light and glory.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does picturing God as the eternal light change your view of heaven?
2.	Where do you need God's light to shine in your life currently?
3.	In what ways can you be a bearer of God's light to others?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about the impact of God's glory illuminating your path in life.
2.	Reflect on areas where darkness or confusion need God's light.
3.	Describe how you might shine God's light in your family, work, or community.

Prayer for Today

Lord, You are the everlasting light that dispels all darkness. Shine brightly in my heart and life today. Let Your glory guide my steps and give me courage to walk in Your truth. Help me to reflect Your light to those around me and to live as a witness of Your grace. Amen. * 🙏 🐧 🌈

Day 6: The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Day 6: The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Your Verse

Revelation 21:2 NIV – "I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 62:5 NIV "As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, so will your God rejoice over you."
- Ephesians 5:25–27 NIV "Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her...to present her to himself as a radiant church."

Day 6: The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Devotional: New Jerusalem: God's Holy Bride

The new Jerusalem is the radiant city that represents God's redeemed people and His eternal kingdom. Revelation 21:2 uses the beautiful metaphor of a bride prepared for her husband, emphasizing purity, beauty, and joyful union. This city is more than structures; it reflects God's people perfectly restored and glorified.

Isaiah's imagery reminds us of God's delight in His people, which Ephesians applies to Christ's love for the church. The new Jerusalem symbolizes the completion of God's redemptive plan—a holy community made perfect and ready for eternal union with God.

Contemplating this city inspires awe and hope. It reveals how our relationship with God is central to eternity and assures us that we are cherished beyond measure.

Take time today to reflect on your identity in God's eternal bride and the hope of being part of His holy city forever.

Day 6: M The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Reflect and Apply

What does the image of the church as a bride tell you about God's love for you?
How does seeing yourself as part of the new Jerusalem shape your faith?
In what ways can you prepare your heart as a bride is prepared for her husband?

Day 6: The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Journaling Prompts

	Write about your relationship with God using the bride and bridegroom metaphor.
2.	Reflect on what holiness and purity mean in your life today.
3.	Describe what it would mean for you to live as part of God's holy city.

Day 6: The Holy City, New Jerusalem

Prayer for Today

the world. Amen. \delta 📶 💙 🙏

Father, thank You for making me part of Your holy city, Your beloved bride. Help me to live in purity and joy as I anticipate the day when I will dwell with You forever. Fill me with Your love and grace that I may reflect Your beauty to

Day 7:
No More Curse

Day 7: 🖲 No More Curse

Your Verse

Revelation 22:3 NIV - "No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him."

Supporting Scriptures

- Galatians 3:13 NIV "Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us."
- Deuteronomy 28:15 NIV "If you do not obey the Lord your God...all these curses will come on you and overtake you."

Day 7: A No More Curse

Devotional: Freedom Through Christ from All Curses

The curse that once marked humanity's fall is completely removed in the new creation. Revelation 22:3 assures us that no curse remains, and God's throne is central, emphasizing victory and restoration.

Galatians explains how Christ broke the curse by taking it upon Himself on the cross. This victory frees believers from the bondage of sin and condemnation. Deuteronomy outlines the curse resulting from disobedience but points to God's justice and mercy.

The removal of the curse signifies not only freedom from sin but all consequences—pain, disease, death, and separation. Serving God in the new earth is one of joyful freedom, not burden.

Today, embrace the freedom and hope found in Christ's redeeming work.

Day 7: 🖲 No More Curse

Reflect and Apply

1.	What burdens or curses do you need to release to Christ today?
2.	How does knowing the curse is removed affect your view of your future?
3.	What does it mean to serve God in freedom rather than obligation?

Day 7: 🖲 No More Curse

Journaling Prompts

	Write about something you feel trapped by and want God to free you from.
2.	Reflect on Christ's work to redeem you from the curse of sin.
3.	Describe how you can serve God joyfully and freely each day.

