Introduction

The Sermon on the Mount stands as one of the most profound passages in Scripture, offering rich insight into what it means to live as citizens of God's kingdom. Spanning Matthew chapters 5 through 7, Jesus presents a revolutionary vision that challenges societal norms and reveals the heart of true righteousness.

In this 21-day study plan, we will unpack the core themes of this sermon—blessing, kingdom ethics, and deep inner transformation. The beatitudes open the sermon, highlighting the blessings available to those who reflect God's character. Jesus then calls his followers to a higher standard, emphasizing attitudes and motives rather than just outward conformity. Throughout, he reveals how life in God's kingdom contrasts sharply with the ways of the world.

Each day will explore a key passage or theme, helping you understand Jesus' radical message and how it applies to your life today. You will encounter teachings on humility, mercy, purity, peacemaking, forgiveness, and trust in God. As you meditate on these truths, may your heart be transformed from within—reflecting kingdom values in your daily living.

Whether you are exploring the Sermon on the Mount for the first time or seeking deeper understanding, this study invites you to rediscover the power and beauty of Jesus' words. Prepare to be challenged, encouraged, and renewed as you walk alongside Jesus and embrace kingdom living.

Your Verse

Matthew 5:1-12 NIV - "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 1:1-3 "Blessed is the one...whose delight is in the law of the Lord."
- James 1:12 "Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial..."

Devotional: Embracing the Kingdom's Radical Blessings

The Beatitudes open Jesus' Sermon on the Mount with a series of blessings that seem upside down to the world's values. Jesus declares as "blessed" those who are poor in spirit, mourn, are meek, hunger for righteousness, and more. These statements reveal the heart of God's kingdom—one where humility, dependence on God, and compassion are elevated.

Each beatitude portrays a quality or condition that draws a person into harmony with God's purposes. To be poor in spirit means to recognize our spiritual need; to mourn is to grieve over sin and brokenness; to hunger and thirst for righteousness is to passionately desire God's justice and holiness.

Jesus invites us to identify with these attitudes, assuring us that such people are genuinely blessed because they live out the values of God's kingdom and will be rewarded. These blessings are both present promises and future hope.

How does this challenge your understanding of blessing? Are there areas where you struggle to embrace poverty of spirit or meekness? Let's begin this journey by opening our hearts to the radical call of Jesus and asking the Holy Spirit to transform our desires and attitudes.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What does being "poor in spirit" look like in my own life?
2.	How do these beatitudes challenge my current values or attitudes?
3.	In what ways have I experienced blessing through humility or mourning?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when you felt truly 'blessed' despite hardship.
2.	List which of the beatitudes resonate most deeply with you and why.
	Reflect on areas where God may be calling you to greater humility or dependence.

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for revealing the heart of Your kingdom through the Beatitudes. Help me to cultivate the attitudes You bless—humility, mercy, purity, and a hunger for righteousness. Transform my heart to reflect Your values daily. May I experience Your presence and bless others through Your grace. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 2: W Called to Be Salt and Light

Your Verse

Matthew 5:13–16 NIV – "You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Philippians 2:15 "...so that you may become blameless and pure, children of God without fault..."
- Ephesians 5:8 "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord..."

Day 2: W Called to Be Salt and Light

Devotional: Living as Influential Salt and Guiding Light

In this passage, Jesus uses the metaphors of salt and light to describe the influence His followers should have in the world. Salt preserves, flavors, and purifies. Light exposes darkness and guides the way.

As believers, we are called to impact our surroundings with goodness and truth. Our conduct, character, and love shine as a testimony to God's transforming power. When we live according to Christ's teachings, we illuminate God's kingdom reality in everyday life.

However, Jesus warns about salt losing its saltiness and light being hidden. The call is clear: we must maintain our distinctiveness and actively demonstrate kingdom values. This involves intentional living, resisting worldly influences, and letting Jesus' love shine through our words and actions.

