Introduction

Welcome to this 7-day Bible study plan focused on sharing your faith and bringing others to Jesus. Many believers desire to share the hope they have in Christ, yet often feel unsure or intimidated about how to do so effectively and lovingly. This study will equip you with biblical principles, practical guidance, and encouragement to witness confidently and compassionately.

Faith sharing is not just an activity; it's a vital part of living out our identity as followers of Jesus. In the New Testament, Jesus commands His disciples to "go and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). This Great Commission is both a privilege and responsibility for every believer.

Throughout this study, you will explore key Scriptures that reveal God's heart for the lost, the power of the Holy Spirit in evangelism, and practical ways to communicate your faith while loving others well. You'll be challenged to pray intentionally, overcome fears, and recognize opportunities God places around you daily.

By the end, you will not only have greater confidence in sharing your faith but also a deeper appreciation for the transforming power of the gospel. Let this time strengthen your relationship with Jesus and spark a desire to participate in His mission to bring salvation to the world. Let's begin this exciting journey together, stepping out in faith to bring others to the saving love of Christ! 🙏

Day 1: Embracing the Call to Share

Your Verse

Matthew 28:19 - "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Acts 1:8 - "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you..."
- Romans 10:14 - "How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in?"

Day 1:  Embracing the Call to Share

Devotional: Answering Jesus' Call to Go Boldly

The call to share your faith starts with obedience to Jesus' Great Commission. He commands us to "go and make disciples," reminding us that the gospel is to be shared with all people. This calling is purposeful and urgent because many have not yet heard the saving message.

Embracing this call means acknowledging that God uses ordinary people like you and me to expand His kingdom. The promise that the Holy Spirit will empower us (Acts 1:8) provides both strength and boldness. It's not about our own ability but God working through us.

Take time today to reflect on how God is inviting you to step out in faith. Are you willing to be His witness where you are? Ask God to prepare your heart and mind, giving you boldness and love to carry out this mission.

Day 1:  Embracing the Call to Share

Reflect and Apply

1. What feelings come up when you think about sharing your faith?

2. How does knowing the Holy Spirit empowers you change your perspective?

3. Who around you might God be leading you to share Jesus with?

Day 1:  Embracing the Call to Share

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about any fears or obstacles you feel about sharing your faith.

2. List three ways you can ask God to prepare and empower you.

3. Describe a past experience where you saw God use you in sharing His love.

Day 1:  Embracing the Call to Share

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, thank You for the gift of salvation and Your call to share it with others. Please fill me with Your Spirit so that I may speak boldly and lovingly about Your truth. Help me to trust You more than my fears and to see those around me through Your eyes. Give me opportunities and the courage to be Your witness today and each day ahead. In Your mighty name, I pray. Amen.

Day 2: 💡 Understanding the Power of the Gospel

Your Verse

Romans 1:16 - "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation..."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 1:18 - "The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing..."
- John 3:16 - "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son..."

Day 2: 💡 Understanding the Power of the Gospel

Devotional: The Gospel's Transformative Power

The gospel is not just good advice—it is the power of God to save lives. Paul declares he is not ashamed of the gospel because it has the unique power to transform hearts and bring eternal life. This truth encourages us to boldly share the message, knowing it can pierce through hardness and sin.

Remember, not everyone will respond positively right away; some may see it as foolishness. Yet the reality remains that Jesus' sacrifice is the only true hope for salvation (John 3:16). Understanding this power should stir our passion to share it with love and patience.

Pray today for eyes to see the desperate spiritual need around you and a heart passionate for the gospel's power to change lives.

Reflect and Apply

1. How does knowing the gospel is God's power impact your confidence in sharing?

2. Have you seen evidence of God's power in someone's life before?

3. In what ways can you share the gospel so it connects lovingly with others?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time you experienced the gospel's power personally.