Day 7: • No More Curse

Prayer for Today

Jesus, thank You for redeeeming me and breaking every curse. Help me to walk in the freedom You purchased and serve You with a joyful heart. Strengthen me to resist the enemy's lies and live as a child of God, free and secure. I praise You for this eternal hope. Amen.

Day 8: 🛍 Our Eternal Home

Day 8: n Our Eternal Home

Your Verse

Philippians 3:20 NIV – "But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 14:2–3 NIV "My Father's house has many rooms...I am going there to prepare a place for you."
- Hebrews 13:14 NIV "Here we do not have an enduring city, but we are looking for the city that is to come."

Day 8: n Our Eternal Home

Devotional: Heavenly Citizenship and True Home

Our true home is not of this world but is a heavenly citizenship. Philippians 3:20 reminds us that believers belong to a different kingdom, a permanent place prepared by Jesus Himself.

Jesus' words in John offer comforting reassurance of the Father's house, a space specially made to welcome us. Hebrews contrasts the temporary nature of earthly places with the eternal city we await, grounding our hope firmly in what is to come.

Knowing we have an eternal home changes how we view our present lives, inviting us to live each day as pilgrims and ambassadors of heaven.

Reflect on how the hope of your eternal home shifts your perspective and priorities.

Day 8: 🟠 Our Eternal Home

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does thinking of yourself as a citizen of heaven affect your daily life?
2.	What does Jesus preparing a place for you mean personally?
	How can you live with an eternal perspective in your current circumstances?

Day 8: 🟠 Our Eternal Home

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about what your eternal home means to you.
2.	Reflect on ways you can live more like a citizen of heaven today.
3.	Describe how to handle earthly challenges knowing a better city awaits.

Day 8: n Our Eternal Home

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, thank You for preparing a place for me in Your Father's house. Help me to live as a citizen of heaven, eager for the day I will see You face to face. Give me strength and joy as I journey through this temporary world, keeping my eyes fixed on the eternal home You've promised. Amen. 🛕 🗀 🏠

Your Verse

Revelation 22:2 NIV - "On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations."

Supporting Scriptures

- Genesis 2:9 NIV "The tree of life was also in the middle of the garden..."
- Proverbs 3:18 NIV "She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her; those who hold her fast will be blessed."

Devotional: The Restored Tree of Life and Healing

The tree of life, lost in Eden due to sin, is gloriously restored in eternity. Revelation describes it bearing fruit abundantly and leaves that bring healing to all nations. This symbolizes God's provision for eternal life and restoration.

The tree's presence in Eden reminds us of its original purpose—to sustain life and fellowship with God. Proverbs teaches that wisdom is a tree of life, linking divine truth and eternal flourishing.

In the new creation, the tree represents God's complete restoration of life and health. It signals a future where all nations are healed and united in peace.

Reflect on how you can seek God's life and healing even now to prepare for this eternal restoration.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does the tree of life symbolize in your personal faith journey?
2.	In what areas of your life do you need healing from God?
3.	How can wisdom and truth be sources of life for you today?

Journaling Prompts

Day 10: Worship Forever Before the Throne

Day 10: The Worship Forever Before the Throne

Your Verse

Revelation 7:9-10 NIV – "A great multitude...standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They cry out in a loud voice: 'Salvation belongs to our God...'"

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 95:6 NIV "Come, let us bow down in worship..."
- Hebrews 12:28 NIV "Therefore, let us be grateful and worship God acceptably with reverence and awe."

Day 10: Throne Worship Forever Before the Throne

Devotional: The Joy of Eternal Worship

Worship is the eternal response to God's glory in the new creation. Revelation reveals a multitude united in worship, praising God's salvation endlessly. This scene models for us the privilege of standing in God's presence with awe and thanksgiving.

From Psalm 95's call to bow down to the reverence emphasized in Hebrews 12, Scripture teaches that worship is both joyful and holy. It is our highest calling and greatest joy.

