Introduction

Welcome to this 21-day Bible study on Wisdom in Evangelism. Evangelism is a calling to share the life-transforming message of Jesus Christ with others. Yet, it requires more than just passion — it requires wisdom. Wisdom empowers us to share our faith with clarity, humility, love, and discernment. This study guides you through Scripture and devotionals to help you grow both in understanding God's Word and applying it when engaging others.

Throughout these 21 days, we will explore biblical wisdom principles that reveal how to communicate the gospel effectively and lovingly. Wisdom enables us to navigate challenging conversations, display the character of Christ, and recognize the needs of those around us. Often, evangelism can feel intimidating or discouraging; however, God's wisdom provides the confidence and guidance we need.

This plan invites you to reflect deeply on God's word, examine your heart and motives, and pray for the Spirit's help in becoming a clearer and more compassionate witness. Whether you are new to evangelism or a seasoned witness desiring renewed insight, these chapters and devotionals will inspire and equip you.

Each day features foundational scriptures, supporting verses, intimate devotionals, reflective questions, journaling prompts, and a prayer to anchor your time with God. Dive in with an open heart, ready to be molded by His truth and led by His Spirit.

As you embark on this journey, remember that true wisdom comes from God. "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom" (Psalm 111:10). Let's seek His wisdom together to share our faith with love and clarity, making disciples for His glory.

Your Verse

James 1:5 - If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 2:6 For the LORD gives wisdom; from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.
- Colossians 1:9 We continually ask God to fill you with the knowledge of his will through all the wisdom and understanding that the Spirit gives.

Devotional: Begin Evangelism by Asking God for Wisdom

Wisdom begins when we ask God. James encourages believers to seek wisdom directly from the generous Father. As you prepare to share your faith, recognize that effective evangelism starts not with your own cleverness but with God's guidance. Asking for wisdom daily ensures you rely on the Holy Spirit to lead conversations that bring truth and grace.

God's wisdom is not simply intellectual knowledge; it is practical, relational, and deeply rooted in understanding His heart and purposes. Proverbs reminds us that wisdom comes from the LORD and is tied to knowledge and understanding. When you ask God for wisdom, He equips you to speak boldly yet lovingly.

Pray with expectancy today, knowing God delights in giving wisdom freely. Allow Him to prepare your heart and open doors to share the gospel clearly and effectively.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How often do I ask God for wisdom before evangelistic conversations?
	In what ways have I relied on my own understanding instead of God's guidance?
3.	How can I cultivate a habit of seeking God's wisdom daily?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when God's wisdom helped you share your faith.
	Identify areas where you need wisdom in your current evangelism efforts.
3.]	List practical ways to start asking God for wisdom every day.

Prayer for Today

Dear Heavenly Father, I come before You humbled, recognizing my need for Your wisdom every day. As I desire to share Your love and truth, please fill me with Your Spirit's guidance. Help me to speak with clarity and compassion, reflecting Your heart to those around me. I ask for boldness wrapped in gentleness, wisdom to know when to speak and when to listen, and for opportunities to share the gospel. Thank You for giving wisdom generously and without reproach. May my words always glorify You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Your Verse

Colossians 4:6 - Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 4:29 Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up.
- Proverbs 16:24 Gracious words are a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

Devotional: Use Grace-Filled Words for Clear Communication

Communication is vital in evangelism. Paul instructs believers to ensure their conversations are gracious and "seasoned with salt," meaning they should be thoughtful, impactful, and wise. Being clear and loving in speech invites others to listen and consider the gospel message.

Speaking with clarity means avoiding jargon or religious clichés that might confuse or alienate. Instead, we use simple, relatable language directly from Scripture, while ensuring our tone reflects Christ's love. We must also know how to answer questions and objections thoughtfully.

Grace-filled conversations build bridges rather than walls. Ephesians reminds us to speak only words that encourage and uplift, which opens hearts to receive God's truth. Today, ask God to teach you how to communicate His message clearly and with kindness.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Are my conversations welcoming and gracious when sharing faith?
2.	How do I balance truth and love to communicate effectively?
3.	What might I need to change to make my message clearer?

