Introduction

Welcome to Miracle Marriages: When God Restores What's Broken, a Bible study plan created to encourage every couple—whether thriving or struggling—to open their hearts to God's miraculous work in their marriage. Relationships can be full of joy and harmony, yet also face challenges that leave us feeling broken or discouraged. This plan invites you to explore Biblical truths that reveal God's desire to restore, renew, and strengthen the bonds between spouses.

Throughout these seven days, you will dive into Scripture passages highlighting God's patience, love, and transformative power. You'll learn how His grace can heal wounds, resolve conflicts, and revive hope where it's been lost. Remember, no marriage is beyond His reach; He is the ultimate source of restoration and miracles.

Whether your relationship is flourishing or facing difficult times, this study encourages you to involve God in every step. Trust in His timing and promises, lean on His Word, and allow His Spirit to guide your hearts toward healing and deeper intimacy.

As you journey together, take time each day to reflect, pray, and journal your own experiences and insights. May this study be a bridge to renewed connection, unconditional love, and divine restoration in your marriage. Let's invite God to perform miracles in what may feel broken, turning it into something beautiful and lasting.

Day 1: Embracing God's Design for Marriage

Day 1: Sembracing God's Design for Marriage

Your Verse

Genesis 2:24 NIV – "That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and they become one flesh."

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 5:25 "Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her."
- Mark 10:9 "Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate."

Day 1: Embracing God's Design for Marriage

Devotional: God's Original Plan for Marriage

Marriage was instituted by God as a sacred and beautiful union. Genesis 2:24 reminds us that in marriage, two individuals become one flesh, symbolizing unity, commitment, and intimacy designed by the Creator. When we understand God's original design, we begin to see our marriages not just as partnerships but as spiritual connections that reflect His love.

Just as Christ sacrificially loves the church (Ephesians 5:25), husbands and wives are called into a love that is deep, selfless, and nurturing. This divine pattern calls us to love beyond feelings and to commit to the ongoing work of building relationship.

By inviting God into your marriage, you're embracing a relationship that carries His purpose and blessing. No matter your current state, trusting in God's design opens the door for restoration and miracles in your union.

Day 1: Day 1: Design for Marriage

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do you view God's design for marriage? Does your current relationship reflect this design?
2.	In what ways can you align more closely with the example of love Christ showed the church?
3.	Are there areas in your marriage where unity feels broken or distant?

Day 1: Day 1: Design for Marriage

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about what 'one flesh' means for you personally in your marriage.
2.	List actions that could bring you closer to your spouse's heart today.
	Describe how God's design challenges or encourages you in your current relationship.

Day 1: Day 1: Design for Marriage

Prayer for Today

Dear Lord, thank You for the gift of marriage and Your perfect design for it. Help me to understand and embrace the unity You desire for us. Teach me to love my spouse as You love the church—selflessly and sacrificially. Even when things feel broken, remind me that Your plans are greater, and You have the power to restore all things. Please work a miracle in our relationship, healing wounds and drawing us closer to You and each other. Guide us by Your Spirit every day.

Your Verse

Psalm 147:3 NIV - "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 61:1 "He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted..."
- 2 Corinthians 12:9 "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

Devotional: God's Grace Heals Broken Hearts

Marriage can often reveal wounds—both old and new—that need healing. Psalm 147:3 assures us that God cares deeply for our broken hearts and actively binds up our wounds. His heart is tender toward pain and His grace is powerful enough to heal what feels shattered.

Sometimes, brokenness brings feelings of shame or discouragement. Isaiah 61:1 reminds us that God's mission is to comfort and restore the brokenhearted. He wants to turn mourning into joy and despair into hope.

Furthermore, 2 Corinthians 12:9 teaches us that in our weakness, God's strength shines brightest. When we surrender our pain to Him, we invite His grace to flow abundantly, bringing restoration that goes beyond our understanding.

Today, consider bringing your broken places to God, trusting Him to heal every wound in your marriage with His tender love and limitless grace.

Reflect and Apply

	What broken places do you sense in your marriage that need God's healing?
2.	How have you experienced God's grace in times of weakness?
3.	Are you willing to release pain or grudges to God for restoration?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write honestly about areas of brokenness or hurt in your relationship.
2.	Reflect on a time when God's grace helped you overcome a struggle.
3.	List ways you can extend grace to your spouse as God has to you.