In eternity, worship will be uninterrupted and all-encompassing, a perfect reflection of God's majesty realized fully.

Consider how worship shapes your life now and how you can prepare your heart for eternal praise.

Day 10: Day 10: Throne

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does the vision of eternal worship inspire your own worship practices?
2.	In what ways can you cultivate a heart of reverence and gratitude daily?
3.	What challenges do you face in worship, and how might eternal worship address them?

Day 10: Day 10: Throne

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about your favorite ways to worship God now.
2.	Reflect on how worship helps you connect with God deeply.
3.	Describe your hopes for worship in heaven.

Day 10: Day Worship Forever Before the Throne

Prayer for Today

God, I worship You with all my heart now and forevermore. Teach me to approach You with reverence and joy. May my life be a continual song of praise that honors Your name. Prepare me to stand before Your throne with all Your people, united in adoration. Amen. 7 🙏 🎤 🐒

Your Verse

1 John 4:16 NIV - "God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in them."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 13:34 NIV "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you..."
- Colossians 3:14 NIV "And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity."

Devotional: Living in God's Perfect Love Always

The new heaven and new earth will be characterized by perfect love and unbroken fellowship. 1 John reminds us that God is love, and living in Him means living in love. This divine love is the foundation of all relationships in eternity.

Jesus' command to love one another as He loved us calls believers to embody that love now, practicing unity and forgiveness. Colossians highlights love as the virtue that binds everything together perfectly.

In the new creation, love will have no barriers, no misunderstandings, only fullness of connection with God and each other.

Reflect on how love can deepen your relationship with God and others today.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do you experience God's love most deeply in your life?
2.	What challenges do you face in loving others as Christ loves you?
3.	In what ways can you grow in love to prepare for eternal fellowship?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time you felt God's love powerfully.
2.	Reflect on how you can better love others around you today.
3.	Describe what perfect love might look like in heaven.

Prayer for Today

Father, thank You for loving me perfectly and calling me to love others. Help me to live out Your love every day, reflecting Your heart to those around me. Teach me patience, kindness, and unity so I may experience the joy of eternal fellowship. Amen. 💙 🙏 🥬

Day 12: Peace That Lasts Forever

Day 12: Peace That Lasts Forever

Your Verse

Isaiah 54:10 NIV - "Though the mountains be shaken...my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the Lord.

Supporting Scriptures

- John 14:27 NIV "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you...Do not let your hearts be troubled."
- Philippians 4:7 NIV "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Day 12: Peace That Lasts Forever

Devotional: God's Unshakable Eternal Peace

The new heaven and new earth will be filled with God's unshakable peace. Isaiah promises a peace anchored in God's love and covenant, unmovable even by natural upheaval.

Jesus himself gave His followers peace that transcends fear and anxiety, a peace possible only through relationship with Him. Paul describes this peace as guarding hearts and minds—a divine security.

In eternity, this peace will be fully realized, removing every conflict, worry, or tension.

Consider the peace God offers now and how you can embrace it amid life's storms.

Day 12: () Peace That Lasts Forever

Reflect and Apply

1.	What areas of your life need God's peace most urgently?
2.	How can you accept Jesus' peace daily instead of anxiety?
3.	In what ways does God's covenant assure you of lasting peace?

Day 12: () Peace That Lasts Forever

Journaling Prompts

Write about a time you experienced God's peace in a difficult moment.
Reflect on how to cultivate peace in your heart this week.
Describe what eternal peace means to you personally.

Day 12: Peace That Lasts Forever

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for Your perfect peace that calms my fears. Help me to rest in Your promises today, trusting in Your covenant of love and peace. Guard my heart and mind through Christ and teach me to walk in Your peace every day. Amen. (A) (Y) (A) (V)

Your Verse

Revelation 21:26 NIV – "Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 119:105 NIV "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."
- 2 Corinthians 3:18 NIV "And we all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image."

