Introduction

Welcome to "Revelation for Teens: A Survival Guide"! This 21-day Bible study plan is designed to help young people dive into the exciting and sometimes mysterious Book of Revelation. Often seen as confusing or scary, Revelation actually brings a powerful message of hope, victory, and the promise that God is in control. In these pages, you'll discover what's coming, what it means for you, and how to live ready and confident in your faith. ✨

Revelation is the last book in the Bible, written by the apostle John while he was on the island of Patmos. It contains visions and symbols that reveal God's plan for the future—especially the ultimate defeat of evil and the everlasting joy of God's kingdom. Even though the images can be intense, this guide breaks them down in simple language and connects them to what matters most in your life as a teen.

Over the next three weeks, we'll explore key themes like God's justice, Jesus as the victorious King, the importance of faithfulness, and how to stay hopeful amid challenges. This study will help you understand what is coming, but even more, it will show you how to live each day prepared, courageous, and full of love.

Each day includes a short scripture passage, thoughts to help you think deeply, and questions and prompts so you can reflect and write down your journey. There's also a prayer to encourage your heart as you grow in your relationship with God.

Remember, Revelation was written to encourage believers to stand strong and trust in God's promises, no matter what happens. You're never alone—God is with you, and His plans are good. Let's begin this adventure with open hearts and eager minds, ready to learn, grow, and be transformed! 📖 ✨

Listening to God's Words for His People

In these opening letters, Jesus speaks to real churches, encouraging them to stay faithful, warning them where they've drifted, and reminding them to love Him first. Though these churches lived nearly 2,000 years ago, their challenges sound familiar.

For teens, these messages call us to check our hearts. Are we holding tight to our faith? Are we loving God with everything we have? Sometimes it's easy to get busy or distracted, just like the church in Ephesus, which had worked hard but lost some passion.

God wants us to love Him deeply, stay strong in tough times, and let our faith change how we live. These messages are a survival guide for your heart—don't ignore the parts you may need to hear!