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, today I bring the brokenness in my marriage before You. Heal the wounds that have caused pain and distance between us. Pour out Your amazing grace to cover imperfections and weakness. Help me to release all bitterness and to forgive as You forgive. Restore hope and peace in our hearts. Let Your healing touch mend what's broken and make our love strong and resilient. Thank You for being our Healer and Sustainer.

Your Verse

Colossians 3:13 NIV - "Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you."

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 4:32 "Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."
- Matthew 6:14 "For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you."

Devotional: The Power of Forgiveness in Healing

Forgiveness is fundamental in God's restoration process. Colossians 3:13 calls us to bear with each other and forgive just as the Lord has forgiven us—a forgiveness that is deep, unconditional, and freely given.

When offenses occur in marriage, choosing forgiveness is not always easy but vital to heal wounds and rebuild trust. Ephesians 4:32 encourages kindness and compassion alongside forgiveness, creating space for renewal and growth.

Jesus' teaching in Matthew 6:14 reminds us the spiritual importance of forgiveness—both receiving and extending it. Forgiveness releases bitterness, breaks chains of resentment, and opens the door for God's peace and restoration.

Reflect on your marriage today. What forgiveness does God ask you to extend? What freedom awaits when you release pain and allow God's grace to restore your bond?

Reflect and Apply

1.	Are there unresolved offenses between you and your spouse needing forgiveness?
2.	How does God's forgiveness of you shape your ability to forgive others?
3.	What practical steps can you take to restore trust and kindness in your marriage?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time forgiveness brought healing in your life or marriage.
2.	Identify barriers holding you back from forgiving your spouse fully.
	Commit to one action that promotes forgiveness and renewal in your relationship.

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, You have forgiven me completely; teach me to forgive my spouse with the same grace. Soften my heart toward mercy, kindness, and compassion. Help me release any pain or offenses that block our marriage from healing. Build bridges where there are walls, and renew our love through forgiveness. Thank You for your perfect example of grace that restores and makes us whole.

Day 4: W Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Day 4: 🖔 Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Your Verse

Philippians 4:7 NIV – "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives."
- Isaiah 26:3 "You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you."

Day 4: 🐯 Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Devotional: God's Peace Guards Our Hearts

Conflict and stress can threaten the peace within a marriage. Yet God promises a peace that surpasses human understanding, guarding hearts and minds in Christ (Philippians 4:7).

Jesus offers a peace unlike anything the world provides—calm amid chaos, rest amid worry (John 14:27). This peace is available when we anchor our trust in Him.

Isaiah 26:3 assures us that a steadfast mind focused on God results in perfect peace. When couples invite God's peace into their relationship, it dissolves anxiety, tempers tension, and fosters an environment where love can flourish.

Take time today to pray for God's peace to reign over your marriage, guarding your conversations, decisions, and hearts against unrest.

Day 4: 🖔 Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does worry or conflict affect your relationship currently?
	What practical ways can you invite God's peace into tense moments with your spouse?
3.	Are you both steadfastly trusting God for peace in your marriage?

Day 4: 🖏 Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Journaling Prompts

	Write about a moment when God's peace calmed your heart in a difficult time.
2.	List ways you can remind yourself and your spouse to rely on God's peace daily.
3.	Describe how experiencing God's peace changes your interactions as a couple.

Day 4: 🐯 Inviting God's Peace to Reign

Prayer for Today

Gracious Father, I ask for Your peace to fill our hearts and home today. Guard our minds and emotions from fear, anger, and confusion. Help us to trust You deeply and allow Your calm to reign over every situation we face. Teach us to support each other with patience and kindness, reflecting Your peace in our marriage. Thank You for being our refuge and rest.

Your Verse

Song of Solomon 8:6 NIV - "Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm; for love is as strong as death, its jealousy unyielding as the grave."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 5:18 "May your fountain be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth."
- Ecclesiastes 4:12 "A cord of three strands is not quickly broken."

Devotional: Love's Strength and Celebration

Over time, sustaining passion and commitment can be challenging in marriage. Yet Song of Solomon 8:6 powerfully describes love as strong and steadfast—worthy of protection and celebration.

Proverbs 5:18 invites us to rejoice in our spouse, the beloved of our youth, reminding us to celebrate the joy and delight marriage brings.