Devotional: Living Pure in God's Radiant Glory

God's glory in the new heavenly city is pure and radiant, accessible only to the redeemed. Revelation 21:26 states that nothing impure or deceitful will enter, ensuring the holiness of the eternal community.

Psalm 119 celebrates God's word as guiding light, and 2 Corinthians reveals our transformative journey into God's image when we behold His glory. This eternal purity begs us to examine our lives, inviting us to pursue holiness now.

Embrace the calling to live pure and reflect God's glory in anticipation of your place in His kingdom.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What areas of impurity do you need to surrender to God?
2.	How does the promise of purity in heaven motivate your choices today?
3.	What practices help you grow in reflecting God's glory?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about challenges and victories in your pursuit of holiness.
2.	Reflect on how God's word guides you through temptation.
3.	Describe how you want to be transformed into God's image.

Prayer for Today

Holy God, cleanse my heart and make me pure as You are pure. Help me turn away from deceit and sin to reflect Your radiant glory. Guide me by Your word and transform me daily into Your likeness. Prepare me for the day I will dwell with You in holiness forever. Amen. 🛠 😭 💽 🙏

Your Verse

Revelation 21:22–23 NIV – "I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it...because the glory of God gives it light..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 2:6 NIV "I have installed my king on Zion, my holy mountain."
- John 1:29 NIV "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!"

Devotional: Jesus the Lamb Reigns as King

The Lamb is central to the new creation's reality as King and Temple.

Revelation tells us that no physical temple is needed because God and the Lamb dwell with His people. This identifies Jesus as the ultimate mediator and King.

The Psalms echo this kingship, and John introduces Jesus as the Lamb who redeems humanity. This profound truth means our hope rests not in buildings, but in a living, reigning Savior.

Reflecting on the Lamb's kingship invites trust, worship, and submission to His authority.

Rejoice in Jesus' reign and His role as the perfect bridge between God and humanity.

Reflect and Apply

	How does seeing Jesus as both Lamb and King affect your worship and trust?
2.	What does it mean that no temple is needed because God dwells with us?
3.	How can you submit more fully to Jesus' reign in your life?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about what Jesus' kingship means to your daily life.
2.	Reflect on the sacrifice of Jesus as the Lamb of God.
3.	Describe ways you can live under Jesus' rule in practical ways.

Prayer for Today

Jesus, my Lamb and King, I worship You and submit to Your reign. Thank You for dwelling with me and guiding me. Help me to live under Your authority and reflect Your light in all I do. Reign in my heart forever. Amen.

Your Verse

Romans 8:21 NIV - "The creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 11:6–9 NIV "The wolf will live with the lamb...they will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain."
- Colossians 1:20 NIV "Through him to reconcile to himself all things...making peace through his blood, shed on the cross."

Devotional: God's Cosmic Restoration and Renewal

The new heaven and new earth represent the full restoration of all creation. Paul describes creation's liberation from decay and bondage to freedom, reflecting God's holistic redemption plan.

Isaiah's vision of peace among animals symbolizes the end of violence and discord throughout the natural world. Colossians explains that through Christ's sacrifice, reconciliation extends to all things—spiritual, human, and physical.

This restoration is not only about individual salvation but cosmic renewal.

Reflect today on God's desire to restore you and the whole world into His peace and goodness.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does creation's restoration encourage your faith in God's power?
2.	In what ways do you see God's work of reconciliation in your life?
3.	What role might you have in stewarding God's renewed creation?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about your hopes for creation's renewal.
2.	Reflect on how you can participate in God's reconciling work now.
3.	Describe what 'freedom from decay' means personally and globally.

Prayer for Today

Creator God, thank You for restoring all things through Jesus. Help me to live faithfully as a steward of Your renewed creation. Fill me with hope and purpose as I anticipate the freedom and glory You have promised. Amen. 🥬

Your Verse

Revelation 21:27 NIV – "Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful...but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 89:14 NIV "Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne."
- Isaiah 61:8 NIV "For I, the Lord, love justice."

