This plan is built to equip you with scriptural insights, practical steps, and spiritual reflections so you can raise up leaders who will impact your church or mission field. Day 1: 🔥 Embrace Your Calling as a Disciple-Maker

Devotional: Answering God's Call to Multiply Disciples

God calls every man to be a disciple and a disciple–maker. Paul's instruction to Timothy reminds us of the responsibility to entrust spiritual truths to dependable men who will also teach others. This step–by–step multiplication reflects God's design for leadership development.

As you begin this journey, embrace the calling to multiply disciples, not just accumulate followers. This means investing wisdom, time, and spiritual strength into a few men who will carry on the mission with the same passion.

Your family, church, and mission field depend on your obedience to this higher purpose. Today, pray and ask God to clarify your role and grant you boldness to start this multiplication with intentionality.

Your influence in multiplying disciples grows when your life aligns with your words. Integrity attracts trust, and humility keeps your heart teachable.

As men called to multiply disciples, we must cultivate a deep, personal faith that depends fully on God's power. This relationship nourishes our spirit and shapes how we lead.

Commit to daily prayer, Scripture reading, and listening to the Holy Spirit's guidance. Growth in faith is the root system for every fruitful ministry endeavor. Ask God to increase your trust in Him and to prune what hinders your spiritual vitality.
