Introduction

Welcome to this 21-day Bible study plan centered around a sobering and deeply challenging passage from the book of Judges — the story of the Levite and his concubine in Judges 19. This narrative unfolds a dark chapter in Israel's history, where the tragic consequences of moral decay and societal breakdown are starkly portrayed. As we journey through these three weeks together, we will explore how this grim tale reflects the broader spiritual and cultural condition when “everyone did what was right in their own eyes” (Judges 21:25). This phrase captures the essence of chaos that ensues when God's standards are ignored and replaced by human discretion and selfish ambition.

Throughout these 21 days, we will weave Scripture passages that provide insight into God's perspective on justice, righteousness, community, and repentance. We will confront challenging questions about our own hearts and cultures, asking whether we too are tempted to justify actions by personal preference rather than divine instruction. Yet, in walking through this story of darkness, we will also discover enduring lessons about God's holiness, His grief over sin, and His desire to restore His people to faithful living.

This journey will call for honest reflection and spiritual openness. It is not only a study of ancient history but also a mirror for our present condition. The Bible reveals that when people stray from God's ways, brokenness and violence follow—a truth as relevant today as it was in the days of the judges. But God's love and truth never abandon us. Through Scripture and prayer, you will be encouraged to seek God's guidance for personal and communal transformation.

Prepare your heart to be challenged, convicted, and encouraged. Let this study foster a deeper understanding of the Bible's power to expose sin, call us to repentance, and invite us into a restored relationship with the Holy God who, even in judgment, extends mercy and grace.

Day 1: Introduction to Judges and Its Context

Day 1:  Introduction to Judges and Its Context

Your Verse

Judges 1:1 – After the death of Joshua, the Israelites asked the Lord who should go up first to fight against the Canaanites.

Supporting Scriptures

- Judges 2:16 – Then the Lord raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of these raiders.
- Judges 21:25 – In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as they saw fit.

Devotional: Judges: A Time of Turmoil and Moral Chaos

The book of Judges sets the stage for understanding the chaotic period Israel faced between Joshua and the establishment of monarchy. The cycle of sin, oppression, repentance, and deliverance marks most of its narrative. Different from the orderly conquest under Joshua, Judges reveals a time when faithfulness faltered and God raised leaders, or judges, to rescue His people momentarily. As we start, reflect on the repeated phrase “everyone did what was right in their own eyes.” This picture of spiritual anarchy foreshadows the event we will focus on later – the Levite and his concubine’s tragic story in chapter 19. It reveals what happens when community and moral law break down.

Let us begin by inviting God’s Spirit to open our eyes to His truth, especially when we wrestle with pain and darkness that emerge from sin’s consequences. The setting reminds us that life apart from God’s rule inevitably spirals into disorder and suffering.

Day 1:  Introduction to Judges and Its Context

Reflect and Apply

1. How does knowing the cultural chaos of Judges shape your understanding of the people's actions in chapter 19?

---

---

2. What does the phrase 'everyone did what was right in their own eyes' suggest about relying on personal judgment over God's word?

---

---

3. In what ways does spiritual anarchy show up in your community or personal life?

---

---

---

---

---

2. Journal your thoughts on what moral decline looks like around you today.

---

---

---

3. Reflect on the role of leadership and accountability in maintaining spiritual and moral order.

Day 1:  Introduction to Judges and Its Context

Prayer for Today

Lord, as we begin this study, help us to see clearly the dangers of living by our own standards instead of Your eternal truth. Guide our hearts and minds to understand the consequences of turning away from You. Restore in us a love for Your righteousness and justice. Open our eyes to the ways we might be contributing to confusion and chaos, and empower us to walk in Your ways. May Your Word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 2: ⚠ The Tragedy Begins: Hospitality Tested

Day 2: ⚠ The Tragedy Begins: Hospitality Tested

Your Verse

Judges 19:1 – In those days when there was no king in Israel, a Levite man from the mountains of Ephraim took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Supporting Scriptures

- Genesis 19:1 – The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city.
- Hebrews 13:2 – Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Devotional: Sacred Hospitality Violated in Gibeah

Hospitality in biblical times was sacred. It reflected respect, safety, and God-honoring community standards. This account opens with a Levite and his concubine journeying to Bethlehem, intent on staying one more night before returning home. However, their stay in Gibeah, a clan town of Benjamin, turns ominous.