2. Identify any misconceptions you or others might have about the gospel.

3. Plan a simple way to explain the gospel to a friend or family member.

Day 2: 💡 Understanding the Power of the Gospel

Prayer for Today

Father God, thank You for the gospel—the powerful message of salvation. Help me to never be ashamed of sharing this truth. Equip me to speak clearly and lovingly about Jesus, trusting Your Spirit to soften hearts. Give me sensitivity and boldness to proclaim Your love to those who need You most. May Your power flow through me today and always. Amen. 💪 ❤️ 📖

Day 3: Relying on the Holy Spirit's Guidance

Your Verse

John 14:26 - "But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send... will teach you all things..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 12:12 - "The Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say."
- Acts 4:31 - "They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly."

Day 3: 🕊 Relying on the Holy Spirit's Guidance

Devotional: Empowered by the Holy Spirit

Sharing your faith is not something you do in your own strength; it requires the Holy Spirit's guidance and empowerment. Jesus promised the Holy Spirit would teach and remind us of His words when we need them most. This promise means we can trust God to provide the right words and courage at the right moment.

Often, the fear of saying the wrong thing prevents us from sharing. But the Spirit's presence removes that fear, enabling us to speak boldly and with love. The early church exemplified this empowerment, boldly proclaiming God's truth even in difficult circumstances.

Ask the Holy Spirit today to prepare your heart, guide your conversations, and fill you with boldness as you seek to share Jesus.

Reflect and Apply

1. How can you be more aware of the Holy Spirit's leading in daily conversations?

2. What fears do you have about sharing your faith, and how can the Spirit help?

3. Have you experienced moments when the Holy Spirit provided the right words? Reflect on that.

Journaling Prompts

1. Write a prayer inviting the Holy Spirit to guide your evangelism.

2. Record a recent conversation and note where you sensed (or lacked) Spirit guidance.

3. Commit to one step for listening more closely to the Spirit this week.

Day 3: 🕊️ Relying on the Holy Spirit's Guidance

Prayer for Today

Holy Spirit, I invite You to fill my heart and mind today. Teach me what to say and when to say it. Help me to trust Your guidance over my fears and human limitations. Empower me to speak boldly and lovingly so that others may meet Jesus through my words and actions. Thank You for being my constant Helper and Friend. Amen. 🕊️ 👤 🙏

Day 4: ❤️ Sharing with Love and Compassion

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 13:1 - "If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong."

Supporting Scriptures

- Colossians 4:6 - "Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt..."
- 1 Peter 3:15 - "Always be prepared to give an answer... but do this with gentleness and respect."

Devotional: Love: The Heart of Effective Witnessing

Love must be the foundation of every conversation where we share our faith. Without love, even the most eloquent words can seem empty or harsh. The apostle Paul reminds us of the centrality of love in all we do.

Sharing faith is not about winning arguments but building relationships and reflecting Christ's heart. Colossians encourages grace and kindness in our speech, helping others to be receptive rather than defensive.

Remember Peter's instruction to be gentle and respectful—even as you are bold and prepared. Today, commit to a posture of love that values and honors the person you share with above all else.

Reflect and Apply

1. Think about a time you felt loved during a spiritual conversation—what made it impactful?

2. How can you show greater compassion and respect in your faith sharing?

3. Are there people you find difficult to love? How might God help you today?

Journaling Prompts

1. Describe how love changes the way you share your faith.

2. List practical ways to show kindness and respect in conversations.

3. Write a prayer asking God to soften your heart toward difficult people.

Day 4: ❤️ Sharing with Love and Compassion

Prayer for Today

Lord, fill my heart with Your love as I seek to share Your gospel. Help me to speak with kindness, grace, and respect to everyone I meet. Remove any pride or impatience from my words, and let Your love shine through me. May others see Jesus in my attitude and be drawn to You. Thank You for teaching me to love as You love. Amen. ❤️ 🙏 🌿

Day 5: Overcoming Fear and Rejection

Your Verse

2 Timothy 1:7 – "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 41:10 – "Do not fear, for I am with you..."
- Psalms 27:1 – "The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?"

Day 5: 🎯 Overcoming Fear and Rejection

Devotional: Courage to Share Despite Fear

Fear and rejection often intimidate us from sharing our faith, but God calls us to courage rooted in His presence. Through His Spirit, we receive power, love, and self-discipline—not timidity. These gifts enable us to face uncertainty and opposition with boldness.