Ask yourself: How does your life as salt and light affect those around you? Are there areas where your witness feels dim or diluted?

Day 2: 😂 Called to Be Salt and Light

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do I currently act as salt or light in my home, work, or community?
2.	What can I do to prevent losing my 'saltiness' in the world?
	Where might God be asking me to shine brighter or speak truth more boldly?

Day 2: 😂 Called to Be Salt and Light

Journaling Prompts

1.	Describe a situation where your faith positively influenced someone else.
2.	Identify ways you can be more intentional in living out kingdom values daily.
3.	Write about challenges you face in standing out as a follower of Christ.

Day 2: W Called to Be Salt and Light

Prayer for Today

Father God, thank You for calling me to be salt and light in this world. Empower me to live distinctively and to shine Your truth brightly so others may see Your goodness. Your Verse

Matthew 5:17–20 NIV – "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets… unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven."

Supporting Scriptures

- Romans 3:22 "...righteousness that is by faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe."
- Psalm 119:1 "Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to the law of the Lord."

Devotional: Inner Transformation Over External Compliance

Jesus clarifies that He has not come to abolish the Law but to fulfill it. The external adherence to law alone is insufficient; what God desires is a righteousness of the heart—a transformation from within.

The Pharisees and teachers of the law were known for meticulous law-keeping, yet Jesus challenges His followers to surpass their righteousness. This surpassing righteousness points to internal motivations motivated by love, grace, and truth.

Jesus reveals that true kingdom living goes deeper than rules—it's about inner holiness and integrity. This transformation is only possible through God's Spirit working in us.

Reflect on how your faith engages with God's law—not as a set of obligations—but as a guide that shapes your heart and character.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Do I focus more on external rules or internal heart transformation?
2.	How does Jesus' fulfillment of the Law impact my relationship with God?
	Where might I need God's Spirit to grow deeper righteousness within me?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Reflect on a time when your heart's attitude aligned with God's law.

Day 4: Anger and Reconciliation

Your Verse

Matthew 5:21–26 NIV – "But I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 4:26 "In your anger do not sin: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry."
- Colossians 3:13 "Bear with each other and forgive one another..."

Day 4: Manager and Reconciliation

Devotional: Pursuing Peace Through Forgiveness and Reconciliation

Jesus addresses the heart behind the commandment "Do not murder," extending it to the attitudes of anger, insult, and bitterness. While anger itself is not sinful, He warns about the destructive potential of unchecked anger.

The emphasis is on resolving conflict and pursuing reconciliation quickly. Jesus encourages believers to be proactive in restoring relationships rather than letting grievances fester.

His teaching highlights that kingdom righteousness is relational. Our standing before God is intimately connected to how we treat others. Holding onto anger can block God's grace and disrupt community.

Ask yourself: Are there unresolved conflicts or bottled-up anger in your heart? What steps might God be inviting you to take towards forgiveness and healing?

Day 4: 🧖 Anger and Reconciliation

Reflect and Apply

1.	How do I typically handle anger? Does it lead toward healing or harm?

Day 5: 💬 Truth in Speech and Oaths

Your Verse

Matthew 5:33–37 NIV – "All you need to say is simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one."

Supporting Scriptures

- James 5:12 "Above all, my brothers and sisters, do not swear—not by heaven or by earth or by anything else."
- Proverbs 12:22 "The Lord detests lying lips..."

Day 5: Truth in Speech and Oaths

Devotional: Walking in Truth Through Honest Speech

Jesus calls His followers to integrity in their speech, highlighting the importance of honesty and straightforwardness. He condemns the use of oaths to bolster credibility, pointing instead to the simple yet profound need to let your "yes" be yes, and your "no" be no.

Our words carry power and reflect our character. Kingdom living demands truthfulness rooted in a heart aligned with God. This teaching challenges the subtle ways we might manipulate or shade the truth to serve our interests.

By embracing truthful speech, we become trustworthy and reflect God's nature as the God of truth.

