Introduction

The doctrine of the Trinity is one of the most profound and essential teachings in Christianity. It proclaims that God is one Being in three distinct Persons: the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit. This mystery invites us to understand God's nature beyond human comprehension yet grounded firmly in Scripture.

The Trinity reveals God's unity and diversity. Each Person of the Godhead shares the same divine essence, co-existing in perfect love and harmony. The Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God—yet there is only one God. This truth distinguishes Christian faith from other religions and enriches our relationship with God.

As we engage with the Bible in this study, we will see how the Scriptures present the Trinity practically and relationally. We will explore how the Father plans, the Son redeems, and the Spirit empowers believers. Our goal is not to solve the divine mystery fully but to appreciate the unity and distinct roles within the Godhead that guide our understanding of God and improve our spiritual lives.

Throughout these three days, let this study deepen your awe for God's complexity and His perfect love. The Trinity is not just a theological concept but a living reality inviting us into communion with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Your Verse

Matthew 28:19 – "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Corinthians 13:14 "May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all."
- Deuteronomy 6:4 "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one."

Devotional: The Unity and Distinction of the Trinity

Today, we begin by affirming the foundational truth of the Trinity. Scripture calls us to baptize in the name—not names—of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This singular 'name' reflects the unity between the three Persons while recognizing their distinctiveness.

This unity does not contradict the verse in Deuteronomy proclaiming the Lord is one God; rather, it enriches it. God is one in essence but revealed in three Persons loving and working harmoniously. The Apostle Paul's blessing in 2 Corinthians shows us the relational and grace-filled nature of the Trinity.

Why does the Bible reveal God like this? Because God's nature is relational and loving. The Father initiates, the Son redeems, and the Holy Spirit sustains. This relational dynamic within God offers us a model for community and love.

As you reflect today, ask God to help you grasp this profound unity and prepare your heart to explore the Trinity's role in your life.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Why is it important that the Bible calls God both one and three?
2.	How does understanding the Trinity change your view of God's nature?
3.	In what ways can the Trinity model shape your relationships with others?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about what surprises or challenges you as you think of God as three Persons in one God.
2.	Record any questions you have about the Trinity to explore further or ask someone wise.
	Reflect on how the relational nature of the Trinity might influence your prayer life.

Prayer for Today

Lord God, thank You for revealing Yourself as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Help me to grasp this incredible mystery of one God in three Persons. Open my heart and mind to experience Your unity and love more deeply. Teach me how to live out the grace and fellowship You demonstrate within Yourself. Guide me as I seek to honor You in every part of my life. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 2: 1 Jesus Christ: The Son Revealed

Your Verse

John 1:14 – "The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth."

Supporting Scriptures

- Colossians 2:9 "For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form."
- Hebrews 1:3 "The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being."

Day 2: 1 Jesus Christ: The Son Revealed

Devotional: Jesus: God's Perfect Revelation to Us

Today's focus is on the Son, Jesus Christ, who reveals God's nature through His earthly life and work. The Gospel of John tells us the Word became flesh, showing us that Jesus is fully God and fully human. This dual nature is vital because it enables Jesus to bridge the gap between God and humanity.

Paul's letter to the Colossians emphasizes that the fullness of God dwells in Christ bodily. In Hebrews, the Son is described as the exact representation of God's being—who perfectly reveals the Father's glory and character.

Why is this essential? Because through Jesus, we learn how God loves, sacrifices, and saves. The Son's obedience and humility display the Father's heart and open the door for us to be reconciled to God.

Reflect on Jesus' life and teachings as the Son of God, and consider how His example calls you to a deeper faith and trust in the Trinity.

Day 2: The Son Revealed

Reflect and Apply

	How do Jesus' dual nature as God and man help you relate to Him personally?
2.	What does Jesus' obedience and sacrifice teach you about God's love?
	How might knowing Jesus as God's exact representation affect your faith journey?

Day 2: The Son Revealed

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when Jesus' example challenged or inspired you.
2.	Reflect on what it means for you that Christ fully embodies God's nature.
3.	Describe what trusting Jesus as God's Son looks like in your daily life.

Day 2: 1 Jesus Christ: The Son Revealed

Prayer for Today

Lord Jesus, thank You for becoming flesh and revealing the Father's glory and love. Help me understand the depth of Your sacrifice and the fullness of God living in You. Teach me to follow Your example of humility and obedience, and draw me closer to the heart of the Trinity. May my faith in You grow daily as I experience Your grace and truth. Amen.

Your Verse

John 14:26 - "But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

Supporting Scriptures

- Acts 1:8 "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses."
- Romans 8:11 "And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies because of his Spirit who lives in you."

Devotional: The Holy Spirit Empowers and Guides Believers

The final Person of the Trinity we explore today is the Holy Spirit. Jesus promised that after His ascension, the Father would send the Holy Spirit to be our Advocate, Teacher, and Guide. This divine presence dwells within believers, empowering and refreshing us daily.

The Spirit teaches us, reminds us of Jesus' words, and equips us for witness and service. In Acts, we see how the Spirit transformed fearful disciples into bold proclaimers of the gospel with power beyond human ability.

Furthermore, Romans assures believers that the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead lives within us, bringing life and hope even in our weaknesses.

Understanding the Holy Spirit's role deepens our connection to God's ongoing work in the world and in our hearts. Take time today to invite the Spirit to fill you anew, guide your steps, and empower your witness.

Reflect and Apply

	How have you experienced the Holy Spirit's guidance or power in your life?
2.	What does it mean to have God's Spirit living within you?
	In what ways can you become more open to the Spirit's teaching and empowerment?

Journaling Prompts

	Write about a moment when you sensed the Holy Spirit's presence or help.
2.	Reflect on areas in your life where you want the Spirit to lead or empower you.
3.	Journal prayers asking the Spirit to teach and guide you daily.

Prayer for Today

Holy Spirit, thank You for living within me and guiding me in truth and power. Teach me, remind me of Jesus' words, and fill me afresh with Your presence. Help me to live boldly for God's kingdom and to rely on Your strength, not my own. May Your life–giving power transform me daily and glorify the Father and the Son through my life. Amen. \bigcirc
