Introduction

Welcome to this 7-day Bible study plan, created for men who desire to live a life marked by purity and integrity. In today's hypersexualized world, we face constant bombardment from media, culture, and even our own thoughts, tempting us away from the holiness God calls us to. This plan is designed to guide you through practical Scripture teachings, empowering prayer, and establishing firm boundaries that will help you conquer lust and cultivate a pure heart.

Throughout Scripture, God calls men to lead lives of self-control, honor, and faithfulness. Yet the battle against lust is real and persistent; it attacks not only actions but the thoughts and desires of our hearts. Jesus taught that lustful intent in the heart is as sinful as committing adultery (Matthew 5:28). Therefore, transformation must begin not just with behavior but with the renewing of the mind and heart.

This study will help you understand the spiritual, mental, and emotional dimensions of lust and offer God's solutions. You'll discover how to build strong boundaries, guard your eyes and mind, and lean into God's strength through prayer and Scripture. By the end of this journey, you will be better equipped to walk in purity, experience freedom, and live as a godly man who honors God in all areas of life. Let's start this journey toward freedom and purity with open hearts, honest reflection, and a commitment to God's transformative power. \triangle

Day 1: Necognizing the Battle Within

Your Verse

James 1:14-15 - "But each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own evil desire and enticed. Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 10:13 "No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful..."
- Romans 7:15 "I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do."

Day 1: Necognizing the Battle Within

Devotional: Know the Enemy: Lust Begins in Desire

Understanding the root of temptation is the first step toward victory. James clearly explains that lust begins in the heart as a desire that entices and drags us away. It is not just an external force attacking us but originates from within. Recognizing this internal battle allows us to take ownership rather than becoming victims.

It's important to remember that temptation is common to all humans, but God provides a way out. No matter how strong the pull, you are not alone. God's faithfulness means He gives strength and escape routes when you seek Him.

Paul's honest words in Romans reveal the struggle between our flesh and spirit. Even when we want purity, the battle rages internally. This tension is real but not hopeless. God invites us to trust His power over our sinful desires and to remain vigilant.

Today, ask yourself: Am I aware of what triggers my desires? Am I honest about how lust operates in my heart? Awareness is a powerful weapon in your battle against lust.

Day 1: \P Recognizing the Battle Within

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do you recognize when lust starts to take root in your thoughts?
2.	What internal desires or triggers lead you toward temptation?
	How have you experienced God's faithful provision during times of temptation?

Day 1: \P Recognizing the Battle Within

Journaling Prompts

1.	List situations or feelings that often tempt you most.
2	Write about a recent time you resisted temptation and what helped you.
۷.
3.	Describe what you hope freedom from lust will look like in your life.

Day 1: Necognizing the Battle Within

Prayer for Today

Father God, I come before You acknowledging that lust begins in my heart and desires. Help me to be honest and alert to the battle within me. Strengthen me with Your faithfulness and give me courage to resist temptation. Teach me to guard my mind and to rely on Your way out when I feel enticed. Fill me with Your purity and renew my spirit daily. In Jesus' name, amen.

Day 2: Guarding Your Eyes and Mind

Your Verse

Matthew 5:28 - "But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 4:23 "Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it."
- Philippians 4:8 "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble...think about such things."

Devotional: Protect Your Mind and Eyes from Lust

Jesus raises the bar by teaching us that lust is sin even in the heart and mind. This means the battle isn't just about our actions, but every glance, thought, and fantasy. Guarding your eyes isn't merely about avoidance but about protecting your heart and mind from the seeds of lust.

Proverbs reminds us to guard our hearts because everything in life flows from it. If your heart is contaminated, your choices, words, and actions will follow suit. Likewise, Paul encourages us to fill our minds with what is pure and noble.

This means being disciplined about what you watch, read, and consume mentally. It means setting clear boundaries for media, internet, and daily inputs that might fan the flames of lust rather than quench them.

As a practical step, consider accountability tools, filters, or trusted friends who can help guard your gaze and mind. Remember, every moment you choose to look away is a victory for your integrity and your relationship with God.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does what you look at influence your thoughts and desires?
2.	What specific changes can you make to guard your eyes in daily life?
3.	How can you intentionally fill your mind with what is pure and uplifting?

Journaling Prompts

	Write about your current habits related to media consumption and their effect.
2.	Identify one boundary you will set to protect your eyes and thoughts.
3.	Journal about how you can replace lustful thoughts with God-honoring ones.