Devotional: God's Perfect Justice and Holiness

The new heaven and new earth will be a realm where justice and righteousness prevail fully. The exclusion of impurity and deceit signifies God's perfect standard of holiness and fairness.

Psalm declares that justice is the foundation of God's throne, while Isaiah emphasizes God's love for justice. This means eternal justice is rooted in God's character—loving, wise, and compassionate.

For believers, this assures that true justice, often delayed or denied here, will be perfectly enacted.

Consider how God's justice motivates you to live righteously and pursue justice today.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do you understand God's justice in light of your experiences?
2.	What does it mean that righteousness is the foundation of God's throne?
3.	How can you reflect God's justice and righteousness in daily life?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time you witnessed God's justice or mercy.
2.	Reflect on challenges in your life that require trust in God's justice.
3.	Describe ways to promote justice and righteousness in your community.

Prayer for Today

Righteous God, thank You for being just and loving. Help me to trust in Your perfect judgment and live, guided by Your righteousness. Teach me to pursue justice with humility and compassion. May Your kingdom come on earth as in heaven. Amen.

Day 17: TGifts of Eternal Life

Day 17: TGifts of Eternal Life

Your Verse

John 3:16 NIV - "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life."

Supporting Scriptures

- Romans 6:23 NIV "The gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."
- Ephesians 2:8 NIV "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith —and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God."

Day 17: TGifts of Eternal Life

Devotional: Grace and the Gift of Eternal Life

Eternal life is the greatest gift God gives through His Son. John 3:16 is perhaps the most beloved verse highlighting this generous offer born from God's immense love.

Romans and Ephesians remind us that salvation and eternal life are gifts, not earned by works but given by grace through faith. This underscores God's merciful character and the free access we have to the new creation.

Reflect today on receiving and sharing this precious gift with gratitude and joy.

Day 17: 🎁 Gifts of Eternal Life

Reflect and Apply

	How does recognizing eternal life as a gift impact your relationship with God?
2.	In what ways can you express gratitude for God's gift to others?
3.	How does grace shape your daily faith journey?

Day 17: 🎁 Gifts of Eternal Life

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about your experience of receiving God's gift of eternal life.
2.	Reflect on how you can share this gift with those around you.
3.	Describe what it means to live by grace each day.

Day 17: TGifts of Eternal Life

Prayer for Today

Day 18: O United Nations in God's Kingdom

Your Verse

Revelation 7:9 NIV - "A great multitude from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb."

Supporting Scriptures

- Galatians 3:28 NIV "There is neither Jew nor Gentile...for you are all one in Christ Jesus."
- Ephesians 2:14 NIV "He himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier..."

Devotional: God's Kingdom Unites All Believers

The new heaven and new earth will be a place of perfect unity among diverse peoples. John's vision in Revelation shows a multitude from every nation worshiping together, symbolizing God's inclusive kingdom.

Paul's letters emphasize unity in Christ that breaks down ethnic and cultural barriers. This unity is not forced but born from God's reconciling love through the cross.

This vision invites believers today to pursue reconciliation, celebrate diversity, and embody the unity of God's kingdom.

Reflect on your role in fostering unity and peace among God's people now.

Reflect and Apply

What barriers to unity do you see in your community or church?
How can you promote reconciliation and love across differences?
In what ways does this vision of unity inspire your faith?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a relationship where unity was or needs to be restored.
2.	Reflect on how your faith helps you embrace diversity.
3.	Describe practical steps you can take to encourage peace and unity.

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for creating a united family in Your kingdom. Help me to love others beyond differences and be an instrument of Your peace. Teach me humility and grace to promote unity in my sphere of influence. Amen. 🔵 🤝

Your Verse

Malachi 3:3 NIV - "He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver...and he will purify the Levites and refine them like gold and silver."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Peter 1:6-7 NIV "These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold...may result in praise..."
- James 1:2-4 NIV "Consider it pure joy...whenever you face trials, because the testing of your faith produces perseverance."