The story draws similarities with other Old Testament narratives like Sodom, where the sanctity of hospitality collapses into violent perversion. When the men of the city demand to abuse the Levite, the host protects his guest by offering his own daughter and concubine instead, highlighting the community's depraved state and distorted value system.

This tragic deterioration of hospitality signals comprehensive moral collapse. It is a snapshot of a society far removed from God's protection and order. As we reflect today, consider how the sacredness of community and protection of the vulnerable is foundational in Scripture and what it means when these are discarded.

Reflect and Apply

1. Why was hospitality so important in ancient Israel, and what does its violation say about Gibeah's society?

---

---

2. How do we today protect the vulnerable in our own communities?

---

3. What lessons about God's design for human relationship arise from this story?

---

---

---

Day 2: ⚠ The Tragedy Begins: Hospitality Tested

Journaling Prompts

1. Reflect on your experience of hospitality — times when you've been a host or a guest. What feelings or responsibilities did those roles evoke?

---

---

2. Write about a time you witnessed or experienced the betrayal of trust or safety. How did it affect your view of community?

---

---

3. Journal prayerfully about ways you can promote safety and honor in your community.

---

---

Day 2: ⚠️ The Tragedy Begins: Hospitality Tested

Prayer for Today

Father, Your Word reveals the pain that comes when safety and hospitality break down. Help us to cherish and nurture the sacredness of welcoming others. Protect the vulnerable in our communities and guide us to act with compassion and courage. Give us hearts that reflect Your love and justice. May we never fail to defend those in need. In Jesus' name, Amen. 🙏🏠❤️

Day 3: Darkness Falls: The Levite's Concubine

Day 3: 📖 Darkness Falls: The Levite's Concubine

Your Verse

Judges 19:25 – But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her and abused her throughout the night until morning.

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 34:18 – The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
- Micah 6:8 – Act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with your God.

Devotional: Confronting Violence and Brokenness

The horror of chapter 19 reaches its depth here. The concubine is brutally abused by the men of Gibeah – a devastating act of violence that strips dignity, safety, and life. The passage reveals profound evil and the tragic effects of lawlessness when society rejects God's justice.

While this account is heartbreaking and difficult, Scripture doesn't shy away from showing human brokenness openly. It reminds us that God is profoundly grieved by sin and injustice and that darkness must be confronted.

Yet even here, hope quietly exists. God draws close to the brokenhearted (Psalms 34:18) and calls His people to seek justice, mercy, and humility (Micah 6:8). We are invited to grieve with those who suffer and to commit ourselves to walking in righteousness amidst a fallen world.

Day 3: 📖 Darkness Falls: The Levite's Concubine

Reflect and Apply

1. How do you respond emotionally and spiritually to this tragic event in Judges 19?

---

---

2. What does God's closeness to the brokenhearted mean to you in times of pain?

---

---

3. How do justice, mercy, and humility factor into responding to evil and suffering?

---

---

Day 3:  Darkness Falls: The Levite's Concubine

Journaling Prompts

1. Write a prayer or letter expressing your feelings about the pain and injustice in this story.

---

---

2. Reflect on a personal or observed experience of brokenness and how God was present.

---

---

3. Journal ways you can advocate for justice and mercy in your community.

---

---

---

Day 3: 🕯️ Darkness Falls: The Levite's Concubine

Prayer for Today

God of eternal justice, today we come before You with heavy hearts, deeply moved by the suffering that results from sin's power. Comfort the brokenhearted and give us courage to stand against injustice wherever we see it. Teach us to walk humbly and love mercy as You command. May Your Spirit heal wounded souls and bring light to dark places. We trust in Your righteousness and grace. Amen. ❤️ 🙏 🕯️

Day 4: 🛡 Seeking Justice: The Levite's Response

Day 4:  Seeking Justice: The Levite's Response

Your Verse

Judges 19:29 - When he entered his home, he took a knife and cut up his concubine's body into twelve parts and sent them throughout Israel.

Supporting Scriptures

- Romans 12:19 - Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath.
- Isaiah 1:17 - Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed.

Devotional: Responding to Sin with Godly Justice

The Levite's drastic act of dismembering his concubine's body and sending the pieces to all Israel was a shocking call to action. It served as a grim wake-up, exposing the depths of depravity and demanding national accountability. His response, while emotionally charged and steeped in grief, sparked outrage and eventually civil war.

