Introduction

Welcome to this 7-day journey exploring wisdom for handling wealth and possessions. In a world where financial success and material gain often dictate our choices, aligning our attitudes and actions with God's wisdom is more vital than ever.

Wealth and possessions can be blessings from God, yet they also carry the potential to distract, mislead, or even harm if not stewarded well. The Bible offers timeless principles that guide us not only to manage resources wisely but to view them as tools for generosity, service, and Kingdom impact.

Throughout this study, we'll dive into Scripture that unveils God's heart on money, possessions, and how to handle them responsibly. You will be encouraged to reflect on your personal financial stewardship while embracing an attitude of gratefulness and trust in God's provision.

Each day includes a primary scripture, supportive verses, and a carefully crafted devotional designed to challenge and inspire. There are also reflection questions and journaling prompts to help you internalize the lessons and apply them in practical ways.

Prepare your heart to learn how true wisdom transcends mere numbers and possessions, shifting your perspective to God's generous and eternal economy. May you experience peace and clarity as you align your finances with His wisdom and grace 🙏 ✨.

Devotional: Seek God's Wisdom Above All Riches

Starting with Wisdom is essential before navigating wealth. Solomon reminds us that wisdom's value surpasses silver and gold. This teaches us that true financial success begins not with counting money, but with seeking God's perspective.

When we ask God for wisdom, we position ourselves to steward well what He entrusts to us. God's wisdom protects and preserves us from poor decisions and greed. It shapes our character to handle wealth with integrity and with a heart aligned to His purposes.

Before making any financial plan or purchase, center on God's wisdom. Let it guide your attitudes, decisions, and priorities. Remember, wealth is a tool, not the goal.

Today, ask God openly for understanding and the right heart toward His blessings. Be ready to see things from His eternal viewpoint—the true source of lasting prosperity.
