Wisdom on Adultery and Its Consequences

Explore Proverbs 6:32-35 to understand the spiritual, emotional, and relational consequences of adultery and God's call to faithfulness.

Table of contents

Introduction	3
Day 1: O The Danger of Adultery	4
Day 2: The Emotional and Relational Impact	10
Day 3: Bestoration and Hope in God's Grace	16

Introduction

Adultery is a topic that touches upon deep hurts, broken trust, and sometimes devastating consequences. In Proverbs 6:32–35, King Solomon warns us about the serious repercussions of infidelity and unfaithfulness in relationships. This passage, grounded in practical wisdom, underscores God's design for marriage and the harm caused when that covenant is broken.

When we read about adultery in the Bible, it's not just about moral rules—it's about the impact on hearts, families, and communities. The temptation, the secret sin, leads to shame, bitterness, and often, destruction. Solomon's words are clear and stern, reminding us how adultery ultimately ensnares and harms both the guilty and the innocent.

As we journey through this study, we will dive into the consequences described in Proverbs, but also reflect on God's heart for forgiveness and restoration. This plan will encourage you to reflect honestly, seek wisdom, and find hope in God's grace. Whether you are personally affected or want to understand this issue biblically, may this study help you embrace fidelity and integrity in your relationships.

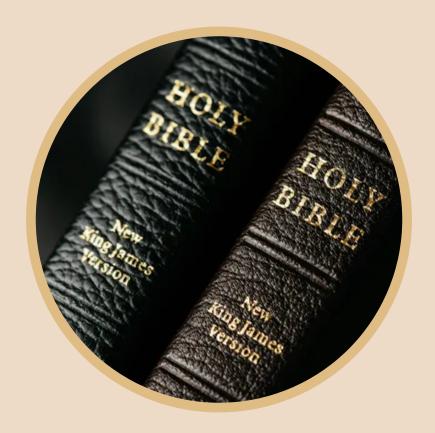

Let us engage with Scripture, listen to God's wisdom, and be transformed by the truths that protect and heal. Join me as we explore the path of wisdom and the cost of unfaithfulness.

Your Verse

Proverbs 6:32 – "But a man who commits adultery has no sense; whoever does so destroys himself."

Supporting Scriptures

- Hebrews 13:4 "Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral."
- 1 Corinthians 6:18 "Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a person commits are outside the body, but whoever sins sexually, sins against their own body."

Devotional: The Self-Destructive Nature of Adultery

Adultery is not just a moral failing; it is a decision with deep personal consequences. Proverbs 6:32 states clearly that a person who commits adultery "has no sense" and "destroys himself." This is a powerful reminder that such choices do not merely affect others but bring ruin upon ourselves first.

Spiritually, adultery breaks the sacred covenant of marriage God intended. It damages trust, leading to emotional and relational destruction. The Scriptures remind us to honor marriage and keep the marriage bed pure (Hebrews 13:4). This is not just for the sake of social order but for our own wholeness.

Physically and emotionally, sexual immorality is unique because it impacts our bodies and souls intimately (1 Corinthians 6:18). Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, and sinning sexually wounds us from the inside out. Recognizing the danger helps us take flight from temptation and protect our hearts and relationships.

Today, consider how God calls us to wisdom. Adultery might seem enticing in the moment, but its destructive power is clear. God's design for marriage is for our protection, joy, and blessing. Let us heed the warning and choose faithfulness.

Reflect and Apply

	How have you seen the consequences of adultery affect individuals and families around you?
2.	Why does Proverbs describe committing adultery as a lack of sense?
	In what ways can understanding the spiritual cost of adultery strengthen your commitment to faithfulness?

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a time when making a wise choice protected you from harm.
2.	Reflect on your understanding of purity and faithfulness in relationships.
3.	Journal about areas in your life where you need God's wisdom to avoid temptation.

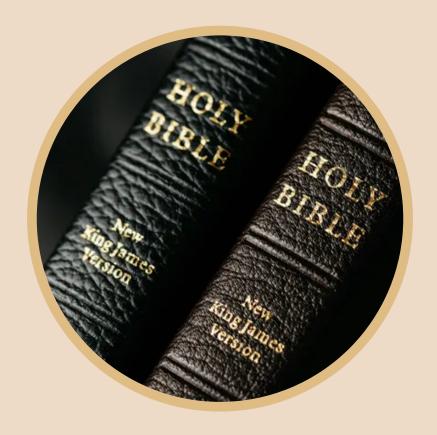

Prayer for Today

Lord, thank You for the wisdom You give through Your Word. Help me to understand the deep consequences of unfaithfulness and to guard my heart against temptation. Strengthen me to honor the covenant You have designed for marriage and relationships. May I walk in integrity and choose purity, knowing that these choices protect and bless my life and those around me. Guide me by Your Spirit to flee from anything that harms my body and soul. In Jesus' name, Amen. \heartsuit

Your Verse

Proverbs 6:34 – "For jealousy arouses a husband's fury, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge."

Supporting Scriptures

- Ephesians 4:31–32 "Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger... Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."
- Psalm 34:18 "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit."

Devotional: Healing the Heart from Betrayal's Pain

The pain adultery causes extends far beyond the act itself. Proverbs 6:34 reveals the emotional turmoil and jealousy that arise, especially in betrayed spouses. Jealousy fuels anger and sometimes harsh revenge, showing the depth of heartbreak and broken trust.

