Supporting Scriptures

- Proverbs 3:13 "Blessed are those who find wisdom, those who gain understanding."
- Ecclesiastes 7:12 "Wisdom preserves those who have it."

Devotional: Asking God for True Wisdom

Wisdom begins with a simple but profound step: asking God. James reminds us that God gives wisdom generously to those who seek it sincerely, without finding fault. This promise is the foundation for every wise decision we aspire to make.

Wisdom is praised throughout Scripture as a treasure more valuable than gold, guiding our paths and protecting us in life's complexities. It's easy to assume we must figure everything out on our own, but today's verse encourages us to rely on God's infinite understanding rather than our limited human perspective.

As we begin this journey focusing on biblical women known for their wisdom, we learn that their wisdom always pointed to God's guidance and that theirs was not self-generated but a result of trust and obedience. Let your heart open today to the invitation to ask God for wisdom in all areas of your life. He promises to provide generously and lovingly.

Remember, the journey of wisdom is ongoing. Begin each day with a humble prayer for discernment and strength to live wisely.