Journaling Prompts

	Recall a time when a clear explanation helped someone understand the gospel.
2.	Write out a simple explanation of the gospel you can use with others.
3.	Reflect on how your tone affects the reception of your message.

Prayer for Today

Lord, empower me to speak with grace and clarity. Help me to convey Your truth in ways that touch hearts and open minds. Teach me to listen carefully and respond wisely, season my words with Your love, and always seek to build others up. Guide my speech so it reflects Your kindness and wisdom. May my conversations point others to You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 13:1 - If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

Supporting Scriptures

- John 13:34 A new command I give you: Love one another as I have loved you.
- 1 Peter 3:15 Always be prepared to give an answer, but do so with gentleness and respect.

Devotional: Let Love Be the Heart of Your Witness

Love is central to evangelism. Paul emphasizes that without love, even the most eloquent words are meaningless noise. Love must be the foundation of every interaction when sharing our faith.

Jesus commanded us to love one another as He loved us, sacrificially and unconditionally. This love shines brightest in evangelism because it reflects the true character of God. When we genuinely care for others, our message is not pushy or manipulative but heartfelt and inviting.

Peter highlights the importance of gentleness and respect when giving an answer about our hope in Christ. Love tempers enthusiasm with patience and compassion. Today, examine your motives and ask God to fill your heart with His love before you share the gospel.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Do I approach evangelism with love or obligation?
2.	How can I better demonstrate Christ's love when sharing my faith?
3.	In what ways can gentleness and respect impact my conversations?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time love changed the outcome of an evangelism effort.
2.	List practical ways to show Christlike love in your community.
3.	Reflect on how love motivates and sustains your evangelism.

Prayer for Today

Jesus, fill my heart with Your love that transcends fear and pride. Help me to share Your message with genuine compassion and kindness. Teach me to speak gently and respect those I engage with, seeing them through Your eyes. May my witness always reflect Your love that heals and restores. Thank You for loving me first and empowering me to love others. Amen.

Your Verse

Proverbs 18:13 - To answer before listening—that is folly and shame.

Supporting Scriptures

- James 1:19 Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.
- 1 Samuel 3:9 Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

Devotional: Listen First to Share with Wisdom

Effective evangelism involves listening first. Proverbs warns of the folly in answering before hearing fully. When we hear others' questions, doubts, and struggles, we gain insight needed to share the gospel in ways that truly resonate.

James encourages us to be quick to listen and slow to speak and anger, creating space for authentic dialogue and understanding. Listening demonstrates respect and opens doors for meaningful connection.

As the boy Samuel prayed for God to speak, we too can practice listening prayerfully—both to God and others.

Today, practice quieting your heart to hear both God's guidance and the needs of people around you. Ask the Lord to help you discern the right words to share.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Do I listen actively and patiently before sharing my faith?
	What can I learn by paying closer attention to others' stories and struggles?
	How does discernment shape my responses in evangelistic conversations?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time listening changed the impact of your witness.
2	Record what God might be teaching you to hear better today.
۷,
3.	List practical ways to improve your listening during outreach.

Prayer for Today

Father, teach me the art of listening well. Help me to slow down and understand those I seek to reach. Open my ears, my heart, and my mind to the needs around me. Provide discernment to know how best to respond with Your truth and love. May my listening honor You and bless others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Your Verse

Acts 1:8 - But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses.

Supporting Scriptures

- John 16:13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth.
- Romans 8:14 Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God.

Devotional: Depend on the Holy Spirit's Power and Wisdom

Our power and wisdom in evangelism come from the Holy Spirit. Before His ascension, Jesus promised the Spirit would empower believers to be witnesses. This power is not merely strength but divine wisdom, courage, and sensitivity.

Jesus also promised the Spirit would guide us into all truth, helping us discern what to say and when to say it. We are called to be led by the Spirit, dependent on Him rather than our own abilities.