This part of the narrative highlights the tension between human responses to sin and God's call for righteous justice. The Apostle Paul warns against personal revenge but encourages trust in God's justice (Romans 12:19), while the prophets emphatically call God's people to actively seek justice and defend the vulnerable (Isaiah 1:17).

God's people are responsible to uphold His justice, though the means and timing must align with His holiness and wisdom. This chapter encourages reflection on how we respond to sin around us — with measured, spirit-led action or reckless impulses.

Reflect and Apply

1. What are healthy and unhealthy ways of responding to injustice?

---

---

2. How do you balance grief and the call to act justly as a believer?

---

---

3. In what ways can delay or impatience affect the pursuit of God's justice?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Day 4: 🛡 Seeking Justice: The Levite's Response

Prayer for Today

Lord of justice, teach us to grieve rightly and respond with godly wisdom when faced with sin and evil. Guard our hearts against bitterness and revenge, and help us trust Your perfect timing and plan. Empower us to defend the oppressed and act courageously under Your guidance. Let Your justice roll like a river through our lives and communities. We seek Your will above all. Amen. ⚖️🙏🙏

Day 5: Moral Decline and Its Consequences

Day 5: 🌿 Moral Decline and Its Consequences

Your Verse

Judges 21:25 - In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as they saw fit.

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 14:12 - There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.
- Romans 3:23 - For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

Devotional: Choosing God's Way Over Our Own

The phrase concluding Judges powerfully summarizes the nation's struggle: “everyone did what was right in their own eyes.” This utter moral freedom, untethered from divine authority, led Israel into confusion and violence. Without a king or godly leadership, the people's actions spiraled into lawlessness.

Proverbs warns us that human reasoning, while often convincing, can lead to destruction (Proverbs 14:12). The human heart is fallen and requires God's guidance faithfully to live rightly. Paul's reminder that all have sinned (Romans 3:23) puts us on equal footing with ancient Israel in our need for God's grace and transformation.

Reflecting on this verse invites us to examine the sources of our own moral compass. Are we guided by God's Word or our personal preferences? How can we submit more fully to God's reign in our lives to avoid similar decline?

Day 5: 🌿 Moral Decline and Its Consequences

Reflect and Apply

1. What are examples in your life or culture where 'doing what is right in one's own eyes' causes harm?

---

2. How can recognizing human fallibility help us rely more on God's truth?

---

---

3. In what areas do you struggle to surrender control to God's leadership?

---

---

Day 5: 🌿 Moral Decline and Its Consequences

---

---

2. Reflect on how God has reshaped your understanding of right and wrong.

---

---

3. Pray for areas resistant to God's rule and how you can yield them to Him.

---

---

Day 5: 🌿 Moral Decline and Its Consequences

Prayer for Today

Father God, create in us clean hearts that desire to follow Your ways, not our own. Help us to recognize when pride and selfishness lead us away from Your truth. We need Your guidance daily to walk in righteousness, justice, and love. Teach us humility to submit to Your perfect rule and grace to forgive our failures. May Your Word be our eternal compass. In Jesus' name, Amen. 🌿 🙏

Day 6: 🔍 Examining the Broken Family

Day 6: 🔍 Examining the Broken Family

Your Verse

Judges 19:2 – But his concubine was unfaithful to him and ran away from him to her father's house in Bethlehem in Judah, where she stayed for four months.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 5:25 – Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her.
- Colossians 3:13 – Bear with each other and forgive one another.

Day 6: 🔍 Examining the Broken Family

Devotional: God's Design for Family and Restoration

At the heart of this tragic story is a fractured relationship. The Levite's concubine left him, sparking a chain of sorrow and violence. While the details are sparse, the pain of broken trust and unresolved conflict is evident.

God's design for family relationship centers on love, faithfulness, forgiveness, and reconciliation. Paul urges husbands to love sacrificially (Ephesians 5:25) and all believers to carry one another's burdens with grace (Colossians 3:13). This broken relationship invites us to reflect on the importance of nurturing relationships marked by trust and mercy.

While brokenness is part of human experience, God calls us to heal and restore. We can find hope that even the darkest relational wounds are not beyond His redeeming power.