Consider how your words align with your character and how you can grow in honesty and transparency.

Day 5: 💬 Truth in Speech and Oaths

Reflect and Apply

1.	Are my words honest and reliable in everyday situations?

Day 6: Da

Day 6: Day 6: Day 6:

Your Verse

Matthew 5:43-48 NIV - "Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 6:27 "But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you."
- Romans 12:20 "If your enemy is hungry, feed him..."

Devotional: Extending Radical Love to All, Even Enemies

Jesus pushes kingdom ethics beyond conventional boundaries when He commands us to love our enemies and pray for those who persecute us. This radical love reflects God's perfect character, who causes the sun to rise on the evil and the good alike.

Such love breaks the cycle of hatred and retaliation. It opens the door to reconciliation, healing, and displays the transformative power of the gospel.

Though difficult, loving enemies is an invitation to participate in God's work of redemption. It requires humility, courage, and a heart empowered by grace.

Where do you find it hardest to love? Are there "enemies" in your life whom Jesus is calling you to love and pray for today?

What might loving my enemies look like practically in my life?

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 9:7 "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give..."
- Proverbs 19:17 "Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord..."

Devotional: Practicing Anonymous Generosity

Jesus warns against practicing righteousness for the sake of public admiration—especially in acts of giving. True generosity flows from a sincere heart seeking to please God, not people.

When we give in secret, our reward comes from God Himself. This teaches us not only humility but also trust that God sees and values our faithfulness far more than public acknowledgment.

Generosity in the kingdom is both a reflection of God's heart and a practical expression of love toward others. It is a call to authentic faith lived out in daily life.

Consider your motivations in giving or serving—are they rooted in love and trust in God or in desire for recognition?

Reflect and Apply

1.	Why might it be hard to give without recognition?
2.	How does God's approval change the way I serve others?
3.	Where can I practice more humility in my acts of kindness?

Supporting Scriptures

- Luke 11:2-4 "Lord, teach us to pray..."
- 1 Thessalonians 5:17 "Pray without ceasing."

Devotional: Cultivating a Heart of Genuine Prayer

Jesus contrasts genuine prayer with empty public displays meant to impress others. He emphasizes intimacy with God in secret and provides a model prayer—the Lord's Prayer—that points us toward God's holiness, kingdom, provision, forgiveness, and protection.

Prayer in the kingdom is relational and humble, focusing on dependence upon God rather than self-promotion. It aligns our hearts with God's will and opens us to His presence and power.

Learning to pray authentically is key to living in God's kingdom because it nurtures our connection to the Father and guides our daily steps.

Reflect on your prayer life—do you pray to be seen or sincerely connect with God?

Reflect and Apply

1.	How can I deepen my private prayer life?

Trusting God means letting go of control and embracing His faithful provision. Jesus points out that God cares for the birds of the air and the lilies of the field, so we can trust Him even more.

This teaching encourages us to live one day at a time, confident that God's grace is sufficient.

Consider where worry has taken hold and how you can practically seek God's kingdom more fully.

Jesus warns against harsh, hypocritical judgment of others, reminding us that the measure we use will be used against us. This passage calls for humility and self-reflection before addressing others' faults.

We are not called to be judgmental but discerning and compassionate. Jesus also advises prudence in what is shared with those unreceptive to the gospel, symbolized by not giving what is holy to dogs or pearls to pigs.

Day 12:
The Tree and Its Fruit

Devotional: Living Fruitful Lives Rooted in Christ

Jesus warns about false prophets and teaches that true character is revealed by the "fruit" one produces. This metaphor emphasizes that outward claims or appearances are less important than the evidence of transformed life.

Fruit refers to qualities like love, kindness, faithfulness, and holiness—visible evidence of God's work within. As we abide in Christ, He cultivates this fruit in us.

This teaching challenges us to reflect deeply on our own lives and the leaders we follow, encouraging discernment and authenticity.
