Introduction

Welcome to the Mission Mindset Bible Study for Teens. Many teens believe that being "on mission" means traveling to faraway places, but the Bible teaches us that we can impact the world around us right where we are. Whether at school, at home, or with friends, God calls each of us to be His ambassadors, sharing His love through both words and actions.

It's easy to feel small or insignificant in a big world, especially as a teen, but remember: God uses ordinary people in ordinary places to do extraordinary things. Your daily life is a mission field waiting to be explored. This study will help you recognize that mission mindset, equipping you to live with purpose and boldness.

Each day, we'll explore Scripture that teaches us how to see the world through God's eyes, how to courageously share His love, and how to trust Him as we carry His mission forward. By the end of this study, you will not only understand your role in God's mission but also be inspired to take small steps of faith every day.

Let's get started on this exciting journey of living on mission—and remember, wherever you are, God's love is the power you carry!

Your Verse

Matthew 28:19–20 NIV: "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Acts 1:8 NIV: "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you..."
- Colossians 3:23 NIV: "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart..."

Devotional: Your Everyday World Is a Mission Field

Jesus' command in Matthew 28:19–20 is often called the Great Commission. Many think it means going far away, but "all nations" includes the people around you every day. Your school, neighborhood, and family are your mission field!

Think about Acts 1:8—which says you'll receive power from the Holy Spirit to be His witness. The same Spirit lives in you, helping you live boldly wherever you are. It doesn't require special talents or money, just willingness to love and share Jesus through your actions and words.

Colossians 3:23 reminds us to work heartily in all we do. Being on mission isn't just about talking about Jesus; it's also about showing His love through kindness, patience, and integrity in your daily routine. When others see Christ in you, it opens doors to share the Good News naturally.

Today, ask God to open your eyes to the people and opportunities around you. Your mission field is right where you stand!

Reflect and Apply

How do I currently view the people around me—friends, family, classmates?
What small acts of kindness can I do today that reflect Jesus' love?
In what ways might fear or doubt hold me back from sharing my faith?

Journaling Prompts

1.	List three people in your daily life who do not know Jesus.
2.	Write down one way you can show love to someone in your school or community this week.
3.	Reflect on a time you witnessed the power of the Holy Spirit in your actions or words.

Dear Lord, thank You for the mission You have given me right where I am. Help me to open my eyes to see the people around me with Your love. # Day 2: Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Day 2: Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Your Verse

Luke 10:27 NIV: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart... and love your neighbor as yourself."

Supporting Scriptures

- James 2:17 NIV: "Faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead."
- 1 Peter 3:15 NIV: "Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope you have."

Day 2: ♥ Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Devotional: Live Your Faith Out Loud and in Action

Jesus teaches us the greatest commandments are to love God and love others.

Loving others means more than words; it means putting love into action. James 2:17 reminds us that faith without deeds is empty. Sharing Jesus' love isn't only telling people about Him; it's demonstrating that love through kindness, patience, and standing up for what's right.

But when people ask why you live differently, 1 Peter 3:15 encourages us to be ready with a gentle and respectful explanation of our hope in Christ. This can be scary sometimes, but remember, sharing your story can light the path for others to find Jesus.

You don't have to have all the answers—just a heart that's willing and a life that matches what you say. When your actions and words work together, you become a powerful witness. Today, think about how your love for God fuels your love for the people around you.

Challenge yourself to look for at least one opportunity to share Jesus, act kindly, or explain your hope this week.

Day 2: ♥ Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does it mean to 'love your neighbor' in my daily life?

Day 2: Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write a story of a time when your actions showed Jesus' love to someone.
	List ways you can prepare yourself to share your faith respectfully and clearly.

Day 2: ● Sharing Jesus Through Words and Actions

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, thank You for loving me and calling me to love others. Help me to show Your love through my actions and words. Give me courage to share my hope with gentleness and respect. # Day 3: Trusting God as You Live on Mission

Day 3: 6 Trusting God as You Live on Mission

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Timothy 1:7 NIV: "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid..."

Day 3: 6 Trusting God as You Live on Mission

Devotional: Walk Boldly in God's Strength and Promise

Living on mission daily can feel overwhelming or scary at times. But Philippians 1:6 encourages us that God is faithful and will continue His good work in us until it's complete. You're not alone in this journey. God's Spirit equips you with power, love, and self-discipline.

Isaiah 41:10 reminds us not to fear because God is always with us, strengthening and helping us. When doubts or fears creep in, lean on His promises and power. The Spirit He gave does not make us timid—it gives us courage and boldness (2 Timothy 1:7).

Remember, living on mission is a daily choice to trust God, step out in faith, and let Him lead. You don't have to have everything figured out now—just take one step of obedience at a time. As you trust Him more, He will multiply your impact in ways you can't imagine.

Today, commit your mission mindset to God and ask Him to fill you with His courage and peace.