Evangelism fueled by the Spirit transcends human limitations, enabling us to touch hearts and overcome opposition. Today, surrender your evangelistic efforts to the Spirit. Invite Him to direct every word and action as you share your faith.

Reflect and Apply

	How often do I pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance before sharing my faith?
2.	What does it look like to be led by the Spirit during evangelism?
3.	Where have I seen the Spirit work in my witness previously?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Describe moments when the Holy Spirit empowered your witness.
2.	Write a personal prayer inviting the Spirit to guide your evangelism.
3.	List ways you can remain sensitive and obedient to the Spirit today.

Prayer for Today

Holy Spirit, I need Your power and wisdom to be an effective witness. Fill me, guide me, and lead me in all truth. Help me depend fully on Your direction and trust Your timing. Use me to share Jesus' love with boldness and grace. May Your presence be evident in all I do. In Christ's name, Amen.

Your Verse

1 Corinthians 9:22 – I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some.

Supporting Scriptures

- Colossians 4:5 Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.
- Matthew 9:36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them.

Devotional: Adapt Your Witness to Connect with Others

Paul's strategy in evangelism involved understanding those he sought to reach. Becoming "all things to all people" doesn't mean compromising the gospel but rather communicating in ways others can relate to and understand.

Wisdom in evangelism includes recognizing cultural, personal, and spiritual backgrounds, then tailoring our witness to meet people where they are.

Jesus' compassion for the crowds motivated Him to meet their deepest needs. Likewise, knowing our audience helps us engage with empathy and purpose.

Today, pray for insight into the people God has placed around you. Ask for wisdom on how best to share the gospel contextually and lovingly.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Who are the people God is calling me to reach?
2.	How can I better understand their perspectives and needs?
3.	In what ways can I adjust my approach without diluting the gospel?

Journaling Prompts

	Describe an encounter where knowing your audience helped or could have helped.
2.	List characteristics of the people you want to evangelize to.
3.	Brainstorm communication methods relevant to your community.

Prayer for Today

Lord, open my eyes to the people around me. Help me understand their unique stories and needs. Teach me to adapt my words with wisdom and love, so the gospel resonates with their hearts. Give me compassion like Jesus and sensitivity to cultural differences. May my witness draw others closer to You. Thank You for this privilege. Amen.

Your Verse

Ephesians 6:18 - And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests.

Supporting Scriptures

- Philippians 4:6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, present your requests to God.
- Romans 8:26 The Spirit helps us in our weakness and intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express.

Devotional: Commit Evangelism to Prayer and the Spirit's Help

Prayer is essential for wise evangelism. Paul instructs believers to pray in the Spirit continually, which connects us intimately with God's guidance and power.

Prayer combats anxiety and dependence on self, reminding us that the work of evangelism ultimately rests in God's hands. The Spirit intercedes for us when we lack the words or confidence.

Before, during, and after sharing your faith, commit your efforts to prayer. Ask God to prepare hearts, give wisdom, and use you as His instrument.

Today, spend extra time in prayer asking for insight and boldness to share with clarity and love.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How consistent am I in praying for opportunities to share the gospel?
2.	Do I rely on the Spirit's intercession when I feel inadequate?
3.	What difference does prayer make in my evangelism efforts?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write a prayer dedicating your evangelism efforts to God's will.
2.	List specific people or situations God is leading you to pray for.
3.	Reflect on how prayer has changed your heart or witness.

Prayer for Today

Father, I commit my evangelism efforts to You. Teach me to pray continually and depend on Your Spirit's intercession. Calm my fears and fill me with wisdom and boldness. Use my words and actions for Your glory, softening hearts and opening doors. Thank You for hearing and answering prayers. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 8: Balancing Boldness and Humility

Day 8: Palancing Boldness and Humility

Your Verse

Proverbs 3:5-6 - Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

Supporting Scriptures

- Acts 4:29 Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness.
- Philippians 2:3 Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves.