Ecclesiastes 4:12 compares connection with God and spouse to a cord of three strands, unbreakable when we include God at the center of our relationship.

Today is an opportunity to rekindle affection, renew vows in your heart, and invite God to fan the flame of love and commitment in your marriage.

Reflect and Apply

1.1	How does your marriage currently express love and commitment daily?
	What steps can you take to celebrate your spouse and relationship more intentionally?
	is God at the center of your marriage cord? How can you include Him more deeply?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about the qualities in your spouse that you cherish most.
2.	List ways to joyfully celebrate your relationship every day.
3.	Reflect on how involving God can strengthen your bond as a couple.

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for the gift of love and the strength You provide to keep us united. Rekindle the passion and commitment in our hearts. Help us to rejoice in each other and nurture our marriage daily. Let Your presence be the third cord that binds us with unbreakable love. Inspire us to cherish, honor, and protect one another as You desire.

Day 6: Forowing Together in Faith

Your Verse

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10 NIV - "Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their labor: If either of them falls down, one can help the other up."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 10:24 "Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds."
- 1 Peter 4:8 "Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins."

Day 6: F Growing Together in Faith

Devotional: Strengthening Marriage Through Mutual Support

Marriage is a journey of growth that flourishes best when partners actively support each other. Ecclesiastes 4:9-10 speaks to the strength found in partnership—helping each other up through trials and triumphs.

Hebrews 10:24 encourages couples to motivate and inspire one another towards love and good actions, creating a spiritual environment of encouragement and intentional growth.

1 Peter 4:8 reminds us that deep love covers many faults, urging us to love more deeply and graciously.

Today, consider how you and your spouse can grow together in faith—lifting each other up, spurring one another on, and loving deeply.

Day 6: 🍞 Growing Together in Faith

Reflect and Apply

	How do you and your spouse currently support each other's spiritual and emotional growth?
2.	In what areas can you encourage each other more intentionally?
	Are you both willing to extend grace and love, acknowledging imperfections?

Day 6: 🍞 Growing Together in Faith

Journaling Prompts

Write about ways you can 'help your spouse up' during difficult moments.
List encouraging habits you can cultivate together as a couple.
Reflect on the role grace plays in maintaining a healthy relationship.

Day 6: Forowing Together in Faith

Prayer for Today

Father God, thank You for the gift of companionship and the strength we find in partnership. Help us to uplift each other in love and good deeds. Teach us to love deeply and graciously, covering faults as You do. Empower us to grow spiritually and emotionally, walking this journey hand in hand with You. May our marriage be a reflection of Your enduring faithfulness.

Day 7: 🥕 Celebrating God's Miraculous Restoration

Your Verse

Joel 2:25 NIV - "I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Revelation 21:5 "Behold, I am making all things new."
- Jeremiah 30:17 "I will restore you to health and heal your wounds..."

Day 7: 🏂 Celebrating God's Miraculous Restoration

Devotional: Hope in God's Restorative Power

God is a God of restoration and new beginnings. Joel 2:25 offers hope that God will restore what was lost, bringing back joy and blessings even after seasons of hardship.

Revelation 21:5 echoes this promise of renewal—God makes all things new, inviting us to leave past failures behind and embrace His transformative power.

Jeremiah 30:17 further assures us of God's healing touch to restore health and mend wounds.

As this study concludes, take time to celebrate the miracles God has already worked or will work in your marriage. Trust in His ongoing restoration and look forward with hope and joy.

Day 7: 🏂 Celebrating God's Miraculous Restoration

Reflect and Apply

1.	What restoration have you witnessed in your marriage during this study?
	How does God's promise of making all things new give you hope for your relationship?
3.	In what ways can you celebrate God's work in your marriage daily?

Day 7: 🏂 Celebrating God's Miraculous Restoration

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write a letter of gratitude to God for His restoration in your marriage.
2.	List specific miracles or breakthroughs you hope to see moving forward.
3.	Reflect on how this study has shifted your perspective on God's power in relationships.

Day 7: 🥕 Celebrating God's Miraculous Restoration

Prayer for Today

Almighty God, thank You for Your miraculous power to restore and renew our marriage. We celebrate the healing and hope You have brought and commit to walking forward trusting in Your promises. Help us to remember that with You, no situation is beyond repair. Continue to make all things new in our hearts and our relationship. Fill our home with joy, peace, and Your unfailing love.
