Introduction

Welcome to this 3-day Bible study on The Reward of God's Righteousness, focusing on the powerful truths found in Psalm 112. This Psalm beautifully describes the blessings that come to those who fear the Lord and delight in His commands. It encourages believers to pursue a righteous life by revealing the profound spiritual and practical rewards God bestows upon His followers.

In today's world, where uncertainty and challenges surround us, the promise of God's righteousness is a firm anchor. Psalm 112 shows that righteousness is not just about legalistic obedience but is a heart posture that reflects faith, generosity, and steadfast trust in God. The person who walks in this path is described as blessed — their descendants will be mighty, their hearts will be secure, and they will leave a lasting legacy of goodness.

Through this study plan, you will: reflect on the characteristics of a righteous life, understand the divine rewards connected with it, and be inspired to live with integrity and generosity. Each day will include scripture readings, devotional insights, reflective questions, journaling prompts, and a heartfelt prayer to deepen your experience with God's word.

Be encouraged as you step into this journey; God's word is alive and active, promising blessings to those who seek to live uprightly. May this study help you grow in faith, hope, and love, while you receive the true reward of God's righteousness in your life. 🙏 ✨

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Your Verse

Psalm 112:1 NIV - "Praise the Lord. Blessed are those who fear the Lord, who find great delight in his commands."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 1:7 - 'The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and instruction.'
- Psalm 128:1 - 'Blessed are all who fear the Lord, who walk in obedience to him.'

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Devotional: The Power of Reverent Fear of God

Fear of the Lord is a foundational concept in Scripture. It is not about being afraid in a negative sense, but about holding a proper reverence and awe for God. Psalm 112:1 sets the stage by declaring how blessed those are who fear the Lord and delight in His commands. This kind of fear leads to a life rooted in obedience and love, establishing a right relationship with God.

When we fear the Lord, our hearts are rightly aligned with His will. It means that we respect His authority, entrust ourselves to His guidance, and seek to live according to His word. This reverence opens the door for great delight in His commands. We no longer see God's laws as restrictions but as pathways to abundant life.

How would your life change if you delighted more fully in God's commands? As Proverbs 1:7 reminds us, the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge. Wisdom is not merely intellectual but a practical understanding that transforms our actions and perspectives. Psalm 128:1 reassures us that those who walk in obedience are blessed. Consider today how a sincere fear and respect for God can cultivate blessing in your life.

Trusting God with reverence opens His richest blessings in both spirit and life.

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Reflect and Apply

1. What does 'fear of the Lord' mean to you personally, and how does it affect your daily decisions?

2. In what ways can delighting in God's commands bring joy rather than burden?

3. How do you respond when challenged to obey God's word in difficult circumstances?

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time when respecting God's authority brought peace or clarity to your life.

2. List specific commands of God you find challenging and how you might delight in them more.

3. Reflect on what it looks like for you to cultivate a heart that truly fears the Lord.

Day 1: ✨ Blessed Are Those Who Fear the Lord

Prayer for Today

Father, thank You for teaching me the beauty of fearing You—not as a fear that overwhelms, but as a reverence that leads to wisdom and blessing. Help me delight in Your commands each day, seeing them as a guide for life and a source of joy. Strengthen my heart to trust and obey even when it's difficult. May Your peace rule my mind and Your protection surround me. Draw me closer to You, so I may experience the fullness of Your blessing. In Jesus' name, Amen. 🙏📖✨

Day 2: 💖 A Generous and Compassionate Heart

Day 2: ❤️ A Generous and Compassionate Heart

Your Verse

Psalm 112:5 NIV - "Good will come to those who are generous and lend freely, who conduct their affairs with justice."

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 11:25 - 'A generous person will prosper; whoever refreshes others will be refreshed.'
- Luke 6:38 - 'Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap.'

Devotional: Living God's Righteousness Through Generosity

Psalm 112:5

Generosity reflects God's own character. He gives abundantly and calls us to mirror that generosity. It is a powerful testimony of faith when believers conduct their affairs with fairness and open-handedness. Remember, this generosity is not limited to finances but also includes time, encouragement, and kindness.

How does your generosity or lack of it reflect your trust in God's provision? Proverbs 11:25 reminds us that those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed. Through giving, we echo God's grace and experience His blessings. Jesus, in Luke 6:38, further promises overflowing blessings to those who give freely.

In living justly and generously, we embody the righteousness of God, receiving His good will and favor.

Day 2: ❤️ A Generous and Compassionate Heart

Reflect and Apply

1. How does generosity reflect trust in God in your life?

2. In what ways can you practice fairness and justice in your daily interactions?

3. What challenges do you face in living a generous and just life?

Day 2: ❤️ A Generous and Compassionate Heart

Journaling Prompts

1. Describe a recent experience where generosity changed an outcome for you or someone else.

2. Write out practical steps you can take this week to be more generous and just.

3. Reflect on how living generously brings you closer to understanding God's character.

Day 2: ❤️ A Generous and Compassionate Heart

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for calling me to live with a generous and just heart. Teach me to give freely and to treat others with fairness as a reflection of Your righteousness. Help me overcome fears that hold me back from trusting Your provision. Let generosity flow from my life not out of obligation but from love. May my actions bring honor to Your name and be a beacon of Your grace. In Jesus' name, Amen. ❤️ 🙌 ⚖️

Day 3: Stability and Eternal Legacy

Your Verse

Psalms 112:6-8 NIV – "Surely the righteous will never be shaken; they will be remembered forever. They will have no fear of bad news; their hearts are steadfast, trusting in the Lord. Their hearts are secure, they will have no fear..."

Supporting Scriptures

- Isaiah 26:3 – 'You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you.'
- 2 Timothy 4:7-8 – 'I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness...'

Devotional: Steadfast Trust Builds Eternal Security

The final verses of Psalm 112 portray a life anchored in God's righteousness as stable and unshakable. The righteous person is not immune to difficulties or bad news but possesses a steadfast heart that trusts in the Lord. This deep trust results in peace amid turmoil and security despite uncertainty.

Psalm 112 teaches that those who live righteously enjoy lasting remembrance and leave a legacy that honors God. This eternal perspective transforms how we approach daily trials because our hope is fixed on God, who sustains us and ultimately rewards faithfulness.

How does trusting God help you face fear and uncertainty? Isaiah 26:3 assures us of perfect peace when our minds are focused on God. Meanwhile, Paul's words in 2 Timothy remind us that a faithful life leads to a glorious reward beyond this life—a crown of righteousness.

As you walk in God's righteousness, remember that your life is secure in Him, and your legacy will echo into eternity.

Reflect and Apply

1. What fears or anxieties are you currently carrying, and how can trusting God bring peace?

2. How does the promise of an eternal legacy influence the way you live today?

3. In what areas does your faith need to grow to become more steadfast like the righteous in Psalm 112?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a situation where trusting God helped you remain unshaken.

2. Describe what an eternal legacy means to you and how you want to cultivate it.

3. Reflect on ways to deepen your trust in God during difficult seasons.

Day 3:  Stability and Eternal Legacy

Prayer for Today

Gracious God, thank You that You are my firm foundation in every storm. Help me to keep my heart steady and to trust You fully, even when bad news comes. Fill me with Your peace that surpasses all understanding and remind me that my life and legacy are secure in You. Strengthen my faith so I may finish the race well, holding fast to Your promises. May I honor You in all I do, today and forever. In Jesus' strong and loving name, Amen.