Day 8: Palancing Boldness and Humility

Devotional: Trust God; Be Bold Yet Humble in Sharing

True wisdom in evangelism balances boldness and humility. Trusting God wholeheartedly frees us from reliance on our limited understanding. This trust empowers boldness—courage to speak the gospel despite opposition or fear.

The early church prayed for boldness while valuing humility, remembering to esteem others above themselves. Humility keeps pride in check and makes our witness attractive and genuine.

Today, ask God to teach you how to courageously share your faith without arrogance. Balance your confidence with a humble spirit that honors others and glorifies God.

Day 8: 👰 Balancing Boldness and Humility

Reflect and Apply

1.	In what ways do I struggle with either fear or pride in evangelism?
2.	How can I grow more bold while maintaining humility?
3.	What does it mean to submit every step to God's leading?

Day 8: 👰 Balancing Boldness and Humility

Journaling Prompts

Day 8: Palancing Boldness and Humility

Prayer for Today

Lord, help me to fully trust You in every conversation. Give me boldness to speak Your truth and humility to value others above myself. Keep pride and fear from contaminating my witness. May my confidence come from Your strength alone. Lead me in paths that bring glory to Your name. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 9: Grounding in Scripture

Day 9: C Grounding in Scripture

Your Verse

2 Timothy 3:16 - All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness.

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is alive and active, sharper than any double-edged sword.
- Psalm 119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

Day 9: Grounding in Scripture

Devotional: Let Scripture Guide and Strengthen Your Witness

Wisdom in evangelism depends on solid grounding in Scripture. Paul reminds Timothy of the authority and usefulness of the Bible for guiding our words and actions.

The word of God actively pierces hearts with truth and conviction—powerful tools in evangelism. Being familiar with Scripture equips you to answer questions and share the gospel faithfully.

Psalm 119 compares God's word to a lamp, illuminating your path as you navigate conversations. Invest time in studying God's word so you can quote and explain it confidently, demonstrating that your faith is rooted in God's truth.

Day 9: Grounding in Scripture

Reflect and Apply

	How deeply am I familiar with the gospel story and Scripture supporting it?
2.	What Scripture verses do I rely on most when sharing my faith?
3.	How can I better prepare myself through Bible study for evangelism?

Day 9: Grounding in Scripture

Journaling Prompts

1.	Record key scriptures that explain the gospel clearly.
2.	Write about how a Bible verse has encouraged you in sharing faith.
3.	Plan daily time for Bible study focused on evangelism passages.

Day 9: C Grounding in Scripture

Prayer for Today

Father, help me to know Your Word intimately and apply it wisely. May Scripture be the foundation of all I speak when sharing the gospel. Give me understanding and recall to communicate effectively, pointing others to You. Thank You for the living, active Word that transforms hearts. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 10: Find Handling Objections with Grace

Day 10: P Handling Objections with Grace

Your Verse

1 Peter 3:15 - Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect.

Supporting Scriptures

- Jude 1:22 Be merciful to those who doubt.
- Proverbs 15:1 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

Day 10: E Handling Objections with Grace

Devotional: Respond to Questions with Gentleness and Respect

In evangelism, objections are inevitable. Peter reminds us to be ready to explain our hope but to do so with gentleness and respect, maintaining a loving attitude.

Some may doubt or challenge your faith. Jude exhorts showing mercy toward doubters rather than frustration or condemnation. Proverbs highlights that gentle answers soothe conflict, opening the door for further dialogue.

Responding with grace disarms hostility and reflects Christ's patience. Preparing yourself to answer questions thoughtfully and kindly is a wise investment that honors God and respects seekers.

Day 10: 💬 Handling Objections with Grace

Reflect and Apply

How do I typically respond to objections or doubts about faith?
Am I able to maintain patience and kindness under pressure?
What areas of the gospel do I need to study to answer better?