God promises to be with us in every witness moment, assuring us we are never alone. His presence expels fear and strengthens our confidence. When we feel vulnerable, it's an opportunity to lean more deeply on Him.

Today, meditate on these promises and ask God to replace fear with faith. Remind yourself that rejection is not the end but part of God's greater plan to refine and use you.

Reflect and Apply

1. What fears arise when you consider sharing your faith?

2. How can God's promises help you face those fears?

3. Recall a time you overcame fear with God's help—what did you learn?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about an experience of rejection and how it affected your faith-sharing.

2. List Bible verses that bring you comfort and courage.

3. Develop a plan to pray and remind yourself of God's presence before sharing.

Day 5: 🎯 Overcoming Fear and Rejection

Prayer for Today

Father, I confess my fears about sharing my faith. Thank You for giving me Your Spirit who empowers me with courage and love. Help me to trust Your presence in every conversation and to overcome fear and rejection. Strengthen my heart and remind me that You are always with me. Fill me with confidence to proclaim Your name boldly today and beyond. Amen. 💪

Day 6: Living Out Your Faith Daily

Day 6:  Living Out Your Faith Daily

Your Verse

Colossians 3:17 - "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Matthew 5:16 - "Let your light shine before others..."
- James 2:17 - "Faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead."

Day 6:  Living Out Your Faith Daily

Devotional: Faith in Action: Reflecting Jesus Daily

Faith sharing is not limited to conversations; it is a daily lifestyle that reflects Jesus' love and truth. Our words are more powerful when matched by actions consistent with our testimony. Paul reminds us that everything we do should honor Christ.

Living out your faith naturally opens doors for meaningful conversations and authentic witness. Jesus calls us to shine our light so that others may see and glorify God.

Consider how your everyday behavior communicates your beliefs to others. Ask God to help your life be a testimony that invites curiosity and interest in Jesus.

Reflect and Apply

1. In what ways does your daily life reflect your faith?

2. Who around you notices the difference Christ makes in your life?

3. How can your actions open doors to share the gospel more naturally?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about habits or attitudes that demonstrate your faith.

2. Identify areas for growth to better reflect Christ's character.

3. List practical ways to show love and integrity at work, school, or home.

Day 6:  Living Out Your Faith Daily

Prayer for Today

Jesus, help me to live a life that honors You in all I say and do. May my actions and words shine Your light to those around me, opening hearts to Your truth. Help me walk in integrity, love, and humility so that others may see Your grace. Use my daily life as a powerful witness for Your kingdom. Amen. ✨🙌

Day 7: Trusting God to Grow the Seed

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 3:6 - "I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow."

Supporting Scriptures

- John 15:5 - "Apart from me you can do nothing."
- Galatians 6:9 - "Let us not become weary in doing good..."

Devotional: God Grows What We Share in Faith

Finally, remember that sharing your faith is a partnership with God who does the growing. Whether you plant the first seed or simply water another's efforts, God is the one who causes spiritual growth and transformation.

We may not always see immediate results, but God is at work even when we cannot see it. Jesus reminds us that apart from Him, we can do nothing. So, we persevere, trusting God's timing and sovereign plan.

Today, celebrate your role in God's mission and commit to faithfully sowing seeds of faith, knowing that God will bring the increase in His perfect way and time.

Reflect and Apply

1. How does trusting God's timing affect your approach to sharing faith?

2. Have you experienced patience and perseverance in witnessing to others?

3. What encouragement can you draw from knowing God is working behind the scenes?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about someone you have shared with and pray for their growth.

2. Reflect on the importance of patience in faith-sharing.

3. Commit to a long-term mindset for witnessing God's work through you.

Day 7: 🌱 Trusting God to Grow the Seed

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for the privilege of partnering with You in sharing the gospel. Help me to plant and water faithfully, trusting that You will grow the seed. When results seem slow or invisible, encourage me to persevere with hope. May my heart rest in Your sovereignty and love, knowing You bring eternal fruit. Use me as Your instrument to bring others into Your kingdom. Amen.