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, teach me to guard my eyes and mind as You command. Help me to see others as You do, not through lust or selfish desire. Strengthen my will to turn away from temptation and to fix my thoughts on things that are true and pure. Encourage me to establish healthy boundaries and seek accountability in this journey. May my heart be guarded by Your Spirit daily. Amen.

Your Verse

Ephesians 6:10 - "Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 51:10 "Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me."
- Matthew 26:41 "Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Devotional: Prayer: Your Strength Against Temptation

One of the most powerful weapons against lust is a spirit strengthened by prayer. Prayer connects us to God's mighty power, reminding us that we do not fight this battle alone. Paul urges believers to be strong in the Lord, drawing on His strength rather than our own.

David's prayer for a pure heart and a steadfast spirit reveals the deep longing God's people have to live rightly. Prayer is an act of surrender that invites God to transform your desires and empower your will.

Jesus reminds us to watch and pray continually as temptation is relentless. The spirit may be willing to choose purity, but the flesh is weak and prone to failure without God's help.

Commit today to making prayer a regular part of your fight against lust. Pray for purity, self-control, and a heart that delights in righteousness. When you feel tempted, pause and ask God for immediate strength. This continual connection with God renews your spirit daily in the battle.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How consistent is your prayer life when facing temptation?
2.	In what ways can prayer help renew your heart and mind?
3.	What promises from Scripture encourage you to persevere in prayer?

Journaling Prompts

Write a prayer asking God to create a pure heart within you.
Reflect on times when prayer helped you resist temptation.
Plan how you will integrate prayer throughout your daily routine.

Prayer for Today

Father, I need Your mighty power to strengthen me today and every day. Create in me a pure heart and renew a steadfast spirit that longs to follow You faithfully. Help me to watch carefully and pray continually so I will not fall into temptation. Remind me that my spirit is willing when my flesh is weak. Empower me by Your Spirit to stand strong in the battle against lust. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Your Verse

Proverbs 25:28 - "Like a city whose walls are broken through is a person who lacks self-control."

Supporting Scriptures

- 1 Corinthians 9:27 "I discipline my body and keep it under control..."
- Galatians 5:22–23 "But the fruit of the Spirit is... self-control...against such things there is no law."

Devotional: Discipline and Boundaries Build Strong Walls

Living pure requires intentional boundaries that protect your heart and body.

Proverbs compares lack of self-control to a defenseless city with broken walls

—easy for the enemy to penetrate your life.

Paul's testimony about disciplining his body reminds us that purity involves active effort and self-discipline. This often means saying no to habits, places, or relationships that put you at risk.

The fruit of the Spirit includes self-control—an ability to say no not by legalism but by the Spirit's empowering presence in our lives. Setting clear, practical boundaries empowers you to walk in freedom.

Identify areas where your walls might be weak. Perhaps it's late-night screen time, unfiltered internet use, or unchecked friendships. Establish firm boundaries with grace and commit to honoring them even when it's difficult.

Remember, boundaries are acts of wisdom and love—for yourself, your family, and your walk with God.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What boundaries have you set or need to set in your life regarding purity?
2.	How does self-control as a fruit of the Spirit empower you daily?
	What are practical ways to maintain your personal 'walls' against temptation?

Journaling Prompts

1.	List areas where your self-control feels weak or inconsistent.
2.	Write down specific boundaries you want to establish starting today.
3.	Reflect on how these boundaries will protect your relationships and faith.

Prayer for Today

Lord, teach me to discipline my body and set wise boundaries to protect my heart. Help me to build strong walls of self-control around my life, so temptation cannot easily breach my defenses. Empower me by Your Spirit to say no to what harms and yes to what honors You. Let my choices reflect the fruit of Your Spirit. In Jesus' name, amen. (§) (L)

Your Verse

Romans 12:2 – "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 10:5 "We take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ."
- Colossians 3:2 "Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things."

Devotional: Capture Every Thought and Focus on God

Transformation begins with the mind. Lustful thoughts are often the first battleground. Paul calls believers to renew their minds continually to avoid conforming to the world's patterns and to be transformed into Christ's likeness.

This renewing is an ongoing process that requires intentionality every day. Taking every thought captive means you don't allow lustful imaginations to roam free but bring them under obedience to Christ.

Setting your mind on things above means focusing on eternal values instead of fleeting sensations. Practically, this could mean memorizing Scripture, meditating on God's promises, and intentionally redirecting your mental energy when intrusive lustful thoughts arise.

