Introduction

Mentoring is a sacred calling: a beautiful invitation to share life's lessons and God's eternal truths with younger women. In a world craving authentic connection and godly guidance, your story and wisdom can serve as a powerful beacon. This 7-day study invites you to embrace that role—learning how to lovingly guide others, rooted not merely in experience, but in God's Word.

Throughout the Bible, older women are entrusted with nurturing younger ones. Titus 2:3–5 reminds us that mature women are called to teach what is good, to encourage love, self-control, and sound faith. Your journey, including victories and struggles, becomes a vessel for imparting hope and truth.

Every day, we will explore key Scriptures and insights, encouraging you to reflect critically and pray fervently. This study is practical and personal—showing how to mentor with humility, grace, and wisdom. As you engage, expect transformation both for the mentee and yourself, as God molds your heart to align with His divine purpose.

Let your story, woven with God's Word, guide others in faith, showing them the beauty of walking with Christ. Embrace this journey of mentoring younger women, knowing that your influence plants seeds of faith that can blossom for generations.  $\triangle$

Day 1: B The Call to Mentor

Day 1: / The Call to Mentor

Your Verse

Titus 2:3-5 - "Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live... to train the younger women to love their husbands and children."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 27:17 "As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another."
- 2 Timothy 1:5 "I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice..."

Day 1: B The Call to Mentor

Devotional: Answering God's Call to Mentor Younger Women

Mentoring is a divine responsibility and privilege. In Titus 2, Paul instructs older women to impart wisdom to younger women. This isn't merely about advice; it's about teaching Godly living that reflects reverence, love, selfcontrol, and faith. As mentors, we have the chance to shape disciples and help them avoid pitfalls through the guidance our stories and Scripture offer.

Consider how your life experiences—both joys and challenges—can become teaching moments. Remember, your authenticity combined with God's truth creates a powerful influence. The relationship you build is a living testimony to God's grace and faithfulness.

Today, embrace the call to mentor intentionally, recognizing that your faith journey has been preparing you to guide others lovingly and wisely. Like iron sharpening iron, your interactions can refine and strengthen the faith of a younger woman.

Day 1: 🥦 The Call to Mentor

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does Titus 2:3-5 challenge your current view of mentoring?
2.	In what ways can sharing your personal story impact younger women?
	What fears or hesitations do you have about mentoring, and how can God's Word address them?

Day 1: 🥦 The Call to Mentor

Journaling Prompts

	Write about a woman who mentored you and the impact she had on your life.
2.	List qualities you believe are essential in a mentor based on Titus 2.
	Reflect on your life story—what parts could encourage and instruct younger women?

Day 1: B The Call to Mentor

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, thank You for calling me to mentor younger women with Your wisdom and love. Help me to be patient, genuine, and full of grace as I share my life and Your truth. Give me boldness to speak courageously and humility to listen deeply. May my guidance reflect Your heart and draw others closer to You. Use my story for Your glory and the growth of Your kingdom. Amen. 🙏 🞾 🗀

Your Verse

Psalm 71:18 – "Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my God, till I declare your power to the next generation."

Supporting Scriptures

- Deuteronomy 6:6-7 "Impress them on your children... talk about them when you sit at home..."
- Job 12:12 "Wisdom is with the aged, and understanding in length of days."

Devotional: Using Your Story to Pass God's Power

Your story is a divine bridge between past experience and future impact. Psalm 71:18 expresses the desire to declare God's power from generation to generation—a charge you carry as a mentor. Sharing your journey honestly shows younger women how God sustains, restores, and guides through all seasons.

Never underestimate the power of transparency. When you share not only successes but struggles, doubts, and God's faithfulness, you foster trust and authenticity that encourage others on their path.

Remember, your stories don't need to be perfect—they need to be real. Your testimony of God's grace and redemption is the wisdom younger women desperately need as they grow in faith and character.

Reflect and Apply

	How can sharing your personal faith journey encourage a younger woman?
2.	Are there parts of your story you have hesitated to share? Why?
3.	In what ways does honesty enhance the mentoring relationship?

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for the stories You have written in my life. Teach me to share them with honesty and grace, illustrating Your never-failing power. Help me to encourage and uplift younger women by showing them Your faithfulness in every season. Let my words be a lamp to their feet and a light on their path. Strengthen me to model Christ's love through my testimony. Amen.

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 13:4-7 - "Love is patient, love is kind... bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 13:34 "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."
- Galatians 5:22–23 "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace..."

Devotional: Mentoring Rooted in Christlike Love

Effective mentoring is rooted in love—a love that is patient, kind, and enduring. The love described in 1 Corinthians 13 is not just an emotion but an active choice to support, encourage, and persevere. As you guide younger women, remember that your love reflects Christ's love for the church.

Love enables deeper connections and creates a safe space where mentees can grow without fear of judgment. It empowers you to listen attentively, give grace generously, and direct with compassion.

Let your mentorship be an expression of God's love in action. When love leads, wisdom flows naturally, and lives are transformed.

Reflect and Apply

	How does the love described in 1 Corinthians 13 shape your mentoring approach?
	In what ways can love help overcome challenges in mentoring relationships?
3.	Are you offering love with patience and kindness to those you guide?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Reflect on how Christ's love has impacted your life.
2.	Write down ways to express love intentionally in mentoring moments.
3.	List practical steps to cultivate patience and kindness in mentoring.