Day 10: 💬 Handling Objections with Grace

Journaling Prompts

1.	Think of a time you handled a tough question with grace; describe it.
2.	List common objections you face and Scripture-based responses.
3.	Reflect on how showing mercy impacts your witness.

Day 10: P Handling Objections with Grace

Prayer for Today

Lord, grant me patience and gentleness when facing objections. Help me answer with wisdom, grounded in Your truth and love, not anger or defensiveness. Teach me to be merciful to those who doubt and to always honor You in my responses. May my words draw others closer to You. Amen.

Your Verse

Matthew 5:16 - Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Supporting Scriptures

- Titus 2:7 In everything set them an example by doing what is good.
- 1 John 2:6 Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did.

Devotional: Reflect Christ's Light Through Your Actions

Wisdom in evangelism isn't just about words but also actions. Jesus calls believers to be lights in the world, shining through good deeds that point others to God's glory.

Living consistently with your faith strengthens your witness. Titus urges setting an example through good works and character, creating credibility and respect. Likewise, John reminds us to walk as Jesus did, showing genuine transformation.

Before sharing your faith verbally, consider how your lifestyle reflects the gospel. Actions rooted in wisdom demonstrate Christ's love powerfully alongside words.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Does my lifestyle align with the truths I proclaim?
2.	What areas of my life need to better reflect Christ's example?
3.	How do my good deeds enhance or hinder my witness?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about ways your actions have impacted others positively.
2.	List habits or attitudes that could better reflect Christ daily.
3.	Reflect on how your witness could be more authentic.

Prayer for Today

Jesus, help me shine Your light through my deeds and words. Let my life reflect Your character so others see Your love and holiness. Empower me to live worthy of my calling, demonstrating faith that is alive and active. May my witness honor You in all I do. Amen.

Day 12:
☐ Being Patient in the Process

Your Verse

Galatians 6:9 - Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ecclesiastes 7:8 The end of a matter is better than its beginning, and patience is better than pride.
- 2 Timothy 4:2 Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke and encourage—with great patience and careful instruction.

Day 12:
☐ Being Patient in the Process

Devotional: Persevere Patiently Trusting God's Timing

Evangelism often requires patience and perseverance. Paul encourages believers not to grow weary because at the appointed time, perseverance yields a harvest.

Wisdom recognizes that changed hearts and lives may take time. Pride can rush outcomes, but patience trusts God's timing.

Timothy's charge to preach with patience reminds us to approach evangelism with long-term faithfulness rather than quick fixes. Today, renew your commitment to faithful witness, even when results seem slow.

Day 12: $\overline{\Sigma}$ Being Patient in the Process

Reflect and Apply

1.	Have I grown impatient or discouraged in evangelism?
2.	How can trusting God's timing change my perspective and efforts?
3.	What motivates me to keep sharing even without immediate results?

Day 12:
☐ Being Patient in the Process

Journaling Prompts

Write about a situation when patience led to fruit in evangelism.
List ways to encourage yourself to persevere in faith-sharing.
Reflect on God's faithfulness in your evangelism journey.

Day 12:
☐ Being Patient in the Process

Prayer for Today

Lord, teach me patience when sharing my faith. Help me not to become discouraged or weary but to trust Your perfect timing for the harvest. Strengthen me to remain faithful and hopeful, knowing You work behind the scenes. Use my persistence for Your glory. Amen.

Day 13: 7 Cultivating Humble Confidence

Day 13: 7 Cultivating Humble Confidence

Your Verse

2 Corinthians 3:12 - Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 10:35–36 So do not throw away your confidence; it will be richly rewarded. You need to persevere so that when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised.
- Psalm 103:13 As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.

Day 13: " Cultivating Humble Confidence

Devotional: Boldness Rooted in Hope Builds Confidence

Wisdom brings a balance of humility and confidence in evangelism. Paul describes boldness rooted in hope—hope in God's promises. This inspires confidence without arrogance.

Hebrews encourages believers to not lose confidence but to persevere, trusting God's compassionate care.