Devotional: Faith Refined for Eternal Glory

God refines His people through trials to make us radiant and pure for eternity. Malachi describes God as a refiner, removing impurities to prepare us for His glory.

Peter and James encourage believers to see struggles as refining processes that prove and strengthen faith. This refining produces endurance and spiritual maturity.

In the new creation, we will be presented without blemish, a testimony to God's transforming work.

Consider today how your life's challenges are shaping you into the image God desires.

Reflect and Apply

How have past challenges refined your faith and character?
What impurities do you sense God is working to remove?
How can you embrace trials as part of God's refining process?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a trial that deepened your trust in God.
2.	Reflect on areas you desire God to purify in your heart.
3.	Describe ways to find joy and hope amid difficulties.

Prayer for Today

Refining God, thank You for shaping me into Your image. Give me patience and faith to endure trials, trusting Your perfect purpose. Purify my heart so I may reflect Your glory fully in eternity. Amen. \lozenge \diamondsuit \diamondsuit

Your Verse

Psalm 16:11 NIV – "You make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence."

Supporting Scriptures

- Nehemiah 8:10 NIV "The joy of the Lord is your strength."
- Revelation 19:7 NIV "Let us rejoice and be glad and give him glory! For the wedding of the Lamb has come..."

Devotional: Joy Everlasting in God's Presence

The new heaven and new earth will be a scene of unending joy and celebration. Psalm 16 speaks of joy found fully in God's presence, a joy that is complete and life-giving.

Nehemiah reminds us that this joy is a source of strength through life's journey. Revelation's depiction of the Lamb's wedding celebration reflects the deep delight and union between Christ and His people.

This eternal joy invites us to glimpse heaven's festivity amid our daily worship and faithful living.

Embrace joy as a divine gift that strengthens and sustains you.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Where do you find joy amid difficult circumstances?
2.	How can celebrating God's presence deepen your daily joy?
3.	What does the 'wedding of the Lamb' reveal about eternal happiness?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about moments when joy in God sustained you.
2.	Reflect on ways to cultivate more joy in your life today.
3.	Describe how you envision joy in eternity.

Prayer for Today

Joyful God, fill me with Your presence and eternal joy. Help me to rejoice in You always and find strength in Your love. Prepare my heart to celebrate forever in Your kingdom. Amen. ▶ ♥ △ ♦

Your Verse

Matthew 6:10 NIV - "Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 5:1 NIV "We know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, an eternal house in heaven."
- Revelation 22:20 NIV "Amen. Come, Lord Jesus."

Devotional: Living Expectantly for God's Kingdom

The culmination of our hope is the full coming of God's kingdom on earth as in heaven. Jesus' prayer in Matthew invites us to long and participate in this divine reality here and now.

Paul reminds us of the eternal home awaiting believers, assuring us that our present sufferings are temporary tents compared to our eternal dwelling. Revelation's closing invitation to Jesus to come expresses the longing of God's people for the fulfillment of all promises.

As this study concludes, prepare your heart to live expectantly and faithfully, ready for the day when God's kingdom is fully realized.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How can you align your daily life with God's will and kingdom purposes?
2.	What comforts and challenges do you feel in waiting for God's kingdom?
3.	What does the prayer 'Come, Lord Jesus' mean for your faith today?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write your personal prayer inviting Jesus to come soon.
2.	Reflect on how waiting for God's kingdom shapes your attitudes.
3.	Describe ways to live faithfully in anticipation of eternity.

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, I eagerly await Your return and the full realization of Your kingdom. Help me to live faithfully and with hope every day, aligning my will with Yours. Come quickly, Lord, and make all things new. Amen. 💸 🙏 🗀 🖴