Broken relationships often foster bitterness and resentment, wounds that can fester if not addressed with God's grace. Ephesians urges believers to release bitterness and anger, instead embracing kindness, compassion, and forgiveness. Though adultery causes hurt, God invites us to heal through His forgiveness and restoration.

For the brokenhearted and crushed in spirit, Psalm 34:18 offers comfort that God is near, ready to sustain those who suffer the consequences of sin's fallout. Emotional and relational wounds may be deep, but God's presence brings hope and healing.

Reflect on the pain caused by betrayal, and remember that God's heart is with the hurting. Healing and renewed relationships are possible when we rely on Him.

Reflect and Apply

1.	How can jealousy and anger be transformed through God's forgiveness?
	What are healthy ways to respond to emotional wounds caused by unfaithfulness?
3.	In what ways does God comfort those who feel broken by relationships?

Journaling Prompts

Describe your feelings about betrayal or broken trust you have experienced or witnessed.
Write about how you might extend forgiveness or receive healing for emotional wounds.
Consider what steps you can take to cultivate compassion and kindness in hard situations.

Prayer for Today

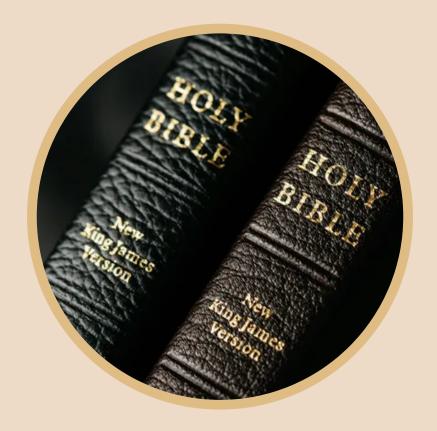

Heavenly Father, I bring to You the pain of broken relationships and the wounds caused by betrayal. Comfort those who feel crushed in spirit and heal their hearts. Help me to release bitterness and anger, and instead embrace forgiveness as You have shown me. Teach me to love with kindness and compassion even in difficult times. Surround those hurting with Your peace and strength. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 3: Restoration and Hope in God's Grace

Day 3: Bestoration and Hope in God's Grace

Your Verse

Proverbs 6:35 - "He will not fret over the wife of his youth or ignore the one he married,"

Supporting Scriptures

- Joel 2:25 "I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten."
- 2 Corinthians 5:17 "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come. The old has gone, the new is here!"

Day 3: B Restoration and Hope in God's Grace

Devotional: God's Grace Brings Restoration and New Life

While the consequences of adultery are serious, God's grace offers restoration and hope. Proverbs 6:35 points to a husband who refuses to forget or ignore the one he married, highlighting the importance of loyalty and reconciliation.

Even when damage is done, God promises restoration, as Joel 2:25 reassures us He will restore what was lost. The years impacted by sin and brokenness can be redeemed when we turn to Him.

In Christ, we become new creations (2 Corinthians 5:17). This truth means healing is possible not only for relationships but for personal restoration. God's grace covers our failures and invites us to walk in a renewed life marked by faithfulness and love.

As we close this study, embrace the truth that no matter what has happened, God's mercy paves a path for healing. Choose to trust Him for restoration and commit to living in the hope He provides.

Day 3: 🥦 Restoration and Hope in God's Grace

Reflect and Apply

1.	How does knowing God's promise of restoration affect your view of forgiveness?
2.	What steps might be needed to seek healing in damaged relationships?
3.	In what areas of your life do you need to embrace God's new creation power?

Day 3: 🥬 Restoration and Hope in God's Grace

Journaling Prompts

1.	Write about a hope or restoration you need from God today.
2.	Reflect on ways you can extend grace and pursue reconciliation in relationships.
3.	Journal your prayer for renewed faithfulness and trust in God's promises.

Day 3: Bestoration and Hope in God's Grace

Prayer for Today

Merciful God, thank You that You restore what has been broken and make all things new. Help me to trust in Your grace that covers my failures and renews my heart. Teach me to live in faithfulness, reflecting Your love and mercy. May Your restoration flow in my relationships and bring hope where there is hurt. Strengthen me to walk in the new life You give, clinging to Your promises. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Where God's Word Meets Your Daily Life

We pray this Bible Study has blessed you and drawn you closer to the heart of God. If you enjoyed this study, we'd love for you to join our growing HolyJot community online.

- 100k+ Bible Study Plans on every topic of life
- Access studies anytime on your phone, tablet, or computer
- Studies for individuals, families, small groups, and churches
- Secure online journaling or keep using print for privacy
- A place to grow your faith alongside believers worldwide

Bonus for You:

Download exclusive study bundles and resources when you create a free HolyJot account. No spam. No gimmicks. Just God's Word.

Visit Now:

- * www.HolyJot.com
- Scan this QR code to start your next Bible Study today:

We'd love to hear your story. Email us at info@holyjot.com.

Connect with us at:

Facebook • Instagram • YouTube • TikTok

You are welcome to share this PDF with others. ase keep it intact so the full study and credits remain.

© 2025 HolyJot LLC. All Rights Reserved.