Humble confidence recognizes our weaknesses but rests fully on God's strength and faithfulness. It enables effective witness that is both bold and loving.

Day 13: 🍞 Cultivating Humble Confidence

Reflect and Apply

1.	Do I share my faith boldly or shy away out of fear?
2.	How does hope in God shape my courage to witness?
3.	In what ways can humility and confidence coexist in my evangelism?

Day 13: 🍞 Cultivating Humble Confidence

Journaling Prompts

1.	Recall times when hope sustained and encouraged your witness.
2.	Write how compassionate knowledge of God impacts your confidence.
3.	Brainstorm affirmations rooted in Scripture to build your boldness.

Day 13: 🍞 Cultivating Humble Confidence

Prayer for Today

God, fill me with hope that translates into bold yet humble confidence. Let me trust Your promises and compassion as I share my faith. Help me to persevere and not be discouraged, knowing You are with me every step. Give me courage rooted in love. Amen.

Your Verse

Isaiah 41:10 – So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 34:17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them; he delivers them from all their troubles.
- 2 Corinthians 4:8-9 We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair.

Devotional: Stand Firm and Trust God Amid Trials

Discouragement can threaten our willingness to share the gospel. God's reassuring promise to be with us counters fear and dismay.

Psalm reminds us that God hears the righteous and delivers them in trouble. Paul's words affirm that although we face hardships, we are not crushed or abandoned.

Wisdom helps us anticipate challenges but also equips us to stand firm emotionally and spiritually. Today, declare God's promises over yourself and resist discouragement that tries to silence your witness.

Reflect and Apply

1.	When have discouragement or fear hindered my evangelism?
2	Havy do Co d'a muomia ao atuan ath an mao in difficult time ao
2.	How do God's promises strengthen me in difficult times?
3.	What spiritual practices help guard me against despair?

Journaling Prompts

1. Write about a time God delivered you from discouragem	ent.
2. List Scriptures you can memorize to combat fear.
3. Reflect on how community supports you during tough s	easons.

Prayer for Today

Lord, when I feel discouraged or afraid, remind me You are with me. Strengthen my heart and mind to persevere through difficulty. Deliver me from fear and grant peace as I continue to share Your love. Thank You for never leaving nor forsaking me. Amen.

V & & D

Day 15: A Walking in Integrity

Your Verse

Proverbs 10:9 - Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but whoever takes crooked paths will be found out.

Supporting Scriptures

- Psalm 25:21 May integrity and uprightness protect me, because my hope, LORD, is in you.
- 2 Corinthians 8:21 For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also in the eyes of man.

Devotional: Let Integrity Strengthen Your Witness

Integrity builds trust essential for effective evangelism. Proverbs highlights the security found in walking with integrity. Being honest and consistent reflects the character of God.

Psalm's prayer seeks protection through uprightness, showing how integrity is both a personal value and spiritual safeguard.

Paul points out that it is important not only to do right before God but also before others—our witness in daily life should be blameless.

Examine your life and strive for transparent, authentic integrity in all things so your evangelism is credible and honorable.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Are there areas in my life where integrity needs growth?
2.	How does integrity affect others' perception of my faith?
3.	What practical steps can I take to walk with more honesty?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Reflect on moments when integrity preserved your witness.
2.	Write about challenges to integrity and how you overcame them.
3.	List ways to demonstrate integrity in relationships today.

Prayer for Today

Father, help me to walk in integrity before You and others. May my life be a truthful witness that honors You. Protect me from compromise and empower me to be consistent and authentic in all I do. Let my integrity open doors to share Your gospel. Amen.

Day 16: Bearing Fruit in Evangelism

Your Verse

John 15:5 – I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit.

Supporting Scriptures

- Galatians 5:22–23 The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.
- Matthew 7:16 By their fruit you will recognize them.

Day 16: 🥬 Bearing Fruit in Evangelism

Devotional: Abide in Christ to Bear Lasting Fruit

Fruitful evangelism flows from abiding in Christ. Jesus likens believers to branches connected to the vine, highlighting dependence on Him as essential for fruitful witness.

