Introduction

Welcome to a transformative seven-day Bible study focused on miracle faith for parents and families. In the midst of challenges, parents often find themselves longing for God's supernatural touch and intervention in their children's lives and in the family as a whole. This study is designed to deepen your understanding of Biblical faith, inspire you with God's promises, and empower you to pray with confidence for divine breakthroughs.

Miracle faith is not just wishful thinking but a trust rooted deeply in God's character, His Word, and His unfailing love. Throughout Scripture, we see God responding to parents who cry out to Him for their children — from Hannah praying for Samuel, to Abraham interceding for his descendants, to Jesus Himself welcoming children and blessing them.

Each day in this plan will help you explore key Scriptures that reveal God's heart for families and His power at work through faith. You'll find encouraging devotionals to nurture your spirit, reflection questions to engage your heart, journaling prompts to personalize the message, and prayers crafted to uplift your voice before God.

Embrace this journey with open hearts, trusting that God delights in your prayers and desires to show His miraculous hand in your home. Let's begin cultivating a miraculous faith that impacts not only your family but generations to come.  $\bigwedge$

Your Verse

Mark 11:24 – "Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 11:1 "Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see."
- Matthew 19:26 "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

Devotional: Trusting God's Power to Move Mountains

As parents and family leaders, our faith defines how we approach prayer and the challenges facing our children and homes. Mark 11:24 teaches us a profound truth: faith in prayer is powerful. Jesus exhorts us to believe that we have already received what we ask for and assures us it will be ours. This is the foundation of miracle faith.

Often, the storms we face in raising children—be it health issues, emotional struggles, or spiritual battles—can feel overwhelming. Yet, Hebrews 11 reminds us that faith is the assurance of unseen realities. We are called to hold on firmly to God's promises even when we do not yet see the outcome.

Moreover, Matthew 19:26 emphasizes that no situation is beyond God's ability to redeem. What seems impossible by human standards is fully possible with God. When praying for your family, align your heart with this truth, and approach God with confident expectation.

Today, let your prayers be filled with unwavering belief in God's miracle-working power!

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does believing in the unseen challenge or comfort you as a parent?

Devotional: Learning from Hannah's Faith and Surrender

Hannah's story in 1 Samuel is one of heartfelt prayer and total surrender to God's will. She prayed fervently for a child, and when God answered, she dedicated Samuel back to the Lord. This teaches us two vital lessons for parents: bring your requests fully before God and be willing to entrust your children to Him.

Psalm 127 reminds us that children are a gift from God, emphasizing the sacred responsibility we hold as parents. Knowing this helps us approach parenting and prayer with reverence and hope.

Jesus Himself welcomed children warmly, emphasizing their value in God's kingdom (Luke 18:16). He shows us that caring for children spiritually is a high calling, and our prayers for them hold great significance.

Today, model Hannah's example—pray with passion, and trust God's greater plan for your family.