Remember that renewal isn't a one-time fix but a daily reorientation toward God's truth. Commit to this journey of reshaping your mental landscape in alignment with God's pure and holy standards.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What thoughts tend to dominate your mind and lead to temptation?
2.	How can you actively 'take captive' these thoughts?
3.	What scriptures or truths help you set your mind on things above?

Journaling Prompts

	Write down common lustful thoughts you face and plan how to redirect them.
2.	List Scriptures you can memorize to renew your mind.
3.	Journal about progress you want to pursue in daily mental renewal.

Prayer for Today

Heavenly Father, renew my mind each day so I do not conform to worldly desires. Help me to take every thought captive and make it obedient to Christ. Teach me to set my focus on things above, not on earthly temptations that pull me away from You. Guide my mental renewal through Your Word and Spirit's power. I surrender my thoughts to You today. Amen.

Day 6: Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Day 6: O Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Your Verse

Ecclesiastes 4:9–10 – "Two are better than one... If either of them falls down, one can help the other up."

Supporting Scriptures

- James 5:16 "Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed."
- Hebrews 10:24-25 "Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds...not giving up meeting together."

Day 6: 🌣 Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Devotional: Leaning on Brothers for Accountability and Healing

No man was meant to fight the battle against lust alone. God designed us for community, and accountability is a biblical principle providing strength, encouragement, and correction.

Ecclesiastes highlights the power of partnership. When you stumble, a brother or friend can lift you up and keep you on the path of purity.

James calls for confession and prayer within trusted relationships that promote healing and freedom. Sharing your struggles grieves Satan's hold and unleashes God's grace. Moreover, Hebrews encourages regular fellowship where believers spur one another toward holiness.

Seek out or strengthen relationships with men who will lovingly hold you accountable. This can be through a small group, mentorship, or a trusted friend. Transparency and prayer between brothers provide a robust defense in your purity journey.

Day 6: 🎔 Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Reflect and Apply

1.	Who are the trusted men in your life that can support you?
2
2.	How can you cultivate honest conversations about struggles and victories?
3.	What fears or barriers hold you back from seeking accountability?

Day 6: 🎔 Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Journaling Prompts

List men you can turn to for accountability and encouragement.
Write about how vulnerability could strengthen your purity journey.
Plan a step you will take to build or deepen accountability relationships.

Day 6: 🎔 Accountability: Strength in Brotherhood

Prayer for Today

God, thank You for brothers in the faith who help me fight temptation. Lead me to accountability partners who will encourage and pray for me. Give me courage to be vulnerable and honesty in sharing my struggles. Through brotherhood, may I experience healing, strength, and freedom. Unite us in love and support for Your glory. Amen. \heartsuit

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 6:18–20 – "Flee from sexual immorality... You are not your own; you were bought at a price."

Supporting Scriptures

- Galatians 5:16 "Walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh."
- Psalm 119:9 "How can a young person stay on the path of purity? By living according to Your word."

Devotional: Commit to a Life of Purity Daily

Today marks a new beginning—walking forward in purity and freedom.

Paul's exhortation to flee sexual immorality is clear and urgent. Purity is not a passive state but an active journey of fleeing, pursuing, and living in God's grace.

Remember that you are not your own; you belong to God, bought at a great price. This truth empowers you to live differently.

Walking by the Spirit is the daily choice to say no to the flesh and yes to God's leading. Psalm 119 challenges young men and all believers to stay pure by meditating on and obeying God's Word.

Take this day to celebrate your progress, forgive past failures, and recommit to a lifestyle that honors God completely. With Scripture as your guide, prayer as your strength, accountability as your guard, and boundaries as your protection, you can live as a man set apart—pure, free, and victorious.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does it mean to 'flee' from sexual immorality in your life?
2.	How will walking by the Spirit change your daily choices?
3.	How can Scripture continue to guide you in maintaining purity?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write your personal commitment statement to purity moving forward.
2.	Reflect on how God's grace has worked in your life during this study.
3.	List ongoing practices that will help you live in freedom daily.

Prayer for Today

Father God, today I choose to flee from sexual immorality and walk by Your Spirit. Thank You for buying me at a price and calling me to live pure and holy. Help me to rely on Your Word, prayer, and the support of brothers to continue this journey. May my life glorify You and reflect Your freedom and grace. In Jesus' name, amen. \triangle