The fruit of the Spirit—love, joy, peace, and more—evidences God's work in our lives and draws others to Christ.

Our character, empowered by the Spirit, authenticates our message. Matthew reminds us that people recognize true followers by their fruit.

Today, reflect on staying connected to Jesus and allowing His Spirit to mold your heart for effective evangelism.

Day 16: Bearing Fruit in Evangelism

Reflect and Apply

1.	How connected do I feel to Jesus in my daily life?
2.	Which fruits of the Spirit are most evident in me?
3.	How does the fruit I bear impact my evangelism?

Day 16: Bearing Fruit in Evangelism

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about how abiding in Christ has changed your witness.
2.	List fruits you desire God to cultivate in you.
3.	Reflect on ways to remain more connected to Jesus daily.

Day 16: 🥬 Bearing Fruit in Evangelism

Prayer for Today

Jesus, help me remain in You so I may bear much fruit. Cultivate Your Spirit's qualities in my life that attract others to Your love and truth. Let my witness be genuine and effective because it flows from You. Teach me to depend fully on Your strength. Amen.

Day 17: • Applying Wisdom Daily

Day 17: O Applying Wisdom Daily

Your Verse

Proverbs 4:7 - The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom. Though it cost all you have, get understanding.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ecclesiastes 5:1 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God.
- Psalm 19:14 May these words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, Lord.

Day 17: O Applying Wisdom Daily

Devotional: Pursue and Apply Wisdom Every Day

Wisdom is a daily pursuit requiring intentionality and sacrifice. Proverbs urges to acquire wisdom above all else and to seek understanding diligently.

Guarding your steps and being mindful of your words aligns your heart with God's will. Your speech and attitudes matter deeply in effective evangelism.

Ask God to help you apply wisdom in every daily interaction, listening for His guidance and reflecting His heart through your words.

Day 17: 🖓 Applying Wisdom Daily

Reflect and Apply

1.	How intentional am I about seeking wisdom each day?
2.	What choices can I make to guard my words and actions?
3.	How can daily meditation on God's Word improve my witness?

Day 17: 🖓 Applying Wisdom Daily

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write how you currently pursue wisdom and understanding.
2.	Identify habits to develop for applying wisdom in daily life.
3.	Reflect on recent conversations and how wisdom was shown.

Day 17: • Applying Wisdom Daily

Prayer for Today

Father, teach me to value and pursue wisdom above all else. Help me to guard my words and steps so I reflect You well. May all that I say and think be pleasing to You and used for Your glory. Guide me in applying Your wisdom daily. Amen.

Your Verse

Colossians 4:5 - Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 5:15–16 Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity.
- Psalm 90:12 Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Devotional: Recognize and Use Every Opportunity Wisely

Wisdom in evangelism includes recognizing and using God-given opportunities. Paul urges believers to be intentional and prudent in their conduct toward others.

Life is filled with moments where God opens doors for gospel sharing. Wisdom helps you discern and act confidently in these moments.

Psalm's prayer for a wise heart reminds us to value time and act with purpose.

Today, ask God to open your eyes for divine appointments and courage to engage when they come.

Reflect and Apply

1.	Am I alert to moments God presents for evangelism?
2.	What might cause me to miss or ignore divine opportunities?
3.	How can I prepare myself to act wisely when opportunities arise?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Describe a recent time you seized or missed a gospel opportunity.
2.	List ways to become more attentive and responsive to God's timing.
3.	Reflect on the value of time and how it affects your ministry.

Prayer for Today

Lord, open my eyes to the opportunities You give to share my faith. Help me live wisely and intentionally so I do not miss divine appointments. Teach me to number my days and make the most of every moment for Your glory. Amen.

Day 19: 🕮 Building Relationships First

Your Verse

1 Thessalonians 2:8 - We cared so much for you that we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel but our lives as well.