Day 6: 🔍 Examining the Broken Family

- Isaiah 61:1 – The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
- Matthew 11:28 – Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

Devotional: God Near to the Brokenhearted

While Judges 19 reveals deep tragedy, the Bible consistently shows God's nearness to the brokenhearted. Psalm 34:18 reminds us that God is not distant from our pain but intimately present, offering comfort and salvation. In Isaiah, the Messiah is described as one who brings healing and liberation to the oppressed and hurting.

Jesus himself invites the weary to come to Him for peace (Matthew 11:28). These truths are vital when facing stories of profound suffering. They echo hope through grief and injustice — God's love transforms brokenness.

Whatever your brokenness today, know that God's compassionate presence surrounds and sustains you. He understands pain and offers rest for wounded souls.

Day 7: 🕊️ God's Compassion in Brokenness

Reflect and Apply

1. How have you experienced God's comfort in difficult times?

---

---

2. What does it mean to receive 'rest' from Jesus amid life's burdens?

Teach us also to be Your hands and heart to others who suffer, bringing hope and comfort. May Your Spirit fill us with strength and grace.

We trust in Your healing power today and always. Amen. 🕊️ ❤️ 🙏

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 29:2 – When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- Romans 13:1 – Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established.

Day 8:  The Need for a King

Devotional: God's Provision for Leadership

The repeated phrase in Judges, 'there was no king in Israel,' underscores the nation's spiritual chaos and need for godly leadership. When the Israelites demanded a king, Samuel was dismayed, but God authorized this change as part of His sovereign plan.

Leadership profoundly impacts the moral health of a nation. Proverbs states that righteous leadership brings joy, whereas wicked rule causes suffering. Paul teaches believers to respect governing authorities, understanding that all authority stems from God.

This tension highlights our dependence on God-ordained leaders who follow His ways and shepherd His people in righteousness. It also invites personal responsibility to submit to God's order and pray for those who lead.

Day 8:  The Need for a King

Reflect and Apply

1. What qualities do you think make a leader God would bless?

---

---

2. How do you personally relate to leadership and authority in your context?

---

---

3. What role does prayer have in supporting godly leaders?

---

---

---

Day 8:  The Need for a King

Journaling Prompts

Romans 6:23 – For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 59:2 – Your iniquities have separated you from your God; your sins have hidden his face from you.
- Hebrews 12:1 – Let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles.

Day 9: ❤️ The Cost of Sin and Rebellion

Devotional: Recognizing Sin's Grave Consequences

The story of Judges 19 illustrates the devastating consequences of sin and rebellion. Sin brings death, separation, and destruction, as Paul clearly teaches. Isaiah reminds us that sin causes distance between us and God, diminishing fellowship and protection.

However, the New Testament calls believers to reject sin's entanglement and run after holiness. The cost of sin is grave, but so is God's mercy and invitation to new life through Jesus—who pays the ultimate price so we may be restored.

Understanding sin's cost drives us to repentance, dependence on grace, and a deeper hunger for purity.

Day 9: ❤️ The Cost of Sin and Rebellion

Reflect and Apply

---

---

2. In what ways does sin create barriers in your relationship with God or others?

---

3. What steps can you take to 'throw off' sin's weight in your life?

Day 10:  Light in Darkness

Devotional: Jesus: Our Unconquerable Light

Even amidst great darkness, God's light shines unwaveringly. The opening of John's gospel assures us that the darkness of sin, violence, and despair will never extinguish the light Christ brings. In Psalm 27, God is our personal light and salvation, banishing fear.

Isaiah promises God's guidance for those lost and afraid. This truth encourages us to hold on to hope, especially when stories like Judges 19 deeply trouble our hearts.

By embracing God's light, we overcome despair and find direction. Jesus is the beacon illuminating our paths through moral confusion and pain.

God deeply desires His people to practice justice, mercy, and compassion. Zechariah's words remind Israel that true religion is shown through how we treat one another. Micah outlines this as the core of God's expectations.

James adds that mercy has the final victory over judgment, underscoring God's preference for a merciful heart that seeks restoration rather than condemnation.

In a world rife with pain and brokenness, living out justice and mercy reflects God's character and brings healing. Today we are invited to examine how these qualities manifest in our lives and how we can grow to embody them more fully.

- Philippians 2:3 – Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves.

Day 12: 🏔️ Walking Humbly with God

Devotional: Embracing Humility Before God and Others

Humility is fundamental to a life pleasing to God. Micah's summary of God's requirement includes walking humbly alongside Him. This means recognizing our dependence on God's wisdom and grace rather than our own strength or status.