Prayer for Today

Father, fill my heart with Your steadfast love so that I may love others well. Help me to be patient and kind, to bear with their faults, and to hope and believe in their potential. May my love reflect Your perfect love, creating a safe, encouraging space for growth. Teach me to love as You love. Amen.  $\heartsuit$

Day 4: ① Guiding with Wisdom and Discernment

Your Verse

James 1:5 – "If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding..."
- Ecclesiastes 7:12 "Wisdom preserves those who have it."

Day 4: ① Guiding with Wisdom and Discernment

Devotional: Praying for God's Wisdom in Mentoring

Mentoring requires wisdom beyond knowledge. It demands discernment—the ability to know when to speak, listen, encourage, or correct. James 1:5 reminds us that God generously gives wisdom when we ask. This is a crucial resource in mentoring younger women wisely.

Trusting God over our own understanding ensures that our guidance aligns with His will, not just our personal opinions or experiences. Wisdom protects relationships and builds confidence in those we mentor.

Commit today to seeking God's wisdom daily. Pray for clarity and gentle discernment, allowing His Spirit to lead your interactions and decisions as you nurture younger women in faith.

Day 4: • Guiding with Wisdom and Discernment

Reflect and Apply

1.	How often do you pray for wisdom in your mentoring role?
2.	What challenges in mentoring could benefit from greater discernment?
3.	How can trusting God more fully reshape your guidance approach?

Day 4: () Guiding with Wisdom and Discernment

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write a prayer asking God for wisdom and discernment.
2.	Recall a previous mentoring moment where wisdom was needed.
3.	Plan practical ways to seek God's guidance before mentoring conversations.

Day 4: ① Guiding with Wisdom and Discernment

Day 5: Fincouraging Growth in Faith

Day 5: 🍞 Encouraging Growth in Faith

Your Verse

Colossians 1:9-10 - "We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives... so that you may live a life worthy of the Lord."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 10:24 "Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds."
- Ephesians 4:15 "Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ."

Day 5: F Encouraging Growth in Faith

Devotional: Fostering Faith and Mature Growth

A mentor's role is not only to guide but to encourage spiritual growth. Paul's prayer in Colossians shows the importance of asking God for wisdom to live worthy lives. As you mentor, impart the knowledge of God's will, encouraging younger women to deepen their faith and walk authentically.

Encouragement fuels perseverance and fosters maturity. Be intentional in uplifting others, speaking truth in love, and inspiring good works. Your words and example become catalysts for lasting transformation.

Remember, growth in Christ is a journey, and your encouragement is an essential part of that process.

Day 5: 🍞 Encouraging Growth in Faith

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do you currently encourage spiritual growth in mentees?
2.	Are you intentional about praying for those you mentor?
	What practical actions can you take to spur others toward love and good deeds?

Day 5: 🍞 Encouraging Growth in Faith

Journaling Prompts

Write a prayer asking God to help you encourage growth in others.
List ways to speak truth in love during mentoring sessions.
Reflect on your own faith growth and how you want to model it.

Day 5: 7 Encouraging Growth in Faith

Prayer for Today

Lord, fill me with wisdom and a desire to nurture spiritual growth in younger women. Help me to speak truth in love and encourage faith with grace. Let my life be an example of maturity in You. Empower me to spur others on to love and good deeds, honoring You in every step. Amen. 💮 🗀 🙏 🖴

Your Verse

Ephesians 4:2 - "Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love."

Supporting Scriptures

- Colossians 3:12 "Therefore, as God's chosen people... clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience."
- 2 Timothy 2:24–25 "The Lord's servant must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful... gently instructing those who oppose the truth."

Devotional: Leading with Patience and Grace

Mentoring younger women requires abundant patience and grace. Ephesians 4 calls us to humility, gentleness, and loving endurance, crucial qualities when guiding others through their unique struggles and growth processes.

Patience means accepting imperfections and allowing God's timing in their transformation. Grace keeps relationships strong, enabling forgiveness and encouragement when mistakes happen. Gentle correction delivered with kindness leads to fruitful discipleship.

As you mentor, strive to reflect the patience and grace God extends to you. Your attitude can be a safe harbor that nurtures lasting change in younger women's hearts.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Where do you find it challenging to be patient in mentoring?
2. I	How can grace improve your mentoring relationships?
_
	What attitudes or behaviors do you need to surrender to God to mentor effectively?
_

Journaling Prompts

1.	Recall a time when patience led to growth in you or someone else.
2.	Write about how you can show more grace in mentoring.
3.	Pray for a humble and gentle heart toward those you mentor.

Prayer for Today

Dear God, grant me humility, patience, and grace as I mentor younger women. Help me to bear with them in love, offering gentleness even when challenges arise. Let my heart mirror Your compassion, creating a nurturing environment where healing and growth flourish. Teach me to lead as You lead —with kindness and forgiveness. Amen. 3

Day 7: 6 Empowering for Lifelong Faith

Your Verse

2 Timothy 2:2 – "And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 13:7 "Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith."
- Philippians 2:3-4 "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves..."

Day 7: 6 Empowering for Lifelong Faith

Devotional: Passing the Torch of Faithfully Leading

The ultimate goal of mentoring is multiplication. Paul's instruction to Timothy emphasizes entrusting God's truth to reliable people who will continue the chain. This legacy mindset ensures vibrant faith transcends generations.

Empowering younger women means equipping them not just to receive but to lead and teach others. It calls you to foster confidence, humility, and responsibility while modeling Christlike service.

As you conclude this study, embrace your role as a catalyst for lifelong faith. Your mentorship plants seeds that God will use for His glory far beyond what you may see.