Supporting Scriptures

- John 13:35 By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.
- Proverbs 27:17 As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.

Day 19: 🕮 Building Relationships First

Devotional: Prioritize Relationships to Enhance Your Witness

Evangelism rooted in relationship is more impactful. Paul expressed delight not only in sharing the gospel but also in sharing life with the Thessalonians.

Jesus said love among believers is a powerful testimony. Authentic relationships create trust and openness for gospel conversations.

Proverbs reminds us that relationships sharpen and encourage growth. Investing in others beyond just evangelism fosters spiritual fruitfulness.

Today, consider your relationships and how they might open doors to share your faith naturally.

Day 19: 🕿 Building Relationships First

Reflect and Apply

1.	Do I invest time in building genuine relationships before evangelizing?
2.	How does love within relationships reflect Jesus to others?
3.	What relationships might God be calling me to deepen for gospel impact?

Day 19: 🕿 Building Relationships First

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a relationship that helped you grow spiritually.
2.	List people you can invest more time in building relationships.
3.	Reflect on ways to show Christlike love in daily interactions.

Day 19: 🕿 Building Relationships First

Prayer for Today

Jesus, teach me to love and invest in others deeply. Help me build authentic relationships that open hearts to Your gospel. May my life and love reflect You clearly. Enable me to share not only words but also my life with those around me. Amen.

Your Verse

Joshua 1:9 - Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.

Supporting Scriptures

- 2 Timothy 1:7 For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline.
- Psalm 27:1 The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

Devotional: Stand Courageous Knowing God is With You

Challenges and opposition are part of evangelism. God commands strength and courage, assuring His presence wherever we go.

Timothy reminds us the Spirit empowers us with power, love, and self-control—qualities that enable fearless witness.

Psalm echoes confidence in God's protection and light, overcoming fear.

When you face rejection or difficulty, remember God's promises and continue boldly. Wisdom helps you navigate challenges with grace and perseverance.

Reflect and Apply

1.	What fears or discouragements challenge my evangelism efforts?
2.	How can God's presence give me strength to persist?
3.	In what ways can you practice courage in upcoming encounters?

Journaling Prompts

Describe a situation where courage helped you witness effectively.
Write a prayer asking God for boldness in difficult times.
List Scriptures that remind you of God's presence and power.

Prayer for Today

Lord, strengthen my heart and courage. Remove fear and discouragement from my spirit. Fill me with Your power, love, and self-control to witness faithfully. May I always remember Your presence goes with me. Help me stand firm and trust You fully. Amen.

Day 21: 🥕 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Day 21: 🏂 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Your Verse

Psalm 126:3 - The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy.

Supporting Scriptures

- Philippians 1:6 He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion.
- Revelation 21:4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Day 21: 🏂 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Devotional: Rejoice in God's Work and Ongoing Faithfulness

As this study concludes, celebrate God's faithfulness in your journey. The psalmist rejoices in the great things God has done, reminding us to be joyful in what He accomplishes, sometimes beyond our visible results.

Paul assures us that God completes the work He begins in us, including our efforts to share the gospel.

Revelation promises ultimate restoration and joy in God's eternal kingdom for all who trust Him.

Celebrate what God is doing through you, even in small steps. Continue to seek His wisdom daily.

Day 21: 🥕 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Reflect and Apply

1.	How have you seen God's faithfulness during these 21 days?
2.	What joys and growth will you carry forward in evangelism?
3.	How will you continue cultivating wisdom for sharing your faith?

Day 21: 🥕 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about specific answers to prayer or progress made.
2.	List ways you want to keep growing in wisdom and boldness.
3.	Reflect on the joy God brings in witnessing for Him.

Day 21: 🏂 Celebrating God's Faithfulness

Prayer for Today

Thank You, Lord, for Your great faithfulness in my life and evangelism journey. I rejoice in what You have done and trust You to complete the good work You began. Fill me with joy and hope as I continue sharing Your love. Guide me daily with Your wisdom. To You be all glory and praise! Amen.
