Introduction

Welcome to this 21-day Bible study plan focused on the powerful story of Peter's denial and restoration. Peter, one of Jesus' closest disciples, experienced profound failure when he denied Jesus three times. Yet, through God's grace and Jesus' restoration, Peter's story becomes a beacon of hope for all believers.

In our lives, failure can feel like an ending. We might fear that mistakes define us or that we are beyond forgiveness. However, Peter's journey teaches us otherwise.

Each day, we will explore scripture passages, devotional reflections, and thought–provoking questions to help us understand that our failures do not write the final chapter of our stories. Instead, Jesus offers restoration, renewed purpose, and a calling beyond what we might imagine. This study invites you to walk alongside Peter, identify with his struggles, and embrace the grace that brings healing.

Through prayer, journaling, and quiet reflection, allow this study to transform your perspective on failure, grace, and restoration. You will discover that no matter how far you stumble, God's love pursues you and invites you to rise again, stronger and more purpose-driven.

Let's dive into this journey of grace together, remembering that with Jesus, failure is never final.

Your Verse

Matthew 16:16 – "Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 1:42 "Jesus looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas' (which, when translated, is Peter)."
- Luke 5:10 "Jesus said to Simon, 'Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people.'"

Devotional: Peter's Humble Beginning and God's Calling

Peter was a simple fisherman called by Jesus to be a foundational player in God's plan. His confession that Jesus is the Messiah shows his faith, yet he was also very human with doubts and fears.

Understanding who Peter was helps us see that God often chooses ordinary people for extraordinary purposes. Peter's story invites us to reflect on how God calls us despite our imperfections.

Think about the ways God is calling you today, even if you feel unqualified. Like Peter, your journey is just beginning, and faith is taking that first step.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does knowing Peter's background affect your view of his failures?
2.	In what ways is God calling you despite your insecurities?
3.	What does it mean to be a 'fisher of men' in your context today?

Journaling Prompts

	Write about a time when you felt called to do something but felt unprepared.
2.	Reflect on your strengths and weaknesses in faith.
3.	Journal prayers asking God to reveal His call in your life.

Luke 22:33 – "But Peter replied, 'Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death."

Supporting Scriptures

- Matthew 26:35 "Peter declared, 'Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will."
- Mark 14:29 "Peter said to him, 'Even if all fall away, I will not."

Day 2: 6 Bold Confession, Fragile Faith

Devotional: The Contrast Between Confidence and Fear

Peter boldly declared his loyalty to Jesus, even claiming he was willing to die for Him. Yet, this brave confession masked the fragility of his faith when tested.

This tension between bold words and inner fears is familiar to many of us. Peter's confidence was sincere but lacked the resilience to withstand the coming trials.

Reflect on moments when you made strong promises in faith but later faced doubts or fears. These moments don't disqualify us but reveal our need for God's strength. Jesus sees beyond our bravado and meets us where we struggle.

- John 18:27 "Peter denied knowing Jesus three times."

Day 3: Unit The Night of Denial

Devotional: Remembering Grace in Failure

Peter's denial is one of the most humbling moments in Scripture. Despite his earlier promises, fear led him to deny Jesus three times. Yet, Jesus' penetrating look reminded Peter of His words and love.

Failure is painful, especially when we feel we have let Jesus and ourselves down. But even in the darkest moments, Jesus offers an opportunity for remembering, repentance, and restoration.

We all experience moments of weakness and failure. What matters is our response to God's grace when we realize our mistakes.

Bitter tears fell from Peter's eyes, revealing the deep pain of regret and remorse. Regret is a natural response to failure, but without hope, it can leave us stuck and isolated.

The Lord draws near to the brokenhearted, offering comfort and strength. Instead of allowing regret to harden our hearts, we can bring it before God and find healing mercy.

When you feel crushed by your mistakes, remember God's nearness and His promise to uphold you.
